WAR GOES ON! HALIFAX REPLIES TO HITLER OFFER

Says Britain Rejects Nazis' New World.

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 22.—Britain's official answer to Fuehrer Adolf Hitler's "last chance" peace offer is an emphatic "No." The rejection was given in a broadcast to the world tonight by Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax, answering the Fuehrer's reichstag speech of last Friday.

Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax.

"Hitler," Halifax said, "made it plain that he is preparing to direct the whole weight of German might against this country. We realize the struggle may cost us everything, but, just because the things we are defending are worth any sacrifice, it is a noble privilege to be the defenders of things so precious. We never wanted this war, but we shall not stop fighting until freedom for ourselves and others is secure."

Any further word Britain may speak in reply to Hitler is expected from Prime Minister Churchill in the house of commons tomorrow.

Bars Hitler's "New World."

Halifax said Hitler's reichstag speech made clear that "his picture of Europe is one of Germany lording it over peoples whom he has one by one deprived of freedom."

"The people of the British commonwealth," Halifax said, "along with all those who love truth and justice and freedom, will never accept this new world of Hitler's."

Halifax declared that Britain takes heart for the ordeal ahead from the "spirit of indomitable resolution" in every part of the nation and the prayers of the United States for "a British victory" over Hitler.

Of Hitler's axis partner, Italian Premier Mussolini, Halifax said, "flushed by his triumphs over a France whom he has not fought, he may be allowed the rôle of master of a Mediterranean which he has not conquered.

TEXT OF HALIFAX SPEECH

LONDON, July 22 (AP).—The text of Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax's radio address tonight follows in part:

"Many of you will have read two days ago the speech in which Herr Hitler summoned Great Britain to capitulate to his will. I will not waste your time by dealing with his distortions of almost every main event since the war began.

"He says he has no desire to destroy the British empire but there was in his speech no suggestion that peace must be based on justice, no word of recognition that the other nations of Europe had any right to self-determination, the principle which he has so often invoked for Germans.

"His only appeal was to the base instinct of fear, and his only arguments were threats.

"His silence as to the future of nations, whom on one false pretext or another he has subjugated, is significant.

Nazi Picture of Europe.

"Quite plainly, unless the greater part of the world has entirely misread his speech, his picture of Europe is one of Germany lording it over these peoples, whom he has one by one deprived of freedom. Our picture, drawn once again in bold outline by the President of the United States and Gen. Jan Smuts [prime minister of South Africa], is quite different. With them we see Europe a free association of independent states; and because of that contrast we remain unmoved by threats.

"Hitler has now made it plain that he is preparing to direct the whole weight of German might against this country. . . .

"Nor has any one any doubt that if Hitler were to succeed it would be the end, for many besides ourselves, of all those things which, as we say, make life worth living.

"We realize that the struggle may cost us everything, but just because the things we are defending are worth any sacrifice, it is a noble privi-

OLD HOME TOWN GETS READY FOR G. O. P. THRONGS

Ex-Roosevelt Aids Pledge Support.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Picture on back page.)

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 22.—Wendell L. Willkie today set Aug. 17 for his official notification as Republican Presidential nominee. The ceremony will be at Elwood, Ind., his birthplace. This announcement followed a conference here with Congressman Charles Halleck of Indiana, representative of the Republican national committee.

Earlier in the day Willkie announced the formation of a committee of four Democrats and former New Dealers, who have broken with the administration on the third term and other issues, to head a national campaign to enlist Democrats and independents in support of the Republican ticket in November.

Willkie postponed the notification ceremonies, which had been set tentatively for Aug. 10, in order to allow the committee more time to prepare for the crowds and to give him more time to compose his acceptance address.

Gather at Old Swimmin' Hole.

The ceremony will be at Calloway's park—known in Willkie's boyhood as "Joe Dehority's Woods." Then it held the old swimmin' hole—now it is a modern city park. There will be a preliminary fête of an informal nature on the steps of the high school where Willkie studied. He will greet his old neighbors there.

The committee of Democrats which the Republican nominee chose after several days of telephone and telegraphic communication, consists of:

Lewis W. Douglas, president of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, former congressman from Arizona, former director of the budget, and former adviser to President Roosevelt in the economy days of the New Deal; also former president of Magill university, Montreal. He served as a first lieutenant with the 91st division in France, and saw action in the Argonne and in Flanders. He was cited by Gen. John J. Pershing and decorated by Belgium.

John W. Hanes, member of the Securities and Exchange commission for the first half of 1938; then was appointed assistant secretary of the treasury, serving until December, 1938, when he was advanced to undersecretary of the treasury, which post he filled for over a year. Member of the famous Hanes family of North Carolina and a lifelong Democrat.

Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, Tulsa, Okla., president of the Federated Women's Clubs of America, who has been active in Democratic politics. She was national women's chairman of the Will Rogers Memorial commission, and during the world war was chairman of the women's committee of the Council of National Defense. She is a member of the board of regents of the Oklahoma College for Women and a member of the National League of American Pen Women.

Alan Valentine, president of Rochester [N. Y.] university, independent in politics, and former New Deal supporter. In 1929 he accepted the assistant American secretaryship to the Rhodes Scholarship trustees and served until 1932. He has been custodian of the College Entrance Examination board since 1936.

Work to Begin at Once.

This committee will work independently of the Republican national committee, but will coöperate with the Willkie-for-President clubs which sprang up all over the country in the nomination campaign and which now are waiting to throw their strength into the campaign under a new leadership.

Conferences will begin in New York at once between Hanes and Orep Root Jr., one of the club organizers, on how the efforts of these groups may be merged. Russell Davenport of New York will serve

British Troops Jam Ulster to Bar Nazi Coup

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, July 22 (AP).—Northern Ireland was jammed with British troops tonight—sitting on a volcano of nationalist agitation and prepared for a German blow against Ulster or neutral Ireland to the south.

The southern entrance to the Irish sea was mined to keep invaders from Ireland's eastern shore but it was pointed out here that Ireland's defenses might be unable to cope with any west coast sea assault or any large scale parachute descent.

If Ireland is attacked, Ulstermen expect Dublin will not object to quick British aid. But what bothers Northern Ireland is inadequate air defenses in Ireland and the anti-British attitude of Republican extremists.

Irish Speed Defenses.

Ireland sped defense preparations along the Ulster border and its coastline. The army recruited up to 70,000 men and thousands were joining the part time local security force. But the official cry is "more volunteers."

Ireland's security force has not yet been given rifles. Sources close to the present Irish Republican Army group say it is because the force is honeycombed with I. R. A. extremists itching to get guns. It also is believed there are several hundred of the 2,000 active I. R. A. men in the regular army.

I. R. A. extremists both in Ireland and Ulster seek to stir up enough trouble to make the Dublin government press Britain for immediate union of the six northern counties to Ireland.

Ulster Interns Extremists.

The Ulster government, taking drastic war-time measures, has interned 300 extremists without trial for the duration of the war.

Ireland maintains publicly its determination to stay neutral. Dublin sources said that if the English push in from the north in anticipation of a German thrust, the Irish army will fight the British.

They probably will put up a mere show of force, however, these sources said, before yielding. But if the Germans try to land the Irish will make a real fight.

In the face of Premier Eamon De Valera's firm neutrality stand in the south, Lord Craigavon, premier of Ulster, refused to yield a single point to demands for an all-Irish union.

REPORTS OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS STIR TALK IN WASHINGTON

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 22.—As diplomatic circles here listened today to Lord Halifax voice Great Britain's rejection of Adolf Hitler's bid for a "common sense" peace, new reports of negotiations to end the war, and of changes in the English government stirred discussion.

A dispatch from Berlin said: "It is understood in usually well informed circles that the pope, as well as the Spanish government, is making a great effort to bring about a compromise between the English and the Germans."

And from Rome came a report that the duke of Windsor has urged upon his brother, King George VI. of Great Britain the formation of an extraordinary cabinet with plenipotentiary powers. The report said Windsor urged including the following men in the extraordinary cabinet: Former Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, David Lloyd George, and Viscount Halifax. The duke of Windsor is reported to favor peace negotiations if an honorable basis is found.

QUEENIE TRAPPED IN PRAIRIE HOLE WITH 2 PUPPIES

Queenie, a mixed fox terrier and spitz dog of suspicious nature, now is safely quartered in the Chicago Anti-Cruelty society shelter after being trapped in a prairie near Western avenue and 85th street. Two puppies, about 5 weeks old, are with her.

Residents of the neighborhood found Queenie in a large hole in the prairie, but she would let no one approach her puppies. L. C. Krueger of the Anti-Cruelty society utilized a new type of trap to catch the dog, and the puppies came along without a struggle.

Dr. W. A. Young of the Anti-Cruelty society said yesterday that the shelter would find homes for the puppies.

WPA Worker's Wife Has 5 Babies in Less Than a Year

Kansas City, Mo., July 22 (AP)—Five children have been born to Robert L. Perry, a WPA worker, and his 26-year-old wife in less than a year. Twin boys arrived today. Triplet girls were born last Aug. 17. Another set of twins was born two years ago, but lived only a few days. The Perrys also have two other children. The oldest is 4.

Tunney Wants U. S. to Outlaw Foreign Isms

New York, July 22 [Special].—An immediate declaration of their intention to outlaw communism, Nazism, and Fascism in the United States was demanded from both major political parties today by Gene Tunney. The former world's heavyweight boxing champion, who has been fighting the American Youth Congress as a communist organization, voiced his demand at a luncheon of the Advertising Men's Post of the American Legion, of which he is a member.

"Those who are contending to take over the administration of the government after November should assure the people right away that if elected they will enact a law to outlaw communists, Nazis, and Fascists, as agents of foreign governments and as powers of the seeds of ideologies foreign to our American way of life," Tunney asserted.

Assails Youth Congress.

Describing his experiences at the recent convention of the youth congress at Lake Geneva, Wis., he said, "Every one in authority who had anything to say about the resolutions adopted by the congress was either a communist or a fellow traveler."

"But the American Youth Congress is dead," Tunney continued. "From one end of the country to the other we have shown it is an organization of crybabies who whine for work and won't work more than 30 hours a week. Unless some well meaning but unwise sponsor should apply a pulmotor to the American Youth Congress, that organization is dead."

Tunney described communists as persons "who look at the world with jaundiced eyes" and said that fellow travelers are those "who use rose-colored glasses."

Criticizes Vassar President.

Asserting that dictum of Lenin is that "communism must be built by noncommunist hands," Tunney attacked Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken, president of Vassar college, as a communist "stooge."

"Dr. MacCracken fits into that niche so beautifully that it is pathetic that he doesn't understand it," the former champion said. "MacCracken is a stooge when he allows communists to come up there and use his campus. As you know, the second World Youth Congress met at Vassar and was allowed from there to sow the seeds of international communism."

Pupils Made Ill by Canal Odor, Hearing Is Told

A precise school ma'am told a group of legal and engineering experts yesterday that the drainage canal in the Joliet and Lockport areas makes school children ill.

The school ma'am is Mrs. Louise Bush, principal of the Lockport grammar school. She was one of 20 witnesses at a hearing in Joliet on conditions in the drainage canal. Several witnesses warned that the conditions may cause an epidemic of typhoid or dysentery.

The hearing, before Monte M. Lemann, a special master for the United States Supreme court, was one of a series scheduled in connection with Illinois' plea to boost the diversion of lake water into the canal system from 1,500 to 5,000 cubic feet per second.

Flow Cut Dec. 31, 1938.

The flow was cut to 1,500 feet on Dec. 31, 1938. Since then life for residents in the Joliet and Lockport areas has been unpleasant and even potentially perilous, yesterday's witnesses told Master Lemann. The witnesses were questioned by Attorney General John E. Cassidy and his assistants, Ray Wallenstein and William C. Clausen.

Mrs. Bush testified that trouble in her school began soon after reduced diversion went into effect. In April, May, and June illnesses became prevalent among her 300 youngsters, she said.

"During warm periods the canal smell became so strong that 10 to 12 children were sent home ill every day," she said. "There were more absences in 1939 than any other year."

Other Pupils Made Ill.

Miss Mary S. Wurtz, principal of the McKinley Park school in Joliet, and Miss Clarice Blatchley, a teacher there, said many of their pupils had been made ill by the unpleasant odor.

Other important witnesses were Dr. L. J. Frederick, health commissioner of Joliet, and half a dozen Joliet physicians, who testified that the canal odor caused sleeplessness, loss of appetite, and other discomforts. Dr. Frederick testified further, and the other doctors supported him, that the canal is a potential epidemic breeder. Bacteria, he asserted, may be carried from the foul water by insects and result in an epidemic.

Objection Is Overruled.

Assistant Attorney General James W. Williams of Michigan, one of six lake states opposing increased diversion, objected to Dr. Frederick's mention of possible epidemics as immaterial. Master Lemann overruled him.

Other witnesses included Mayor George T. Jones of Joliet, former Lieut. Gov. Thomas F. Donovan of Joliet, Mayor Harold Raue of Lockport, and various business men of the region. The worst spot, Mayor Jones said, was the Brandon pool at the south end of the city. The witnesses said the odors covered an area extending a mile on both sides of the canal.

About 40 witnesses will be heard today.

FRANCE WILL GUARD HER POSSESSIONS IN AMERICAS, NAZIS SAY

BERLIN, July 22 (AP).—The German radio said today the forthcoming South American trip of Camille Chautemps, former vice premier in the Petain government, would be to make secure the position of French possessions in South and Central America.

Camille Chautemps.

The radio attributed to diplomatic quarters in Vichy the statement that the French government is "harboring grave misgivings apropos the tendencies of the United States aiming at systematically restricting or even definitely eliminating, under strictest application of the Monroe Doctrine, European possessions in America."

"It was pointed out that such tendencies are noticeable also in connection with the Havana conference," it added. "Hence it will be Chautemps' task to counteract such tendencies as far as French possessions are concerned."

The radio said these sources declared the United States as well as England is trying to eliminate not only German but French trade in South America.

AMERICAS MUST GUARD EUROPE'S COLONIES: HULL

Pledges Armed Aid for Trusteeship.

A partial text of Secretary Hull's address is on page 4. In the business section is a story, with map, on the trade and economic position of Argentina. This is the first of a series of articles on the foreign trade of South and Central American countries.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Picture on back page.)

HAVANA, Cuba, July 22.—The wealth and the armed forces of the United States were in effect placed at the disposal of Latin America today by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

In a strenuous effort to combat the influence of Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy among the nations south of the Rio Grande, Hull offered an alluring economic program to the ministers of the Pan-American states meeting here to discuss the political, financial, and social future of the new world.

Pledges Armed Help.

The secretary of state issued an uncompromising indorsement of trusteeship among the American republics for the Dutch and French possessions in this hemisphere and pledged the coöperation of the United States army and navy to enforce that trusteeship if the occasion should arise. The trusteeship, he said, was essential to the proper combating of the subversive machinations of the totalitarian powers in Central and South America.

The economic program outlined by Hull pledges the aid of the United States in handling Latin American surpluses and also for increasing postwar trade.

In return Hull asked for nothing but the friendly coöperation of the sister republics.

Urges Rapid Action.

Rapid and unhesitating action to prevent the seizure of European possessions in this hemisphere by any conqueror nation was advocated by Hull. The United States government endorses the establishment of a collective trusteeship of such possessions in the names of all the American republics, he announced, and is prepared to use its military and naval strength in the execution of the trusteeship.

"We should not permit these regions to become subject to barter in the settlement of European differences, or as a battleground for the adjustment of such differences," he said. "Either situation could be only regarded as a threat to the peace and safety of this hemisphere. As soon as conditions permit, the region should be restored to its original sovereign or be declared independent when able to establish and maintain stable self government."

Hull opened his address with the grim statement that world conditions were perhaps graver than they ever were before.

Attacks Dictator Powers.

"Our objective is to safeguard the independence, peace and wellbeing of the American republics," he said.

The usually mildmannered secretary of state vented his scorn of totalitarian powers in scathing phrases.

"These forces of ruthless conquest shrink from no means of attaining their ends," he told the conference. The Americans must not blind themselves into "fatal complacency" regarding the possibility of military invasion or fifth column efforts to undermine their governments, he warned.

Economic Defense Program.

Hull outlined a program for an American system of economic defense. His proposals included:

1. Creation of facilities for the temporary handling and marketing of accumulated surpluses of meat, grain, and other commodities.

2. Development of commodity agreements to insure "equitable terms of trade" for producers and consumers.

3. Consideration of methods for improving the standard of living in the Americas.

Turning to the subject of subversive activities by Nazi and Fascist agents in Latin America, Hull asserted that it was urgently incumbent to take decisive remedial action immediately against this "new and evil technique."

He said foreign governments are trying to acquire domination of the American republics.

NAZI BOMBS SET FIRE TO HOUSES IN SCOTCH TOWN

Explosives Rain Down 2d Time in 24 Hours.

LONDON, July 23 [Tuesday] (AP).—German planes scattered incendiary and high explosive bombs on England, Scotland, and Wales this morning. Some bombs also were dropped on coastal points, including the Thames estuary.

One Scottish town was struck for the second time in 24 hours. Incendiary bombs set fire to houses and plummeted into streets there.

About 100 incendiary bombs were dropped on this town in today's raid, but officials said damage was comparatively slight. One bomb plunged thru a tenement from roof to ground floor, setting a fire which was extinguished. A woman on the top floor was partly overcome and fell out a window, suffering serious injuries.

No great material damage was reported from any of the areas raided. Anti-aircraft guns maintained a hot fire, and fighter planes engaged the enemy. The barrage of anti-aircraft fire over one southwest town was terrific.

Explosions were heard in southeast Scotland shortly after enemy planes passed over, indicating the possibility they were time bombs.

Blast German Factories.

Waves of Nazi planes, roaring from the east singly and in groups, also bombed the Midlands, industrial heart of England, and scattered areas yesterday.

Britain also struck heavy blows at Germany, especially against airplane factories at Wismar and Kassel. "More than 37 tons of high explosive bombs and many hundreds of small incendiary bombs were dropped on two of Germany's principal airplane factories," an air ministry communique said. Relays of R. A. F. planes bombed the factories, it said.

Airdromes and seaplane bases in Germany and occupied territory also were targets of British harassing attacks. Bombs were dropped on Lannion, Caen, Morlaix, and Quer-Queville airdromes in northern France and on the Dutch airdromes at Hamstede and Wallhaven.

British fighter planes were said to have bagged 30 raiders in three days.

At least one, a Dornier 17, was shot down yesterday when swift British fighters dived on it from 18,000 feet off the southeast coast.

Three others were shot down by the destroyer Brazen before she was sunk by Nazi airmen. Her sistership, the Beagle, bagged another in a second sea-air fight.

A ship identified as the 1,282 ton Froussoula of Panama registry also was sunk by German bombers "in very bad weather" about 258 miles northwest of Cape Finisterre, Spain, July 15. "Heavy loss of life" was feared. Three survivors reached an English port in a lifeboat.

Sink Supply Ship.

The air ministry also announced that a 14,000 ton enemy supply ship was bombed off Denmark yesterday.

Naval sources said a minefield 35 to 50 miles wide had been planted from the territorial waters of South Ireland to the British coast near New Quay, Wales.

Headquarters of Gen. Charles Degaulle, commanding the Free French Legion, announced that "our airmen took part in the operations carried out Sunday by the royal air force over Germany." All the airmen returned safely, it was announced.

The sinking of an Italian submarine by an Australian destroyer was announced by Navy Minister A. G. Cameron at Sydney. Word of this action came as authoritative sources scoffed at Italian claims to "positive information" that three British warships besides the battle cruiser Hood and aircraft carrier Ark Royal had been damaged in the Mediterranean naval battle two weeks ago.

Mediterranean Quiet.

ROME, July 22.—A war communique issued today said that besides the British aircraft carrier Ark Royal and the battle cruiser Hood, the Italian air force had "seriously damaged" the battleship Warspite and the cruisers Gloucester and Arethusa during the Mediterranean aerial and naval battles two weeks ago. There was practically no activity in the Mediterranean yesterday, the communique said. It announced that enemy bases at Sidi Barrani and Marsa Matruh were bombed, and denied that British air raids over Asmara caused casualties or damages.

CHARGES FRENCH PLOT TO DESTROY RUMANIAN OIL

BERLIN, July 22 (AP).—The German foreign office published documents today purporting to show that France had drafted plans for destruction of the Rumanian oil industry in the autumn of 1939.

The papers were the latest of a series on allied war plans which the Germans reported were seized in a railway car in France.

The German radio said they showed that the French embassy in Bucharest had drawn up plans in collaboration with the British, to fire the wells and destroy establishments for drilling, producing, transporting, and refining.

Plan to Shut Only American Church Still Open in Rome

ROME, July 22.—The Paulist fathers church of Santa Susanna, the last American church to remain open in Rome, will close at the end of the month, it was learned today. Father O'Neill, the rector, who now is in America, has cabled that he will not return to Rome, and the church and library here are to be closed.

Defend Ireland Against Attack

Map locates mine field laid by British to block off southern approach to Irish sea, and northern Ireland, where troops have been concentrated against any German attempt to attack Ireland. Inset map gives distances from Stavanger, Norway, and Cherbourg, France, that Germans would have to go by sea to Ireland.

BRITISH EXPECT BUDGET ASKING HALF OF INCOME

Chancellor to Bare New Taxes Today.

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 22.—How Great Britain hopes to take half of the total income of the country to finance the war is expected to be told by Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Kingsley Wood tomorrow when he presents his supplementary war budget to the house of commons.

Already taxed to an unprecedented degree, the nation knows that, whatever proposals the chancellor is making, he certainly will demand hundreds of millions of pounds from the taxpayers.

The total outlay now is more than 9,500,000 pounds [about $38,000,000] daily, or some 3,500,000,000 pounds [about 14 billion dollars] yearly. The prospects are that even these figures may be exceeded when war production reaches its peak.

Estimate Income at 28 Billions.

Economists estimate that the total income of all individuals in the country this year will be around 7 billion pounds [about 28 billion dollars], which would indicate that the government will want in revenues and loans 10 shillings [about $2] on every pound [about $4], or one half of all income.

Altho Wood has kept secret the tax increase he is asking for, it is known that it must run into hundreds of millions of pounds if the nation is to come near the original finance plan, which is to meet half of the war costs thru revenue and supply the rest thru borrowings or the sale of gold.

Those who pay income tax and surtaxes are expected to be hit again. Some experts predicted that the average income tax rate, now 7 shillings 6 pence [about $1.50] on the pound, will be increased by another 2 shillings 6 pence [about 50 cents].

[Other sources said the income tax might apply even to men who earn as little as $8 per week.]

New Sales Tax Expected.

It is confidently expected that a new sales tax will be invoked, and that it may be as high as 50 per cent on luxury goods. The minimum rate may be 10 per cent on necessities other than food, young children's clothing, and commodities already subject to the excise duty. These items would be exempted under the sales tax bill. Increases also are expected on tobacco, alcohol, gasoline, and beer. Excess profits tax revision also is anticipated.

On the basis of the April estimate and the actual expenditure there already is a gap of 2 billion 500 million pounds [about 10 billion dollars].

Imports Rise One-third.

Foreign trade figures as given out today by the board of trade indicate that Britain, during the first six months of this year, imported more than one-third more goods than in the corresponding period a year ago. Exports also were higher, but only 5 per cent.

Imports were 612,527,356 pounds [about $2,450,109,424] and exports were 249,737,661 pounds [about $998,950,644], leaving an unfavorable trade balance of 362,789,695 pounds [about $1,451,078,780]. With shipping insurance and other invisible income immeasurably depleted by the war Britain's foreign exchange problem has been made more difficult.

BRITISH SPEED UP DEFENSES AT GIBRALTAR

LA LINEA, Spain, July 22 (AP).—Gibraltar's defense preparations were hurried today with the arrival of more transports carrying material. The merchantman Gibeliddersa left for Tangier with 300 persons removed from the Rock. Reports said removal of women and children would be completed early next month.

British planes wheeled over the fortress today dropping flares during their maneuvers. A solitary plane approached twice but antiaircraft fire drove it off.

300 Reach Tangier.

TANGIER, Spanish Morocco, July 22 (AP).—Three hundred persons removed from Gibraltar reached Tangier today. Many of 2,000 other arriving refugees have been turned back because they lacked necessary credentials.

BRITISH FIGHT ON, HALIFAX REPLIES TO HITLER OFFER

Never Will Accept Nazis' New World, He Says.

lege to be the defenders of things so precious.

"We never wanted the war; certainly no one here wants the war to go on for a day longer than is necessary. But we shall not stop fighting till freedom, for ourselves and others, is secure.

"What do we mean when we say that we are fighting for freedom?

"We want to be able to live our own lives as we like, and not have to look over our shoulders all the time to see if the Gestapo [German secret police] is listening.

"We want to worship God as we like, and this religious freedom based on conscience we will not let go. For conscience is not something that you can hand over to anybody else.

What Effect on Hitler?

"But in Germany the people have given their consciences to Hitler so that the people have become machines. And what has been the effect on Hitler?

"When he first gained power he was at pains to explain that his aims were strictly limited. He was only concerned with the welfare of Germany. He had no claims against her neighbors. But steadily his appetite grew, until today he assumes the rôle of a supreme protector.

"Already we see him ruling thru creatures, pale shadows of himself, that he has established in central and northern Europe. Farther south Mussolini, flushed by his triumphs over a France whom he has not fought, may be allowed the rôle of master of a Mediterranean which he has not conquered.

Force, the Final Rule.

"For Hitler force has become the final rule of the destinies of men and of nations. Germany has the force. Hence Germany must alone decide how the nations are to live together. What matter if they do not like it?

"He would have no nonsense about equality before the law which is an outrage against reason and the all-powerful state. Bad faith, cruelty, crime become right by the fact that it is he, Hitler, who ordains them. That is the fundamental challenge of anti-Christ which it is our duty as Christians to fight with all our power.

"The peoples of the British commonwealth, along with all those who love the trust and justice and freedom will never accept this new world of Hitler's.

"Free men, not slaves. Free nations, not German vassals. A community of nations freely coöperating for the good of all these are the pillars of the new and better order that the British people wish to see.

Prayers of Beaten Peoples.

"We can be of good heart when we survey the prospect. Hitler may plant the swastika where he will, but unless he can sap the strength of Britain, the foundations of his empire are built on sand.

"In their hearts the peoples that he has beaten down curse him and pray that his attacks may be broken on the defenses of our island fortress.

"They long for the day when we shall sally forth and return blow for blow. We shall assuredly not disappoint them.

"Then will come the day of final reckoning when Hitler's mad plans for Europe will be shattered by the unconquerable passion of man for freedom. And beyond the bounds of Europe, across the wide Atlantic, there are mighty nations who view his works with growing detestation.

"The people of the United States did not build their new home in order to surrender it to this fanatic. They have judged his narrow and twisted vision. They see that his gospel is a gospel of hate, that his policy is the policy of brute force, his message to mankind the enthralment of the human spirit under ruthless tyranny.

Confident of Support.

"We may take heart from the certain knowledge that that great people pray for our victory over this wicked man and his ways as fervently as any of his present victims. The foundations of their country, as of ours, have been Christian teaching and belief in God.

"I heard the other day of a Yorkshire village where, after all the talk about a fifth column, the people had agreed to form a sixth column, in which they pledged themselves to try and give a few minutes each day in God's house to prayer.

"This, then, is the spirit in which we must march together in this crusade for Christianity."

PREMIER OF CANADA BACKS UP BRITAIN'S RESOLVE TO FIGHT ON

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 (AP).—Canada's own answer—that Canadians "are prouder than ever to share with the men and women of Britain the rigors of the conflict"—was made today to Adolf Hitler's "last chance" offer of peace.

Speaking to the Canadian house of commons, Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King thumbed down the German proposal with as blunt a "no" as Foreign Minister Lord Halifax gave for England.

"The speech [by Hitler] calls for no words in reply," the prime minister said. "It answers itself. The one comment that obviously may fittingly be made upon it is that so far as the future of the war is concerned deception has run its course. Resolute action alone will decide how suffering and misery are to be ended, whether tyranny or freedom is to be annihilated, whether civilization is to be destroyed or to survive."

Nazis Say British Will Beg for Peace Despite Firm 'No'

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, July 22.—While in his speech tonight Viscount Halifax, British foreign secretary, rejected Adolf Hitler's offer of peace and Prime Minister Winston Churchill will put the rejection more bluntly in the house of commons tomorrow, high German officials believe that "fear and panic are at work in England and are undermining the morale of the British people."

The same German circles which in May declared that France would not continue the fight, now are asserting that "it is just a matter of weeks until the British chase away Churchill and accept Germany's terms the same way the French did."

They declare that influential groups in British aristocracy and labor circles are working for a "compromise" and that the propaganda of the German radio, which is flooding Britain, is proving effective.

Hope to Sway Masses.

"The English people are not given a chance to express their opinion," the Germans assert, claiming that the "English press is like a curtain of steel, hiding the truth about England's public opinion."

Nazis assert that the distrust in the sincerity of Hitler's peace offer as expressed in the British press is not the real reaction of the people, and they are confident that their friends in England will succeed in swaying the masses.

These circles also assert that "a few big air raids will be made by the German forces in the next few weeks and, after having had a taste of these real raids, the English will beg for peace."

Belittle Faith in Fleet.

These Germans argue that British faith in the fleet "will not be enough to keep up English courage once the real air attack starts. The people know that the English don't have the better air force. Optimists merely hope that American deliveries will increase their strength by next spring." The Germans hope by that time to have consolidated their power in Europe and Africa together with Italy.

The German press and radio also are busy intimating that Germany has extraordinary weapons in readiness.

"All reports from England show that the English don't have the slightest notion of what the continuation of the struggle really means," it is said. Der Angriff publishes a photograph of the "fighting plane DO215, [a twin engined Dornier monoplane bomber] which played an important part in the last raids of our air force."

British Raids Increase.

But while all this is being said, British air raids on Germany are increasing in number. Despite the official warnings not to speak about the raids, Germans in the areas affected discuss the "striking superiority of English flyers and planes over the French."

Civilians were reported killed by bombs in Bremen, Hamburg, Wismar, and Schwerin and other attacks were made at Kassel, Hanover, Pinneberg, Paderborn, Hagen, and Bochum.

DNB, the official German news agency, said numerous residential districts were spattered with explosives.

Ex-Foreign Chief of Japan Pays Visit to Philippines

MANILA, P. I., July 22 (AP).—Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, former Japanese foreign minister, arrived today at Davao—Japanese population center in the Philippines—on a visit which he termed personal and unofficial. Japan, said Admiral Nomura, desires only good neighbor relations with countries to the south. The admiral will leave tomorrow for Borneo, after which he will visit Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific.

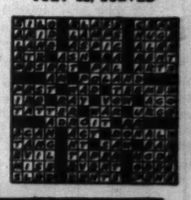
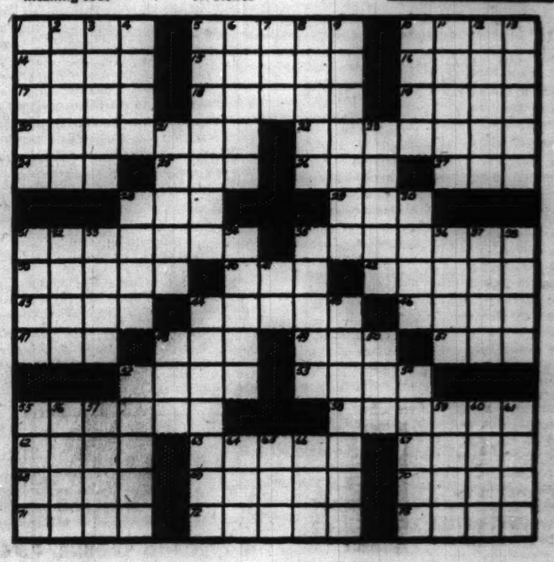
PUZZLE OF MONDAY, JULY 22, SOLVED





NAZIS AND REDS VIE FOR CLOSER RUMANIAN TIES

Russians Uneasy Over German Gains.

BY SAM BREWER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUCHAREST, Rumania, July 22 [Passed by Censor].—Germany and Russia—both friends—appeared to be wooing Rumania tonight.

Prime Minister Ion Gigurtu and Foreign Minister Mihail Manoilescu have been invited to Salzburg as guests of Germany. They will leave on Saturday. This visit is the latest step in drawing Rumania closer to Germany.

Grigore Gafencu, former foreign minister, will go to Moscow as Rumanian minister if Russia agrees to his nomination, it was reported. His name is said to have been submitted to Moscow. This step is intended to improve the neighborly relations with Russia and to offset uneasiness in Moscow over the growing friendliness between Germany and Rumania.

Russia Presses Rumania.

Rumania has been pressed by Russia to keep Germany from getting too strong a hold on Carol's kingdom, and it is a known fact that Rumania's neighbors do not want to see her swayed too much by German advice.

While the press has become more enthusiastic about Germany, Russia discreetly has reminded Rumania that the Russians would like to have closer dealings with Bucharest.

However, Rumania spokesmen denied Moscow has demanded that a "people's government" be set up in Bucharest.

Russia, reliable sources said, is not anxious to provoke Germany so deliberately as that and she knows such a demand would receive no sympathy from the Rumanian government.

The Balkan entente [Rumania, Turkey, Greece, and Jugo-Slavia] also has been the cause of German-Russian competition. Germany recently hinted she would be pleased if Rumania dropped out of the entente. Such action would scrap the group's agreement for mutual defense. The Russians, altho the entente was originally formed as a safeguard against Bulgaria, which is more or less their protégé, do not want to see it fall apart.

Germans Given Right to Arm.

[Copyright: 1940: By the New York Times.]

BUCHAREST, Rumania, July 22.—The German minority in Rumania has been given the privilege of arming, a communique issued by the Banat German "Gauleiter" district indicated today. The communique was published in the Banater Deutsche Zeitung.

The newspaper explained that arming is necessary because when the Rumanians withdraw from a part of Transylvania it will be necessary to maintain order. Moreover, it was said, it is possible the Germans need arms to establish their own autonomous province. Hungary has demanded the return of this province which was lost in the world war.

The newspaper also said all requisitioning for the Rumanian army in German districts must be suspended.

Told to Stay Out of Party.

Dr. Wohlmut Bruckner, German minority leader in Rumania, the Banater newspaper said, has repeated his instructions to Germans not to join the nation's party.

The newspaper reported that the German legation in Bucharest and the Rumanian government have reached an agreement providing that all German soldiers born in northern Bukovina and Bessarabia are to be released. These soldiers and officers will be repatriated to Germany.

SELASSIE TURNS INTO A GENERAL IN A WASHROOM

LONDON, July 23, Tuesday (AP).—Haile Selassie was transformed from a sad civilian exile into the resplendently uniformed fighting emperor of Ethiopia in a quick change act in the men's washroom of the former Italian Yacht club in Alexandria, the Daily Mail reported today.

The Mail's Alexandria correspondent said the black bearded little "Lion of Judah," having flown from England to Egypt, went under cover of darkness to the yacht club, now a British headquarters. There, in the washroom, he doffed his somber mufti for the uniform of an Ethiopian generalissimo, and with a British officer drank a toast in wine.

Then he hastened southward to the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan to direct the fight for Ethiopia's freedom from Italy.

"I claim to be the only man in the world who has entertained an emperor in a washroom," said the British officer.

FEDERAL JURIST MAY BE CHOSEN AID TO STIMSON

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 22 [Special].—Federal Circuit Judge Robert P. Patterson, who is a buck private in the business and professional men's training camp here, may become assistant secretary of war to his old friend, Col. Henry P. Simpson, it was learned tonight.

Judge Patterson, 49 years old, was appointed to the United States District Court of New York in 1930 by former President Herbert Hoover. President Roosevelt elevated him to the Circuit court in March, 1939.

Judge Patterson was a captain of the 306th Infantry in the world war and later major. Col. Stimson was with the 305th Field Artillery in the same division.

U. S. FLEET UNITS REPORTED GOING BELOW EQUATOR

HONOLULU, T. H., July 22 (AP).—Secret operations kept major units of the American fleet on the high seas today. It was understood movements of some units would extend below the equator. There have been reports the United States is planning to patrol all southern islands east of the international date line.

Lahaina roads, Maui Island, where most of the fleet had been based during a scheduled three weeks' maneuvers and target practice, was evacuated on Friday. Shore patrol headquarters at Maui has been discontinued for an indefinite period. Additional units left Pearl harbor today.

It was understood part of the detachment leaving Lahaina roads went to Christmas Island, jointly owned by the United States and Great Britain, as part of the exercises in south Pacific waters.

Governor of Belgian Congo Pledges Support to Britain

FRENCH GET NEW DICTATOR; HE IS LAVAL, A CENSOR

Ex-Premier in Charge of Press and Radio.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VICHY, France, July 21 [Delayed.]—Awaiting the signal to return to Paris, the French government today spent its quietest day since the armistice while Vichy, the chief French watering place, wore its almost usual Sunday summertime appearance. Tho activities were at a reduced ebb, telephone wires between Vichy and Paris hummed busily.

Pierre Laval, vice premier, was appointed director of all information to the press and radio and controler of press and radio censorship.

Housecleaning Planned.

Next week may see the beginning of the housecleaning of government and municipal offices of jobholders whose French nationality is questionable. Under a new decree law administrative posts must now be filled by Frenchmen whose fathers also were French. Ministers have a right to dismiss summarily any civil servants without process of law.

This may seem drastic, but it is declared to be necessary to correct conditions which developed during former Premier Leon Blum's Popular Front régime several years ago when many foreigners not only acquired French citizenship but also got soft jobs in ministries, especially the ministry of beaux arts.

In some quarters there are demands that this rule of restricting posts to French citizens born of French parents should be applied also to journalists, radio announcers, theater and movie directors, and doctors. France for the French is the keynote of this project.

New Attack on Jews.

Another housecleaning along other lines also appears in the offing. The Paris Soir in an editorial says:

"We in France have been witnessing the spawning of Jews here who have attacked the nervous centers of the country in order to gain control of levers of command. Vigorous and total solution of the Jewish problem is one of the essential conditions of our resurrection."

With the harvest season approaching full swing in France, authorities are hastening the demobilization of soldiers who are farm workers. In many areas the army is loaning horses to farmers to get in their crops.

ARSENAL CALLS FOR SKILLED MEN TO FILL NEW JOBS

The United States civil service commission yesterday issued a call for skilled workmen to take jobs in the Rock Island arsenal, one of the government's six big armament producing centers. The commission reported that a "strenuous effort" is being made to get capable mechanics and draftsmen for the national defense program.

Col. Norman F. Ramsey, commanding officer of the Rock Island arsenal, said 50 to 100 skilled workmen are needed immediately. Employment in the arsenal is now above the 5,000 mark, compared with 2,000 early in 1938.

Types of workers particularly needed are toolmakers, machinists, tool and gauge designers, automatic screw, precision grinder, and turret lathe operators. Application forms may be obtained at the arsenal in Rock Island, at the civil service offices in Chicago, or at any first or second class postoffice in Illinois, Michigan, or Wisconsin.

Tomato Queen

LESLIE SHIPPEY.

[TRIBUNE Photos.]
WANDA JEAN WEEKS.

Indiana's Tomato queen, Miss Leslie Shippey, came to Chicago yesterday for a short visit to boost [1], tomatoes; [2], Indiana and [3], Elwood, home town of Wendell L. Willkie, Republican nominee for President.

Miss Shippey is 19 years old and, from Greenwood. She will be crowned queen of the Indiana Tomato festival in Elwood on Thursday. At one time Elwood was the center of the Hoosier tomato industry.

Accompanying Miss Shippey is her court of five young women. They are Miss Wanda Jean Weeks, Elwood; Miss Martha Yumann, Indianapolis; Miss Judy Allen, Washington; Miss Mary Watkins, Hamilton Lake, and Miss Katherine Gassaway, Paoli. The girls met Mayor Kelly shortly after their arrival. For the next few days they will "see the town." They are being chaperoned by Mrs. Lola C. Lyons of Elwood.

FOREIGN CHIEFS OF TWO BALTIC STATES MISSING

Believed to Be in Hands of Russian Police.

BY DONALD DAY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TALLINN, Estonia, July 22.—The secret arrest and transportation to Russia of Wilhelm Munters, former Latvian foreign minister, and his family has been followed by the disappearance of two other Baltic officials. They are Juozas Urbsys, former foreign minister of Lithuania, and Prof. Antonius Piip, former Estonian foreign minister. Urbsys disappeared from Kaunas, and Piip from Tallinn.

Wilhelm Munters [top] and Juozas Urbsys.

The soviet government, in its recent ultimatum demanding that the Baltic states surrender their freedom, alleged that these countries had been conspiring with Finland to form an anti-Russian bloc of states. The three former foreign ministers will be examined by the GPU [secret police] in Moscow.

President Asks to Resign.

Constantin Paets, Estonia's aged president whose health has been broken by Russia's domination of his country, attempted to resign today. Later it was reported that the government refused to accept his resignation.

[A dispatch from London yesterday quoted Swedish sources as saying former President Karl Ulmanis of Latvia was gravely wounded and in a hospital in Riga. The communists, before transforming Latvia into a Socialist republic and petitioning for membership in the soviet union, last week decreed Ulmanis' ouster. He is 62 years old and had been president of Latvia since 1934. He helped write the Latvian declaration of independence in 1918.]

Soviet Action Expected Soon.

MOSCOW, July 22 (AP).—An early session of the supreme soviet, Russia's parliament, is expected to approve the petitions of Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia for membership in the soviet union. Delegates were scheduled to leave the three nations for Moscow tomorrow to complete the formalities.

The three Baltic states would raise to 15 the number of independent allied republics in the soviet union. A year ago there were 11 such republics. An additional republic, that of Moldavia, created from Bessarabia and northern Bucovina, which were ceded by Rumania, is expected soon to be proclaimed.

The first of the newly added territory was the Karelian-Finnish republic, carved out of the area obtained from Finland.

U. S. Delays Baltic Decision.

Washington, D. C., July 22 [Special].—The state department is studying all available facts before reaching any decision as to possible steps to protect American interests in Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia, in view of the petitions for their incorporation into the soviet union, Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, said today. He said he expected the study to require considerable time.

Dr. Alfred Bilmanis, Latvian minister to Washington, has announced he will refuse to surrender his legation to soviet Russia. "My homeland is the victim of unprovoked aggression," he said in explaining his decision. Bilmanis added that he plans to ask the United States to continue to recognize him. Welles had no comment on this development.

NAVY DESCRIBES ITS DECLINE AND RISE SINCE 1933

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—The navy issued today a review of the "Decline and Rise of United States Naval Power, 1921-1940"—a publication which department spokesmen said was compiled to answer numerous queries about the navy's strength.

Noting that 31 United States capital ships were scrapped or demilitarized by the 1931 Washington treaty, with a sacrifice of $277,000,000, the statement said: "With those ships we would today have a more powerful battle line than we can hope to have in the next six years."

Adding that 206 more ships were scrapped by the 1930 London treaty, the statement said: "Thus we reduced the nation's naval defense by a fleet almost as large as our entire fleet today. The treaties allowed us to build ships as replacements, but we didn't build them."

Since 1933, the statement said, the navy has started or contracted for 242 combatant vessels and commissioned 124, shipbuilding personnel in navy yards has increased from 4,969 men to 28,800, naval and marine corps personnel has increased 63 per cent, and naval planes have increased from 1,066 to 2,100, with 2,000 on order.

ORDER REVEALS BREAK OF FRENCH ARMY'S MORALE

BY ALEX SMALL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, July 22.—Proof that the demoralization of the French army had set in as early as last May—weeks before Adolf Hitler launched his great offensive against France—is contained in a series of orders issued by Gen. Charles Huntziger, then commander of the French 11th army on the northwestern front, which now are made public in the Paris press.

In an order dated from his headquarters on May 21, Gen. Huntziger states that "regrettable acts of pillage and devastation are being committed by the troops in the abandoned villages in the war zone," and directs that "officers must suppress such excesses with the greatest energy."

The orders warned "all looters will be tried immediately by courtmartial and the sentences pronounced will be executed without appeal."

Failed to Restrain Men.

Apparently this order proved ineffective to restore discipline, for, on May 23, Gen. Huntziger issued a second and even more drastic order, as follows:

"It has been brought to the notice of the commanding general that despite the efforts of the military police to round up deserters, numerous stragglers still are hiding in villages and farm houses where they are subsisting on pillage. These men are agents of moral disintegration.

"They must be arrested everywhere and brought before military courts.

"The army zone must be pitilessly purged of all suspected elements which may soon become dangerous. All good Frenchmen should assist in this work."

When the big German attack began a considerable portion of the French troops had already left their ranks and were creating confusion and unrest in the rear of the army.

TEXT OF HULL'S OFFER OF AID TO LATIN AMERICA

Dangers to 21 Republics Cited by Secretary.

HAVANA, Cuba, July 22 (AP).—A partial text of Secretary of State Hull's address today to the special Pan-American conference follows:

"We are here as representatives of the 21 free and independent American republics. We meet when world conditions are perhaps graver than they have ever been before. Our purpose is to devise concrete measures by which a number of pressing problems may be met. Our objective is to safeguard the independence, the peace, and the well-being of the American republics.

"For nearly a year now a new major war has raged, with increasing fury, over important areas of the north. It came as a culmination of a process of deterioration of international conduct and international morality, extending over a period of years, during which forces of ruthless conquest were gathering strength in several parts of the world.

Points to Beaten Nations.

"These forces, now at work in the world, shrink from no means of attaining their ends. In their contempt for all moral and ethical values they are bent on uprooting the very foundation of orderly relations among nations and on subverting, undermining and destroying existing social and political institutions within nations. They have already left in their wake formerly sovereign nations with their independence trampled into dust and millions of proud men and women with their liberties destroyed. . . .

"It has been increasingly clear that in the vast tragedy which has befallen large proportions of the earth there are dangers to the American nations, as well, which it would be suicidal not to recognize in time and not to prepare to meet fully and decisively.

Warns Against "Fatal Complacency."

"It has been increasingly clear that our nations must not blind themselves into fatal complacency as so many nations have done to their mortal sorrow—regarding the possibility of attack against them from without or of externally directed attempts from within to undermine their national strength and to subvert their cherished social and political institutions, or both. . . .

"Looming ominously on our horizon is the danger that attempts may be made to employ against our nations, too, the same means of subordinating their destinies to control and dictation from abroad that have already been notoriously employed elsewhere against numerous other countries. We must recognize the serious possibility that no effort or method may be spared to achieve, with respect to some of us, economic domination and political penetration, and to sow, among our nations, the seeds of suspicion, dissention and discord—the frequent prelude to even more menacing action.

Refers to Common Danger.

"Lest our nations, too, suffer the fate that has already befallen so many other peace loving and peace seeking nations, wisdom and prudence require that we have in our hands adequate means of defense. To that end, in the face of common danger, our nations are already working together, in accordance with their firmly established practice of free consultation among equals and of voluntary coöperation with regard to problems which are of common concern to all of us. It is to examine such of these problems as are immediately pressing and to seek for them most effective solutions that the representatives of the 21 American republics have come together at this time.

"I should like to consider first the situation which confronts us in the economic sphere.

"The war now in progress has brought with it a disruption in the channels of international commerce and a curtailment of foreign markets for the products of the western hemisphere. This has meant to many American nations a diminution of foreign exchange resources and a loss of purchasing power sufficiently serious to place severe strains on their national economies. In some cases stagnant surpluses of commodities, the exportation of which is essential to the economic life of the countries concerned, have accumulated and continue to accumulate. Their existence is a matter of present and future concern to farmers, workers, business men, and governments thruout the continental areas.

Sees Peril to Living Standard.

"We must assume that these difficulties will continue certainly as long as the war exists. We must anticipate that these problems, and probably others, will continue for some time after the war ends.

"If the standards of living of the American peoples are to be maintained at levels already achieved, and particularly if they are to be raised in accordance with the legitimate aspirations of these peoples, production and distribution must expand, not only in this hemisphere, but thruout the world. . . .

"It is already plain that international commerce is indispensable if economic rehabilitation is to be achieved. It is also plain that the only available means of doing this is to resume, as soon as circumstances permit, the normal currents of world trade. . . .

"We have long known from experience that international trade inevitably declines in volume and usefulness when it is conducted on a basis of exclusive bilateralism, or is pressed to unfair advantage, or is used to attempt economic domination. Eventually, such methods destroy the trade and the trader alike. . . .

Plea for Liberal Trade.

"Today, in spite of what has occurred in other parts of the world, the American nations continue to adhere to liberal trade principles and are applying them in their relations with each other as fully as the present state of affairs permits. They should be prepared to resume the conduct of trade with the entire world on this basis as rapidly as other nations are willing to do likewise.

"In the meantime, the American nations must and should do everything in their power to strengthen their own economic position, to improve further the trade and other economic relations between and among themselves, and to devise and apply appropriate means of effective action to cope with the difficulties, disadvantages, and dangers of the present disturbed and dislocated world conditions. . . .

Hull's 4 Point Program.

"Fully realizing that under present disturbed conditions no nation can expect to maintain a normal economic situation, and in order to meet the emergencies which confront their nations, the governments of the American republics, it is believed, should give consideration to the following program of immediate coöperative action:

"1. Strengthening and expanding of the activities of the Inter-American Financial and Economic Advisory committee as an instrument for continuing consultation with respect to trade matters, including especially the situation immediately confronting the American republics as a result of the curtailment and changed character of important foreign markets.

"2. Creation of facilities for the temporary handling and orderly marketing of accumulated surpluses of those commodities which are of primary importance to the maintenance of the economic life of the American republics, whenever such action becomes necessary.

"3. Development of commodity agreements with a view to assuring equitable terms of trade for both producers and consumers of the commodities concerned.

"4. Consideration of methods for improving the standard of living of the peoples of the Americas, including public health measures, nutrition studies, and suitable organizations for the relief distribution of some part of any surplus commodities.

Tells of Coöperation.

"The government of the United States of America has already utilized its existing agencies to enter into mutually advantageous coöperative arrangements with a number of American republics in connection with programs for the development of their national economies and by way of assistance to their central banks in monetary and foreign exchange matters.

"It is now taking steps which will make possible the extension of both the volume and character of the operations of such agencies. When these steps have been completed, the government of the United States of America will be in a position to expand its coöperative efforts with other American nations in the fields of long-term development and of monetary and exchange matters.

Encourages Joint Action.

"It will also be able to participate in immediate joint action with other nations of this hemisphere to meet pressing trade situations which may arise before the program outlined has come into operation. . .

"By helping each other, by carrying out with vigor, determination and loyalty whatever decisions are reached, the American nations can build a system of economic defense that will enable each of them to safeguard itself from the dangers of economic subordination from abroad and of economic distress at home. . .

"The solution of our economic problems alone is not enough to preserve the peace and security of this hemisphere. . . .

"I refer to the threat to our security arising from activities directed from without the hemisphere but which operate within our respective borders. A new and evil technique has been invented which seeks by devious methods to corrupt the body politic in order to subject it to alien purposes. With cynical effrontery, sanctuary within the generous citadels of free speech and freedom of assembly is demanded by agents whose masters would obliterate those institutions and foment instead dissension, prejudice, fear, and hatred.

"Sinister Campaign."

"Make no mistake concerning the purposes of this sinister campaign. It is an attempt to acquire domination of the American republics by foreign governments in their own interest. Already we have seen the tragic results abroad when governmental structures have been undermined and the fabric of established institutions riddled by the termites of alien propaganda. . . .

"It is now urgently incumbent upon us to take decisive remedial action to the end that the independence and political integrity of each of the American republics may be fully safeguarded.

"To this no friendly government can legitimately object. . . .

European Possessions.

"Specifically, there is before us the problem of the status of European possessions in this hemisphere. . . . We have no desire to absorb these possessions or to extend our sovereignty over them, or to include them in any form of sphere of influence.

"We could not, however, permit these regions to become a subject of barter in the settlement of European differences, or a battleground for the adjustment of such differences. Either situation could only be regarded as a threat to the peace and safety of this hemisphere.

"Any effort, therefore, to modify the existing status of these areas—whether by cession, by transfer, or by any impairment whatsoever in the control theretofore exercised—would be of profound and immediate concern to all the American republics.

"It is accordingly essential that we consider a joint approach to this common problem. We must be in a position to move rapidly and without hesitation.

"It has been suggested that our action take the form of the establishment of a collective trusteeship, to be exercised in the name of all of the American republics. The government of the United States indorses this suggestion and is prepared to coöperate, should occasion arise, in its execution. . . .

"Seldom has a meeting of friendly nations opened in an atmosphere of more widespread misconception and more flagrant misrepresentation as to its aims and purposes than have emanated in recent weeks, from responsible and irresponsible quarters, in connection with this meeting.

"We have met to consult together regarding our own pressing problems. We covet nothing anywhere in the world. We are free from the spirit of enmity toward any nation. But we cannot fail to be acutely conscious of the dangers which confront us as a result of present world conditions and against which we are taking and intend to take fully adequate measures of defense. . . ."

Bullitt Reports About French Downfall

Attends Funeral

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hyde Park, N. Y., July 22.—President Roosevelt today motored 24 miles to attend funeral services for his aunt, Mrs. Dora Delano Forbes, who died yesterday at the age of 92.

Private services for Mrs. Forbes, a sister of the President's mother, were held at 4 o'clock at Mrs. Forbes' estate near Newburgh, N. Y. The Rev. Karl M. Chworowsky, pastor of the Unitarian Church of Our Father, conducted the services. Burial will be at Fair Haven, Mass., tomorrow. The President was visibly affected by his aunt's death.

Mr. Roosevelt also discussed the foreign situation today with William C. Bullitt, American ambassador to France, who returned Saturday by trans-Atlantic Clipper to report directly to his chief. Bullitt had dinner with the President last night in Washington and accompanied Mr. Roosevelt to Hyde Park.

PRESIDENT ASKS 500 MILLION TO AID LATIN TRADE

Proposes Lending Funds for Export Bank.

BY CHESLY MANLY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 22.—President Roosevelt today outlined his plans for an economic union of the western hemisphere countries, with the United States footing the bill, in a message to congress requesting a $500,000,000 increase in the lending authority of the Export-Import bank.

Under Mr. Roosevelt's proposal loans would be made to the Latin American countries to finance the orderly marketing of surpluses. The purpose of the scheme, long discussed by the President and his advisers, is to forestall the economic and consequent political penetration of the Latin American countries by Germany and Italy.

The half billion dollar lending program was dumped into the lap of congress when it reconvened today after a recess for the Democratic national convention. It will give the members another major issue to contend with before they can begin to think about adjourning sine die.

Other Items on Program.

Other major items on the legislative program are:

1. The President's request for additional national defense appropriations and contract authorizations aggregating 4 billion 848 million dollars, which will raise the total of outlays for the army and navy in the present session to more than 10 billion dollars. In addition, congress has authorized a 4 billion dollar two ocean naval expansion program for completion in the next six years.

2. Compulsory selective military service legislation and authorization for Mr. Roosevelt to order the National Guard into federal service to assist in training a conscript army. The conscription issue is expected to produce a major controversy in congress.

3. Legislation imposing additional taxes on so-called excess profits of corporations and individual investors. A bill representing the views of the treasury department is being drafted by the joint congressional committee on internal revenue for introduction in the house later this week.

Both Houses Recess Again.

Both houses recessed until Thursday after perfunctory sessions today and they will recess then until Monday. The purpose of the recesses is to give the legislators a rest after their convention labors and to give committees time to prepare legislation.

Mr. Roosevelt's message urging a half billion dollars increase in the lending authority of the Export-Import bank was timed to give encouragement and hope of material benefit to the delegates of the 20 Latin American countries meeting in Havana today, at the call of the United States, to consider common problems of the western hemisphere occasioned by the war in Europe.

Mr. Roosevelt's 5 billion dollar lending-spending program of 1939, which congress killed, contained a request for a half billion dollar increase in the lending authority of the Export-Import bank for loans to Latin American and other foreign governments. There was widespread opposition to the proposal at that time because of the vast amount of defaulted South American bonds held by American investors.

Authorization Is Foreseen

Present indications are, however, that congress will authorize the half billion dollar increase. Thus far the President has been given everything he has requested in the name of the national defense. During the Russo-Finnish war Congress increased the lending authority of the Export-Import bank from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 for the purpose of extending credits to Finland, China, and other countries.

EXPORT CARTEL PLAN SPURNED BY ARGENTINEANS

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, July 22 (AP).—Livestock breeders and grain planters of the province of Buenos Aires and the territory of La Pampa, representing 45 per cent of Argentina's agricultural output, threw their weight tonight against any western hemisphere export cartel.

In a resolution adopted at their annual congress, the breeders and planters described such a program as a big stick in the hands of United States producers, "our direct competitors."

The resolution said that the time had come "to intensify the spiritual and economic relationships" among the American republics, but suggested that this could best be expressed in a Pan-American declaration recognizing each nation's complete economic independence.

Gangsters in Custody

TWO WOUNDED YEGGS GIVE UP; SHOT BY POLICE

Two young men, nattily attired in green suits, appeared late last night at the Bridewell hospital with the request that they be treated for bullet wounds. Bruno Wisowaty, a guard, asked how they were hurt.

"Oh," one said airily, "we shot it out with the cops Sunday morning during that safe cracking at 3632 South Ashland."

They gave their names as Kenneth Tuftedal, 327 West 112th street, and Edward Melish, 220 West 109th street. Tuftedal was shot in the left shoulder and Melish in the left hand. hand.

Policemen John P. Conway and Daniel Keating were wounded during the gun battle; one robber, George Montville, 22 years old, of 10812 State street, was captured at once, and two others, George Budka, 27, of 2813 South Central Park avenue, and Frank Michuda, 26, of 1334 18th place, soon afterwards.

The two who surrendered last night complete the roster of the safe cracking gang. They were taken to the Brighton Park station for questioning by Lieut. William Smith, then returned to the Bridewell. Hospital guards said they could not remember any similar surrenders in the past.

Steve Melish, a brother of Edward, was slain last July during a gunfight with Lieut. Smith and three other policemen who attempted to arrest him as a prowler. Steve was a St. Charles parolee, sent to the school for burglary in 1933 and released in 1934.

$800,000 Foreign Order Placed for Air Trainers

San Diego, Cal., July 22 (AP).—An $800,000 order from a foreign government for production of military training planes similar to those recently delivered to the United States Army was disclosed today by the Ryan Aeronautical company.

URGES U. S. SHIPS FOR EVACUATING BRITISH CHILDREN

Congressman Asks Quick Ieutrality Act Change.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 22.—A proposed amendment to the neutrality act which would permit United States ships to bring English refugee children to this country and thus speed their evacuation before possible attempts by Germany to invade the British Isles was introduced in the house today by Representative Thomas C. Hennings Jr. [D., Mo.].

Urging immediate consideration of the measure, Representative Hennings asserted he could not see even a remote possibility that this action would involve the nation in war. He explained that the wording of the neutrality act, as it now stands, permitting American ships to enter the combat zones with Red Cross workers, physicians, and medical supplies, does not include authority to transport the refugee children out of their present danger.

Describes British Anxiety.

In a statement issued as the proposed amendment was introduced, Hennings described England's anxiety over the fate of its children as the most acute human suffering in the British Isles today.

"Co-authors of the neutrality act, I am sure," Representative Hennings said, "did not foresee the emergency which now exists confining thousands of young children to the island of Great Britain, which has become an area of the most acute and omnipresent danger.

"I believe that we should use our own passenger ships, well marked and lighted by day and night so as to make their identification unmistakable, to transport children whose families are willing that they be brought to America as refugees for the duration of this emergency."

The proposed amendment will be referred to the house foreign relations committee, of which Representative Hennings is a member.

REPORT KENNEDY OPPOSED

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 22.—While certain Americans living in London have been quoted by the press here as promising that American ships would be sent to evacuate children from Britain, THE TRIBUNE understands the proposal has been vigorously opposed by the American ambassador here, Joseph P. Kennedy, and that he has emphatically stated his reasons to the state department.

Tonight's press is playing up a story that the American neutrality law may be changed to send "mercy ships" to England, and undoubtedly high hopes are entertained here that this will be done. Kennedy, however, has been cold to the project since it was originally suggested several weeks ago, THE TRIBUNE has been informed.

His Reasons Given.

The reasons for Kennedy's objections, it is said, are primarily that the move might be a back way entrance into the war and that the evacuation scheme is so badly disorganized both here and in America that only recrimination might result.

Even government organizers have said that only a fraction of the children for whom evacuation has been sought would be able to get to America even if ships were available and unpleasant political repercussions might result from the dissatisfaction of parents at the failure of their children to be included among those evacuated. Moreover, there is no guarantee even that the children brought to America would be brought up and educated as their parents would wish.

RAPS AMERICA, JOLIET PRISON GUARD IS FIRED

John L. McNeil, 42 years old, guard at the Joliet penitentiary, was dismissed yesterday by Joseph E. Ragen, superintendent of prisons, on charges that he had been guilty of un-American utterances. McNeil, according to Ragen, had been critical of the American government, American practices, and American conditions. Canada, he had stated, is much more to be desired as a place of residence than the United States, the superintendent continued, adding that McNeil had also disclosed he is not an American citizen and has no desire to become one.

Citizenship of Communist Official to Be Canceled

San Francisco, Cal., July 22 (AP).—Federal Judge Michael J. Roche said today he would sign an order canceling the citizenship of William Schneiderman, 34 years old, of Los Angeles, state secretary of the Communist party. Schneiderman's attorney, George Anderson, said the case would be carried to the United States Supreme court. The government contended Schneiderman took his oath of citizenship with "mental reservations," that he still "maintained allegiance and fidelity" to soviet Russia.

FOUR LIVES LOST AS AUTOS CRASH NEAR LOCKPORT

Two Women and Two Men Are the Victims.

Two women and two men were killed yesterday when two automobiles collided at the intersection of routes 53 and 66, eight miles north of Lockport.

The dead were Mrs. Edith Cole Harris, 36 years old, of Elmore avenue, Downers Grove; her sister, Mrs. H. E. Thompson, 42, of Norfolk, Va.; C. G. Pratt, 49, of 600 East Illinois street, Wheaton, night jailer at the Du Page county jail in Wheaton, and John Brantley, 30, of 115 South boulevard, Oak Park, a beauty products salesman.

Attended Family Reunion.

Police said the two women had attended a family reunion at Peoria, and that Pratt, a friend, met them at Joliet to take them to Downers Grove.

Pratt was on route 53. State police said there is a sign directing its traffic to halt for that on 66.

Six persons were injured earlier yesterday when a loop bound Chicago Motor Coach company bus struck a tree on Sheridan road south of Estes avenue. They are:

Ira Ahlborn, 40 years old, of 4444 Sheridan road, the driver; Miss Marion Birnbaum, 24, of 7645 Sheridan road; Garabel Hamparion, 56, of 1744 Juneway terrace; Miss Meta Larsen, 39, of 7100 Sheridan road; Louis J. Saperston, 55, of 7531 Rogers avenue, and Mrs. H. H. Witherstise, 54, of 1345 Jarvis avenue. All were taken to the Edgewater hospital, where it was said that none was in a serious condition.

Loses Control of Bus.

Witnesses told police Ahlborn was giving transfers when he lost control of the bus. There were more than 50 passengers on board.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 468 persons had been killed in automobile accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these, 349 were killed in Chicago, where 12,514 were injured in the same period.

BRITISH BESIEGE 1 FARMER; FIGHTS WARTIME EDICT

Refuses to Surrender Right of Tenure.

BY LARRY RUE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, July 22.—British police tonight were fighting a battle similar to that of Cameron Dam in Wisconsin years ago. They have laid siege to a farm on which the 66 year old tenant farmer has barricaded himself to evade ejection for failing to plough up his land as required under a war agricultural scheme.

Shots rang out from behind the barricade when police and state representatives approached the farm near Southampton. Constable Draper was wounded in the leg.

Reports tonight indicated that the tenant, Raymond Warden, still was dominating his entrenched position, altho numerous patrols made some strategic advance from which it is hoped they can launch a successful attack at the zero hour tomorrow.

All His Life on the Farm.

Warden has lived on the farm all his life. The Daily Mirror reported neighbors as saying that Warden, who is a bachelor, has not been away from the farm for the last 50 years. Last July Warden was ordered off the premises, which consist of a 50 acre farm with a five room old-fashioned farmhouse, but instead of obeying the order began preparing for the "Battle of the Farm" and to uphold his freedom of tenure.

Warden's case was the most spectacular show of resistance to one of the breakdowns in traditional rights as a result of the war—the right to farm property as the owners see fit. Today the government seized 450 farms and building sites in England and Wales.

They comprise 32,450 acres and were taken over by county war and agricultural committees, acting as agents for the ministry of agriculture.

Converted to Use.

The reason given was that the farms were "neglected, mismanaged, or badly farmed" and the building sites were undeveloped and weedridden. All now will be used for growing food.

In addition, the ministry of agriculture has terminated the tenancies of another 156 farms with 16,000 acres.

All land seized will remain in the possession of the ministry until three years after the end of the war.

McGREGOR COUPLE WED 50 YEARS.

McGregor, Ia., July 22 [Special].—Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hatch, who were married at Pontiac, Mich., July 23, 1890, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary here tomorrow. Mrs. Hatch was formerly a teacher in the McGregor schools. Mr. Hatch, until his retirement six years ago, conducted a grocery business here for 20 years.

RAP STATE LAWS FOR MAKING RACE TRACK OF CITY

Protests against conflicts between state and city traffic laws which, it was said, make death traps of some of Chicago's streets were voiced yesterday before the city council traffic committee.

"The state has erected 45 mile an hour signs on Caldwell avenue in my ward," said Ald. William J. Cowhey [41st]. "The city code provides for a 30 mile limit. I'm going out tomorrow morning and tear down those state signs myself."

Ald. H. L. Brody [39th] said the state is making a race track of Foster avenue by ignoring demands for stoplights at several intersections. Ald. George D. Kells [28th] reminded the committee that on superhighways there would be no traffic light problem.

It was explained the state controls state highways within the city. Ald. Arthur G. Lindell [9th] was instructed to prepare a list of conflicts between the codes. It was suggested a representative of the committee appear before the legislature next year to straighten out the inconsistencies.

ACCEPTS A RIDE; ROBBED.

Three strangers offered Valerian Godreski, 8575 Essex avenue, a ride from a movie early yesterday. They drove him to 100th street and Torrence avenue, slugged him, and robbed him of $14 and his watch. Godreski is a steel worker, 40 years old.

BEACH ROAD THRU LINCOLN PARK TO CLOSE TODAY

Construction of the 10 lane Beach drive link of the Outer drive system thru Lincoln park will begin today. The present Beach drive will be closed to motorists from a point north of the North avenue grade separation to Belmont avenue.

Express southbound traffic during the morning rush hour will pass thru Lincoln park on Center drive and a temporary road paralleling Center drive,, on Sheridan road between Melrose street and Diversey parkway, and on Stockton drive between Diversey and Fullerton parkways. These will be one-way streets at this hour.

During the evening rush period, they will be one-way northbound streets. Traffic opposing the general movement will be detoured on streets lying to the west.

At all other times of the day the center drive will be one-way northbound. Southbound traffic will move thru the park on Sheridan road to Diversey on Stockton drive to Fullerton, and on the temporary road to North avenue, all one-way streets. Local traffic will move on the streets lying to the west.

MARCUS GERBRICK FUNERAL TODAY.

Bloomington, Ill., July 22 [Special].—Funeral services for Marcus Gerbrick, 91 years old, who died yesterday, will be held in Stanford tomorrow. Gerbrick became a pharmacist in 1881 and was postmaster of Stanford from 1914 to 1925. He operated the drug store in the same building in which he started 59 years ago.

POLICEMAN PUT ON TRIAL FOR A FATAL JOY RIDE

Policeman Frank Hansen of Hazel Crest went on trial before a jury in Judge John P. McGoorty's court yesterday for the police car joy ride that cost two lives. Hansen is charged with manslaughter.

He was riding in the squad car early on the morning of Feb. 21 at 95th and Halsted streets—10 miles from Hazel Crest—when the car struck another automobile. William Knapp of 9963 Edbrooke avenue, driver of the second car, was killed.

Evan Flora of 170th street and Page avenue, Hazel Crest, a passenger in the squad car, was so badly injured that he died later. Miss Eleana Ketola of 1217 East 55th street, another of the policeman's party, was severely injured. The speedometer in the wrecked squad car had jammed at 77 miles an hour.

U. S. TAKES OVER 2 MORE VESSELS TO BOLSTER NAVY

New York, July 22 [Special].—The Grace liners Santa Barbara and Santa Maria have been taken over by the United States navy as auxiliaries, it was learned today when the Santa Barbara arrived here from South America with 66 passengers, including Mrs. Arnulfo Arias, wife of the president elect of Panama.

Mrs. Arias said that Panama citizens are not worried about war, because "we feel sure the United States will be able to protect Panama and the Canal Zone.

The Santa Barbara and the Santa Maria, both built in England in 1928, are each of 7,858 gross tons and 466 feet long. They bring to five the number of merchant vessels acquired by the navy in recent weeks.

The President Grant and the President Jackson, 19 year old steamers of the American Mail Line, displacing 14,000 tons each, have been delivered to the navy on the west coast. Previously the navy bought the Sea Arrow, new 7,773 ton cargo steamer built by the Maritime commission.

These vessels were bought in lieu of building new auxiliaries authorized by recent legislation. By purchasing old ships, the navy department explained, shipways will be left clear for the construction of fighting vessels.

Drunk Driver Fined $100 After Car Hits Another

Sam Gubik, 2241 Augusta boulevard, a baker, was fined $100 by Judge Gibson E. Gorman yesterday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Gubik was arrested Friday after he pulled his automobile out of a line of traffic at Augusta boulevard and Leavitt street and collided with another car.

ROOSEVELT FOES MEET TO PLAN 3D TERM FIGHT

Count Dozen Democrats Against President.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 22.—Informal discussions looking toward the formation or sponsorship of a national organization to oppose President Roosevelt's reëlection for a third term were begun today by Democratic senators who fought the President's proposal to pack the United States Supreme court in 1937.

Senator Edward R. Burke [D., Neb.], who has declared his support of Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican nominee for President, is the prime mover in the series of informal, private discussions started today among the anti-New Deal and anti-third term Democrats.

While none of the others is expected to declare openly for Willkie, Senator Burke said the results of his conferences indicated that at least a dozen Democratic senators will refuse to support Mr. Roosevelt for reëlection and will oppose him to the extent of reaffirming their opposition to a third term for any President.

Encouraged by Douglas Action.

The anti-third term Democrats were encouraged today by the action of Lewis W. Douglas, former director of the budget under Mr. Roosevelt, and John W. Hanes, former undersecretary of the treasury and a prominent North Carolina Democrat, in pledging their support to Willkie.

They were encouraged also by indications that Vice President John N. Garner of Texas will refuse to support the Roosevelt-Wallace ticket. Mr. Garner left tonight for his home in Uvalde, Tex., for the primary election next Saturday, but refused to say whether he will return to Washington.

"I will reserve my decision on that," he said. "I have a leader who waits until the last moment to make up his mind." This referred to Mr. Roosevelt on the third term.

Purge List Represented.

The anti-third term senators include those who were on Mr. Roosevelt's purge list in 1938 because of their opposition to the court packing bill, and those who would have been on the purge list had they been up for reëlection that year. They concede that Mr. Roosevelt's purge succeeded at Chicago to the extent of placing the party machinery in the hands of the New Deal left wingers.

"Our attitude toward the campaign," one of them said, "may be described as apathetic with a positive note."

The Democratic senators who are being most closely watched for some positive expression against Mr. Roosevelt's reëlection include Walter F. George, Georgia; Millard E. Tydings, Maryland; Josiah W. Bailey, North Carolina; Frederick Van Nuys, Indiana; Ellison D. Smith, South Carolina; Peter G. Gerry, Rhode Island; Bennett Champ Clark, Missouri; D. Worth Clark, Idaho; Pat McCarran, Nevada; Harry F. Byrd, Virginia; Carter Glass, Virginia; Edwin C. Johnson, Colorado, and Burton K. Wheeler, Montana.

Al Smith Group to Bolt.

New York, July 22 (AP).—The New York Herald Tribune says that former Gov. Alfred E. Smith and other prominent Democrats soon will announce their opposition to a third term for President Roosevelt and will support Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell L. Willkie.

Smith conferred today with Jouett Shouse of Kentucky, who was assistant secretary of the treasury under President Wilson, and John J. Raskob, Smith's campaign manager in the 1928 Presidential campaign.

"The major topic of the conference," it was said, "was how to capitalize the anti-third term sentiment most effectively in behalf of Mr. Willkie."

AFFIRM INDIANA PRISON TERMS IN WPA FRAUD

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed prison sentences and fines imposed on Carl F. Kortepeter, former supervisor of operations for the Works Progress administration in Marion county, Ind., and his father-in-law, Gurney G. Derbyshire.

They were found guilty last Dec. 6 in federal court in Indianapolis of defrauding the government thru misuse of WPA labor on Derbyshire's 14 acre subdivision, where two roads were built. Kortepeter was sentenced to 18 months in the federal reformatory and fined $1,000. Derbyshire was sentenced to a year and a day and fined $1,000.

Chief Justice Evan A. Evans, in an opinion concurred in by Judges Walter E. Treanor and Walter Kerner, held that, "it is perfectly clear that the two defendants used WPA funds and WPA labor to enrich defendant Derbyshire by improving his private property."

BYOIR CLEARED BY HOUSE BODY OF SPY CHARGE

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—A house subcommittee has cleared Carl Byoir, New York publicist, of charges of un-American activities, it was announced by Representative John J. Dempsey [D., N. M.].

In a telegram to Chairman Martin Dies [D., Tex.] of the house committee investigating un-American activities, Dempsey recommended that it adopt a resolution "covering a full exoneration."

Dempsey was chairman of the subcommittee named by Dies to investigate charges against Byoir. Representative Wright Patman [D., Tex.] had told the house that Byoir, an army reserve lieutenant colonel, was hired by Germany to establish an espionage and spy system in this country. A justice department official said last Tuesday that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had found no evidence to support that charge.

Dempsey said the subcommittee found "nothing to justify the charges made, nor any evidence that could possibly permit basis for such charges."

SOLDIER-SAILOR REUNION OPENS AT SALEM TODAY

More than 20,000 persons from 35 central and southern Illinois counties are expected to hear Republican and Democratic state candidates today and tomorrow at the annual Soldiers' and Sailors' reunion at Salem. Since it was begun 50 years ago by members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the reunion has taken on more importance each year.

This afternoon Dwight Green, Republican nominee for governor, will deliver the principal address. Other G.O.P. candidates who will speak are Hugh Cross, running for lieutenant-governor; Justus L. Johnson, candidate for secretary of state; Arthur C. Lueder, nominee for state auditor; Warren Wright, for state treasurer; George F. Barrett, for attorney general; Stephen A. Day and William G. Stratton, candidates for congressmen-at-large.

Tomorrow the Democratic candidates will have their day of speaking and meeting the voters. Harry B. Hershey, nominee for governor, will deliver the main address.

EX-NEW DEALERS FORM GROUP TO SUPPORT WILLKIE

Elwood Notification Set for Aug. 17.

Text of Douglas Offer.

The committee will name its own chairman. Douglas, who apparently has headed the preliminary organization, today sent the following telegram to Willkie from Sun Valley, Idaho, where he is on vacation:

"We, the undersigned lifelong members of the Democratic party, are deeply disturbed by developments at the recent Democratic convention in Chicago. They constitute the first organized effort in American history to keep the same national administration in public office beyond the historic two term period. No matter how grave the national emergency, the continuation in authority for three terms of this political machine, clothed as it is with tremendous public power, is a graver menace to America. We therefore propose, with your approval, to enlist in your behalf the support of Democrats who believe with us that loyalty to country takes precedence over loyalty to party."

[Signed] "JOHN W. HANES.
"LEWIS W. DOUGLAS.
"MRS. ROBERTA CAMPBELL LAWSON."

Willkie Accepts Offer.

Willkie wired his appreciation of the offer, and asked that the group proceed in its own way to orgnize other Democrats and independents of like belief. Willkie received a separate telegram from President Valentine, offering his services in "any way that will be useful to you."

Willkie has been flooded with offers of Democratic help since the Chicago convention. He gets several hundred telegrams a day and has had more than 50,000 letters here.

Willkie will go to Cheyenne, Wyo., tomorrow on a special Frontier day train, of the Denver Post for a day at the rodeo there. This will be the center of attraction for all the cowhands from several states. He will stop on the way to greet the people of Brighton and Greeley, Colo.

After the Cheyenne appearance, Willkie and his wife will go to Salt Lake City, where they will spend a night and a day, at the urging of E. G. Bennett, former Dewey manager in the Rocky mountain states.

Wednesday the Willkies will attend the Latter Day Saints' historical pageant. Willkie will meet politicians from several states at the Hotel Utah and then drive to Ogden for dinner, returning to Colorado Springs by airplane late in the evening.

2 DECREES FREE QUIN O'BRIEN OF MARITAL CLAIMS

Judge Oscar F. Nelson in the Superior court yesterday ended the long controversy as to whether Quin O'Brien, former assistant corporation counsel, was ever married to Miss Marguerite Eustice, who calls herself Mrs. O'Brien and has a son 4 years old she calls Quin O'Brien Jr. The judge in two rulings ended whatever trace of a marriage there ever might have been.

He first upheld a motion by Robert Cantwell Jr., counsel for O'Brien, to strike out Miss Eustice's bill for divorce based on an alleged marriage in Louisville, Ky., May 2, 1936. Miss Eustice stated that she went thru the ceremony in good faith, but later learned that the supposed judge who officiated was an imposter. Judge Nelson held that under Kentucky law a license must be obtained and the marriage performed by some one duly authorized. Neither provision, he said, was met.

The judge then voided a subsequent marriage in February, 1937, at Morrison, Whiteside county, by ordering the record of the marriage license expunged. O'Brien said he was abducted and forced to go thru with the ceremony. Judge Nelson's decision was in accordance with the suggestion of the Appellate court, which reversed an annulment granted O'Brien by Judge Donald S. McKinlay in 1937.

CHIEF OF TRIBUNE GUARDS, SHOT BY BANDITS, GAINING

Harry P. Walsh, chief of THE TRIBUNE'S guards, showed slight improvement yesterday in Henrotin hospital. Walsh was shot six times during a holdup Friday in which three bandits escaped with a $9,179 TRIBUNE pay roll. Walsh, who engaged the gunmen in single handed battle, told his wife yesterday that he had never seen any of the bandits before, but that he could identify them.

Members of Ray Workman chapter, No. 50, of the Military Order of the Purple Heart yesterday offered to furnish blood if addition transfusions are necessary.

Police meanwhile continued their search for the gunmen, who fled following the holdup at St. Clair and Illinois streets. Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan and Capt. Thomas Harrison of the Chicago avenue station, believe the bandits are former convicts.

THE TRIBUNE has offered a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the men involved. The information will be held confidential and may be turned over either to THE TRIBUNE or to police. If two or more persons supply information leading to the arrest and conviction of the bandits the reward will be divided in accordance with the worth of the information. In such a case THE TRIBUNE will be sole judge.

OFFER TO DROP KIDNAP CHARGE IF GIRL RETURNS

Dixon, Ill., July 22 [Special].—Sheriff Gilbert Finch reported that the warrant for the arrest of Russell Meyers, Sublette truck driver, on charges of kidnaping Genevieve Full, 16 years old, Sublette housemaid, was withdrawn this morning at the request of the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Full. The father said he believed the pair are hiding out because of fear. "We will forgive everything if the young people will only communicate with us," he said today. They have been missing since last Monday night.

Picking Speakers

Women will have a greater part in the present Republican Presidential campaign than in any previous one. This was the assertion yesterday of Mrs. Grace B. Reynolds, Cambridge City, Ind., national committeewoman from Indiana and vice chairman of the Republican national committee. Mrs. Reynolds, who declared she hardly has had time to eat since the G. O. P. convention, is in Chicago organizing an outstanding group of women speakers.

Auditions will be conducted by state chairmen, and the best speakers will be given assignments. Mrs. Reynolds hopes that an exchange system among adjacent states can be perfected. National headquarters will prepare and send out regularly a speech for each week.

Republican clubwomen and women attorneys in Cook county yesterday began activities by conferring with Judge Oscar F. Nelson, Republican candidate for state's attorney.

VOLIVA BRANDS 3D TERM MOVE A BLOW AT LIBERTY

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, general overseer of the Christian Catholic church in Zion, Ill., yesterday issued a statement in which he compared Roosevelt's third term ambition with acts of Hitler and Mussolini. Voliva, who controls about 1,500 votes, gave them to the Democratic ticket in 1938.

"For several months prior to the convention the President had in various ways created the conditions and atmosphere which made his nomination compulsory," Voliva said. "Several months before the delegates convened he had completely eliminated all other candidates, which, to say the least, was very unfair and un-American.

"Hitler and Mussolini in their totalitarian states could not have done a better job. I consider the Roosevelt renomination one of the greatest blows ever struck at democracy in this country, and his reëlection must inevitably result in the alteration if not the destruction of the democratic form of government."

TWO ANTI-THIRD TERM MEETINGS SET IN CHICAGO

Garner Supporters Will Assemble Today.

Some of the Democratic opposition to a third term for President Roosevelt is expected to crystalize at two meetings here this week. Yesterday indications were found that the Democratic revolt has spread to downstate Illinois, as well as to Chicago.

This afternoon supporters of John N. Garner for President will meet in the office of Julius F. Smietanka, chairman, at 7 South Dearborn street. Smietanka was collector of internal revenue under Woodrow Wilson.

A conference of Jeffersonian Democrats will be held here Thursday at the call of Former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. Senator Edward R. Burke [D., Neb.], who has gone the whole route in opposition to a third term by declaring his support for Wendell L. Willkie, Republican nominee, will attend this meeting.

What Third Term Means.

W. A. Compton of Macomb was one of the downstaters who stated his position yesterday against a third term. Formerly a Democratic member of the Illinois senate and house, Compton served as chairman of the McDonough county Democratic central committee for 20 years.

"A third term means autocracy," he said. "I was at the convention and I know how the Roosevelt nomination was accomplished. It also was clear how Wallace was nominated for Vice President. The New Deal machine never worked more smoothly nor in more sinister fashion."

Fed Up with Roosevelt.

Raymond B. Siepker of Barry, who has been active in the Pike county Democratic organization for 30 years, declared yesterday that he also was fed up with the Roosevelt hunger for power.

"I always have been against a third term for any President and I still am," Siepker said. "The Presidency of the United States is the greatest honor in the world and the two term limit is generous with this honor.

"There are plenty of us Democrats who didn't like the way the Roosevelt steamroller produced the Wallace nomination. It was not a fair convention and the party will suffer from that fact."

CONGRESS CANDIDATE FINED FOR SLAPPING A FELLOW DEMOCRAT

Lafayette, La., July 22 (AP).—State Representative James Domengeaux, congressional candidate charged with slapping State Senator Dudley J. Leblanc, a fellow Democrat, today paid a $25 fine and said he had "enjoyed" what the fine represented.

The two quarreled in a local radio station last night over a broadcast by Leblanc, who had assailed Domengeaux's congressional candidacy.

Leblanc's speech included an appeal for Domengeaux to withdraw from the congressional race in favor of David W. Pipes Jr. Pipes, a life long Democrat, announced as a Republican candidate for congress after the nomination of Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, a former Republican, as Democratic Vice Presidential candidate. Pipes and a number of Louisiana Democrats contend Wallace's sugar quota restrictions will be harmful to the state's sugar industry.

CALL U. S. ARMING A TWO YEAR JOB IF DONE PROPERLY

Armour Scientists Stress Need of Leadership.

An intelligently directed preparedness campaign of two years' duration would make the United States defensible from all points of view.

This opinion was advanced yesterday at a round table discussion of the status and needs of the country's defense program by faculty members of Armour Institute of Technology.

Those who engaged in the discussion are L. E. Grinter, vice president of the institute and dean of the graduate school; Ralph H. Manley, assistant director of the research foundation; V. I. Komarewsky, research professor of chemistry, and five visiting professors. They are Lydik S. Jacobson, professor of mechanical engineering at Stanford university; C. C. Furnas, associate professor of chemical engineering at Yale university; William L. Everitt, professor of communications at Ohio State university; Gabriel Kron, electrical engineering expert for General Electric company, and G. B. Karelitz, professor of mechanical engineering at Columbia university.

Rap Strong Leadership Lack.

A shortage of trained engineers, lack of men experienced in building construction work, and a backwardness in designing bearings for airplane construction were seen as bottle necks that are slowing the nation's defense program, Dr. Manley also held that lack of strong government leadership left many willing technicians without tasks in the job of preparing the country for war.

Dr. Grinter said the United States has the greatest production capacity in the world and can make more tanks than any other nation because it makes more automobiles.

Only 200,000 Engineers.

There are only 200,000 trained engineers in the country, Dr. Grinter said, but intensive short courses could make available the many men who drop out of this field after two or three years of college training. There are four in this class to each trained engineer, he said.

Prof. Furnas said production could be stepped up with ease to care for normal needs in the way of explosives, but if an army of a million men is to be placed in the field, new plants would be needed.

Prof. Komarewsky said the United States is prepared to produce aviation gasoline for any emergency and that development of the Diesel engine will aid in conserving the fuel supply.

Prof. Jacobson, an expert on earthquakes, said little or nothing has been done in the design of bomb resistant structures and shelters. He expressed the belief that skyscrapers are fairly safe except in case of direct hits, but said cheaply constructed apartment buildings might be wrecked by concussion of gunfire or bombs.

TWO SUSPENDED FOR LOCKING UP THIRD POLICEMAN

Commissioner Allman yesterday suspended Sergt. Mark Keane of Cragin station for 10 days and Patrolman Michael Newell of the same station for three days after an investigation of the treatment they accorded Patrolman Oscar T. Aafiei of West Chicago avenue station after he had been beaten by four persons creating a disturbance.

While off duty June 30, Patrolman Aafiei heard a woman scream in a parked car on North avenue. He stopped to question the occupants, but was beaten and disarmed by three men in the car. Cragin police arrived meanwhile and arrested Aafiei, the three men, and their woman companion. Aafiei charged that Sergt. Keane insisted on locking him up unless he posted $25 bail, and that Newell suggested that "the others are willing to forget this if you are."

Aafiei, who had obtained a physician's certificate of his sobriety when he was treated for his injuries at St. Anne's hospital, was discharged recently when he was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct brought by those in the car.

Two of his assailants, William Tew, 28 years old, of 1709 North Tripp avenue, and his brother, Daniel, 26, were found guilty of assault July 15 by Judge Joseph B. Hermes and were fined $25 each. Their companion, Joseph Gary, 24, of 4318 North avenue, and his wife, Beverly Rose, 25, were discharged.

County Highway Police Commanders Are Shifted

A shift in the commanding officers of the three county highway police stations, termed a routine move necessitated by the vacation schedule, was announced by the sheriff's office yesterday. Lieut. Fred Mulhausen was transferred from Morton Grove to Homewood, replacing Lieut. Morton Leviton, who goes to Willow Springs. Lieut. Henry Andel, who has been at Willow Springs, begins his vacation and Lieut. George Le Grue, just returning from his, will take command at Morton Grove.

Loses License for Tavern; Then His Liquor Is Stolen

John Klasa lost the license for his tavern at 1206 North Rockwell street a week ago for operating after closing hours, but went there yesterday to make an inspection. He reported that 30 cases of whisky valued at $460 had been carried off by burglars who entered thru a basement window.

YEAR'S HOTTEST DAY RECORDED; NO RELIEF SEEN

Chicago's first heat wave of the season will continue unbroken thru Thursday night, it was indicated yesterday by Forecaster A. J. Knarr of the federal weather bureau. Yesterday, fourth day of the hot spell, also was the year's hottest with a high temperature of 93.7 degrees at 5 p. m. The mercury will climb into the 90s again today, Knarr stated.

The present heat is the result of a slow moving, stagnant high pressure area which rolled off the sizzling prairies of the west last Friday. Until the wind shifts to blow off the lake or a mass of cold air arrives from the northwest there will be no relief.

In Chicago, thousands flocked to the beaches seeking relief. Health authorities warned against overeating or drinking and strenuous exercise.

TWO SWIMMERS ARE DROWNED AT INDIANA BEACHES

Joseph Bellerive Jr., 10 years old, son of the deputy police commissioner of Westmont, Du Page county, was drowned yesterday in Lake Michigan off Indiana Dunes state park, 12 miles west of Michigan City. He was swimming with two other boys when he went down.

Raymond Banaski, 18, of 8612 Phillips avenue, was drowned Sunday afternoon at the Wells street beach, Gary. Witnesses said Banaski and two other youths attempted to swim ashore from a raft a half mile off shore. All three became exhausted, and Banaski sank before aid could reach him.

William A. Ryan, 22 years old, 7701 South Green street, a chemical engineer, was drowned last night while attempting to swim across the Huron river near Ypsilanti, Mich. His brother, Robert, 17, also became exhausted and sank, but was rescued by other bathers.

WEST SIDE WINS FIRE HYDRANT HEAT WITH COPS

Chicago police squads—particularly those on the west side—spent a large part of their time turning off fire hydrants last night. In many cases the hydrants would be spouting water again before the squads had been gone 10 minutes. Youngsters seeking relief from the heat were the culprits. Angry property owners complained that streets and basements were being flooded, that property stored in basements had been damaged, and that bricks and stones were falling from foundations.

Commissioner Allman ordered all squads to watch for open hydrants after City Engineer Loran Gayton informed him water pressure had dropped from 65 pounds per square inch to 24 pounds at the West Harrison street pumping station. The Warren avenue police responded to 135 calls between 3 and 10 p. m., and the Marquette police responded to 50.

COURT SPEEDS UP CLEAR TITLES ON AIRPORT LANDS

Proceedings to clear the title of 78 pieces of property condemned so that tracks of the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad may be relocated to allow expansion of Chicago airport were approved yesterday by Circuit Judge Denis J. Normoyle.

The court granted a petition permitting delinquent taxes on the condemned property to be paid out of deposits made with the county treasurer to cover condemnation judgments. An order then was entered against six of the parcels for payment of $1,851 in taxes. Similar orders are to be entered tomorrow against 52 other parcels. Owners of the 20 remaining parcels already have paid their taxes.

It was expected that title of all property will be cleared by the end of the week.

LIQUOR LICENSES OF 45 REVOKED BY MAYOR KELLY

One Club Loses Permit for Employing Killer.

Mayor Kelly revoked 45 liquor licenses yesterday, the largest number to be cancelled since repeal went into effect Dec. 5, 1933. Thirty-seven bars lost their licenses for violating closing laws and a number of others for countenancing immorality.

Among the licenses revoked was that of Samuel Siegel, operator of the Cookoo club, 5138 Broadway, where Nathan Treger, ex-convict killer, was employed as night manager in violation of regulations forbidding persons with police records from engaging in the tavern business. Treger was arrested June 12 for assauting a patron.

Revocations Listed.

Other revocations follow:

Romping Earls club, 4644 Champlain avenue; Joseph Petrusonus, 902 West 38th place; Jacob Knieling, 230 Root street; Steve Pilafas, 2009 Roosevelt road; Edward Forrest, 2624 West 59th street; Edward Cichon, 4056 Lawrence avenue; Myrtle Marose, 2225 Roscoe street; Katherine Brown, 364 East 26th street; Samuel Drexler, 3959 Roosevlt road, drug store; Fifty-first and Prairie Drug Company, Inc., drug store; Lloyd West, 4753 South Park way; March Smith, 538 East 47th street; Harry Palowsky, 530 East 43d street; Jessie Paweleck, 5600 North Ashland avenue.

Other Taverns Hit.

Zoe Zangrabdo [Wenthworth Liquors], 149 West 111 street; Clarence Anderson [Dixieland tavern], 211 East 43d street; Samuel Spinella [Kit Kat club], 2046 Madison street; Jesse Martin, 5012 South Park way; Ruth Spear, 542 North Dearborn street; Steve Klowowsk, 8501 Brandon avenue, and Alex Holub, 1063 Madison street.

The Vipers and Greystone Dancing academy, 3037 Cottage Grove avenue, lots its dancing hall license for selling wine to customers on July 13 and the Ogden Wine and Liquor store, 3501 Ogden avenue, Samuel Segal, co-partner, lost its license because it is alleged to have aided in selling liquors and cigarets stolen in a burglary in Joliet.

CONTINUE SEARCH FOR 2 LOST FROM A DRIFTING BOAT

Coast guardsmen searched the lake again yesterday for two persons believed lost from a sailboat, which was found drifting Sunday with its mainsail dragging in the water and a portable radio blaring a gay tune.

The sailboat, the 18 foot Precept, left the Jackson park harbor Sunday morning. Aboard were its owner, Ernest Helmboldt, 24 years old, 6116 South Richmond street, and his friend, Robert Wolf, 15, of 6122 South Francisco avenue.

A yacht party towed the Precept to shore after they investigated the dragging mainsail and the radio. Clothing on the deck of the drifting boat indicated one of the occupants had gone under while swimming and that both drowned when the second occupant sought to rescue him.

Yesterday's coast guard search was conducted by Chief Boatswain's Mate Carl Howell.

STEP UP FOLKS! RIGHT THIS WAY TO THE BIG TENT

10,000 Spectators See Afternoon Show.

Ten thousand spectators attended yesterday's matinee performance of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus on the lake front, just south of Soldiers' field. Performances will be given twice daily for the next six days.

The animal act of Alfred Court of France, a trainer who can make natural jungle enemies cavort together like show girls, is considered the high point of the show. Then there is Mlle. Elly Ardelty, a lithesome blonde, a famous aerial artist.

Big Top Is Streamlined.

The "big top" has undergone some improvements. A dark blue canvas ceiling gives the daytime shows the excellent advantages and hushed atmosphere of nighttime performances. An air conditioning system pours coolness into the tent.

Yet despite all the streamlining, the circus has lost none of its old-fashioned color. Hawkers pass with their arms filled with fans, calling, "Get your sea breeze on a stick." Pink cotton candy, pop, and ice cream are available. The steam piano wheezes over the rumble of snarling lions. The side show is more gaudy and grotesque than those of the gay '90's.

Tight Rope Act Evokes Ah's.

The old "Oh's and Ah's" sweep thru the tent as the Great Arturo encases himself in a burlap bag and walks a high tight rope. Children scream and clap their hands as 24 clowns pile out of one automobile coupé.

The old ballyhoo and breath-baiting has been increased. One man in the audience was so carried away with enthusiasm that he bought bottles of pop for every one in his row. "Yes, sir," he kept repeating, "this is the best circus I've ever seen. And I've been going to them for 40 years."

Mr. C. S. Benham
Chicago Tribune
Chicago, Illinois

My dear Mr. Benham -

The sixth of our 1940 series of full-page Norge ads in color has now appeared in the Chicago Tribune and I thought that you would be interested to learn that we are highly pleased with the results so far in the actual sales of Norge refrigerators, ranges and washers.

It was my feeling when this campaign was originally planned, that the many features, the superb beauty and sensational values being offered by Norge this year deserved the best in exploitation, and I knew of nothing that could take care of that phase of our program that could be compared to the use of full pages, in color, in the Tribune.

I am happy to tell you that actual results in the way of increased sales have more than justified my decision.

These Tribune color pages have had a pronounced effect on dealers and public throughout the trading area of Chicago and vicinity. They have played an important part in maintaining recognition for Norge as the "top" line and in stimulating an acceptance for it on the part of the public that has helped Norge dealers to new sales records.

All in all, this program of full page color advertising in the Tribune has been a tremendous help and to it, to a large extent, I give credit for the great increase in our Norge sales in the Chicago area this year.

Very sincerely yours,

President, Norge Division
BORG-WARNER CORPORATION

"THE MOST POWERFUL ADVERTISING AVAILABLE"

"Tribune color pages were made the backbone of our 1940 selling plans for just one reason—because we wanted the strongest vehicle we could find to carry the Norge story. We felt these color pages would reach the market worth while, and that our dealers and salesmen would know that they were getting the most powerful advertising available in the territory. Our decision has been justified. At this date, June 28, 1940, this month is the biggest June in Norge refrigerator sales in the nine years we have been the distributor," states Peter Sampson of the Sampson Electric Company shown at the right with Mr. Blood in the above picture.

DOES color sell more?

The accompanying letter is from a Chicago Tribune advertiser who knows about color.

Each year for the past ten and a half years, Norge has placed in the Tribune more of its Chicago newspaper advertising appropriation than it has placed in any other medium in this market.

Each year for the past six and a half years, Norge's Tribune campaign has been built around full pages in color.

For the first six months of 1940, more than 83% of Norge's Chicago newspaper advertising budget has been concentrated in Tribune space—and all of it in color.

Increased sales have more than justified the use of Tribune color pages by the Norge Division Borg-Warner Corporation. Have you thought about using this powerful stimulus in your selling?

When you can have more sales, there is no need to be satisfied with less. Every day of the week, color in the Tribune can put behind your dealers the intensified selling pressure which generates their enthusiasm because it increases their sales.

Picture to yourself the effect on your own dealer organization of full pages in Tribune color. What Tribune color has done for Norge, and for other sales organizations, it can do for you. Consumer acceptance, dealer cooperation, volume sales—whatever your objective is, Tribune color pages can help you reach it most effectively.

Every day of the week, the Tribune has more than 760,000* circulation right in metropolitan Chicago. In addition, the Tribune, every day of the week, reaches other hundreds of thousands of prime prospects living in the five states adjacent to metropolitan Chicago.

No matter what you sell—luxury products or convenience items—you can sell more in Chicago by building your advertising program around the Tribune—and you can do it better with color.

JAPAN PROMISES A 'BLITZKRIEG' IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS

4 Man 'Inner Cabinet' to Control Policy.

TOKIO, July 23, Tuesday (AP).—Japan's expansion minded, one party government laid out today a course of "diplomatic blitzkrieg" in which Japan will act without warning to achieve her ends by surprise.

Premier Prince Konoe.

Statements to the press by members of the cabinet which was seated only last night indicated clearly that expansion and closer coöperation with the Rome-Berlin axis powers are Japan's sure course.

Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka promised that the government would take advantage of the "diplomatic blitzkrieg" tactics by which the government would sweep toward its objectives without preliminary exchanges, discussions and delays.

"Hitler's diplomatic strokes," he said, "have been models of shrewd calculation."

Unhitch from U. S.

Ichizo Kobayashi, minister of commerce, said Japan must unhitch itself from the economic orbit of the United States and Great Britain and hitch up to the Italo-German axis.

Eija Wasui, minister of home and welfare, said "we cannot doubt that the day soon will come when Japan can share the world with Germany and Italy."

The selection of experts rather than politicians for most of the places in Japan's new cabinet strengthened the opinion of many observers that a four man "inner circle" would lay down government policies. The big four includes Premier Prince Fumimaro Konoe, Foreign Minister Matsuoka, War Minister Lieutenant General Eiki Tojo and Navy Minister Vice Admiral Zengo Yoshida.

Appeal to Roosevelt.

SHANGHAI, July 23, Tuesday (AP).—Five prominent American newsmen in Shanghai cabled to President Roosevelt today urging retaliatory action by the United States against Japan unless Tokio restrains Japanese elements and the Japanese supported Wang Ching-wei government, on which they placed responsibility for recent terrorism.

The newsmen, who attended funeral services today for Samuel H. Chang, American educated Chinese business man slain by assassins on Friday, were:

C. V. Staff, publisher of the Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury; Randall Gould, that paper's editor and correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor; C. D. Alcott, a broadcaster; J. B. Powell, editor of the China Weekly Review; and Hallett Abend, New York Times correspondent, who was beaten by two Japanese who invaded his apartment Friday.

Reign of Terror.

The five, all of whom have been ordered arrested by Wang Ching-wei's Nanking government, declared that a reign of terror is growing in Shanghai and that American publications and individuals have been victims of bombing, incendiarism, robbery, physical, violence, and threats of arrest and deportation.

They said these acts constituted the most deadly attack yet suffered by United States interests in the orient and urged the President to take immediate steps thru the American embassy in Tokio.

The American association in Shanghai was sending a similar message to Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

GETS JAIL TERM IN GRANDMOTHER PENSION FRAUD

For taking $23 a month old age assistance claimed over the last two years in behalf of an allegedly nonexistent grandmother, Miss Ruth Seritella, 25 years old, 212 West 24th street, was sentenced yesterday to two months in the county jail and fined $300 and costs by Judge James G. Gullett of Elizabethtown, sitting in the County court.

Joseph L. Moss, superintendent of the county bureau of public welfare, said Miss Seritella, a former WPA employé, brought an elderly woman who professed inability to speak or write English to the bureau in applying for the pension.

Miss Seritella insisted she had a grandmother, but said she had lost track of her since the pension was granted. Payments of $575 were made in the name of the grandmother, given as Mrs. Nellie Seritella, 90 years old.

In License court Municipal Judge William V. Daly sentenced Otto Anthonsen, 35, of 1122 Altgeld street, to 30 days in jail for defrauding the state of $100 in unemployment compensation. Anthonsen also was fined $25 and costs, ordered to make restitution, and placed on probation for one year. Anthonsen, a window washer, earned up to $60, but reported his earnings as around $5.

MUSIC FESTIVAL VOICE JUDGES TO MEET TODAY

Outstanding Teachers to Be Present.

BY PHILIP MAXWELL.

Judges of the vocal and choral competitions of the 11th annual Chicagoland Music Festival will meet this afternoon in Tribune Tower. The meeting has been called by Mrs. Edmund J. Tyler, who for 10 years has been chairman of these contest divisions. More than a score of outstanding vocal teachers and coaches and singing stars will be present. The festival is Saturday, Aug. 17.

Many of the guests have served as festival judges for 10 years. Their devotion to this work has heped raise the standards of such competition in America and thru their efforts unknown and little recognized singers and choral groups have gained wide popularity.

Give Time to Contest.

A small fee is paid by the festival management to each judge. Often she or he has lost many times that fee in canceling lessons or other professional engagements in order to serve. Several have come long distances from curtailed summer vacations to be present the night of the contest. No judge who has students in the contest will be permitted to serve in any division in which the student sings.

Here is the list of those who have been invited to judge individual singers and choral organizations this summer:

VOCAL—Graham Reed, Mark Love, Lola Fletcher, Kathryn Witwer, Harry Carlson, Edith Mason, Leo Kopp, Mary Ann Kaufman, Margery Maxwell, Thomas MacBurney, Marie Sidenius Zendt, Arthur Burton, Theodore Harrison, Janice Porter, Harriet Case, Richard De Young, Raymond Koch, Anna Kruetgen, Harry Walsh, Helen Bickerton, Franklin Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Andelin, Eugene Dressler, Frank Bennett, Earl Tanner, Carl Craven, and Sydnie Smith Cooley, all of Chicago and suburbs.

Choral Group Judges.

CHORAL—Dr. Helen Howe, Paul Vernon, Willard Groom, Louise St. John Westervelt, Inez Hicks, Walter Ashenbrenner, George Carlson, all of Chicago and suburbs; Louise Helmick of Decatur, Ill., and William E. Donovan of Peoria, Ill.

The deadline for the entry of students in Cook county to the first series of vocal preliminaries was yesterday. The names of those who will participate in the north side competition scheduled for Thursday and Friday nights, Aug. 1 and 2, in the Edgewater Beach hotel at 7 o'clock each night, will be announced in the north side Metropolitan section of THE CHICAGO SUNDAY TRIBUNE.

FINGERPRINTS ON DRUM SPUR HUNT FOR GIRL'S KILLER

Fort Snelling, Minn., July 22 (AP).—Discovery of fingerprints on an oil drum into which had been jammed the strangled body of 14 year old Mary Jane Massey, daughter of a United States army sergeant, spurred hope of authorities today for a clew to her killer.

Mary Jane Massey. [A. P. Wirephoto.]

Altho St. Paul agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation covered their operations with secrecy, it was learned they had obtained fingerprints from the drum and had sent them to Washington for comparison with records there.

The girl, daughter of Sergt. and Mrs. William A. Massey, disappeared a week ago last Saturday. Her body was found yesterday a few blocks from her home.

Autopsy surgeons said the blonde girl had been strangled with her own underwear, but because of the decomposed condition of the body, they were unable to determine whether she had been raped.

FBI agents took charge of the investigation because the crime occurred on a military reservation.

NEW YORKER POSTS BOND IN LITIGATION OVER BIG DIAMOND

LONDON, July 22 (AP).—Harry Winston, New York diamond dealer today posted bond of 5,000 pounds [about $20,000] pending an appeal against damages in favor of Triefus Brothers of London, for alleged breach of contract in his purchase of the 726 carat "Getulio Vargas" diamond.

The plaintiffs were awarded 500 pounds last week in a libel action against Winston growing out of the same deal.

Attorneys for Triefus Brothers contended that their clients and Winston had agreed to purchase the stone jointly but that the latter had "bought it himself." The diamond has been valued at about $480,000. It was found in Brazil.

[In New York, Winston said he had elected to post bond and made the following statement today: "I never had a discussion with Triefus Brothers and never had a letter exchanged with them. It was all done thru a broker in London who claimed he had authority to act for us."]

$10,000 FARM FIRE LOSS.

Fire destroyed a new barn on the Leonard Murphy farm 10 miles northwest of Elgin in Kane county yesterday. Four calves, grain, and farm machinery were lost, with damages estimated at $10,000.

HEAT'S ON, BUT SLOT MACHINES WHIRL MERRILY

It was too warm yesterday for public officials to worry over the return of slot machines to Cook county, or, if they did worry, they did so in a cool place. Nothing happened to convince the owners of taverns, roadhouses, gas stations, and other county shops or the managers of country clubs that they ought to again hide their slot machines.

Sheriff O'Brien, who has been assigned the duty of suppressing slot machines by Attorney General John E. Cassidy and State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney, was not at his office. His county highway police made the usual remarks about slot machines being a thing of the past, but people who knew they were things of the present could do nothing about it.

Attorney General Cassidy is expected to come to Chicago later in the week and it was said he may take some action to see that the law is obeyed here. State's Attorney Courtney was out of the city over the week-end and had not been advised that the Nitti-Skidmore-Vogel boys "were at it again." The tavernkeepers said they understood they wouldn't be bothered because this is an election year.

U. S. MARSHAL TAKES ANNENBERG BY AUTO TO PRISON IN EAST

Moses L. Annenberg, Philadelphia publisher, was on his way last night to the federal prison at Lewisburg, Pa., where he is to serve a three year sentence for income tax evasion. He came to Chicago yesterday from his home in Philadelphia and surrendered to William H. McDonnell, United States marshal. The marshal and a deputy left soon afterward with Annenberg to take him to prison by automobile.

Annenberg pleaded guilty to one count of the government indictment and agreed to settle all of the government's claims. These, with penalties and interest, amount to $9,500,000. The publisher will be eligible for probation in one year's time. If it is denied he can shorten his sentence to 2 years and 113 days by a good conduct allowance of seven days per month.

Joseph E. Hafner, accountant for the Annenberg publishing empire, began a five month county jail sentence yesterday in the same case.

STEAL SUITS FROM APARTMENTS.

Burglars who ransacked the apartment of Albert Joseph, 7734 Kingston avenue, over the week-end found no money, so took three suits valued at $150.

4 CHICAGOANS ARE JAILED FOR RED ACTIVITIES

Four Chicagoans were arrested yesterday at Lewistown, Fulton county, and held on treason charges for attempting to get signatures to communist party petitions and for having in their possession literature by Earl Browder, communist party head in the United States.

Those arrested are Attorney Ira I. Silbar, 127 North Dearborn street, and George Gibbs, Mary Wilson, and Jane Curtis, all of whom said they were from Chicago. They were held in bonds of $20,000 each. The charges were brought by Sheriff B. E. Cook and Assistant State's Attorney Lawrence McMunn under that section of the state statutes having to do with advocating overthrow of the United States government.

McMunn, who said that at least the action should get the four out of the county, said he expected them to seek habeas corpus writs today or tomorrow. All are held in the county jail, and Silbar is threatening suit for false arrest.

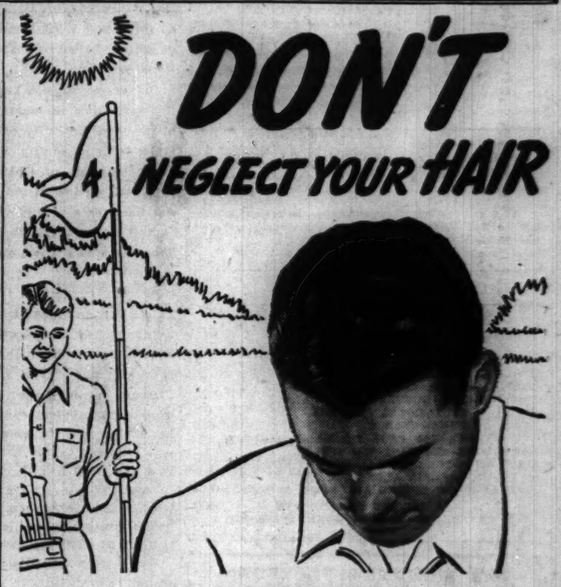
Paul Zemba, 1830 21st street, was recovering in County hospital yesterday from injuries suffered Sunday night when he fell from a third story window. Police said they sought to question Zemba about a broken window in a tavern at 3130 Harrison street, and that he fell while fleeing from them. He is 30 years old.



YOUR hair can be harmed or helped easier in the summer than at any other season. Improper exposure to the sun is sure to result in abnormal hair-fall. On the other hand, it is a known scientific fact that hair normally grows faster in the summer than at any other season. You can take advantage of this seasonal peculiarity by learning how and when to expose your hair and scalp to the summer sun.

A Thomas scalp expert will gladly examine your hair and scalp (without charge) and advise you in detail as to how to care for your hair during the summer months. He'll tell you how to get rid of your dandruff; how to stop abnormal hair-loss; and how Thomas treatment promotes normal hair growth on thin and bald spots. ATLANTIC OUTPOSTS.

A house military affairs subcommittee has recommended to congress that the United States immediately acquire and fortify naval and air bases in Nova Scotia and Bermuda.

Nova Scotia is Canadian territory. Our military interest in it is that it is the logical point for establishment of an American base for an attack on New England with its essential war industries. It is unlikely that the Canadians will be willing to cede us territory there. They consider themselves capable of defending their own shores and have good reason for that confidence. In any event the transfer of a Nova Scotian base is unnecessary.

The same end can be served if this country will make an appropriate defensive treaty with Canada. Such a treaty, which THE TRIBUNE has recommended before, should be made at once, and should be followed immediately by staff talks between the armies and navies for common defense of Nova Scotia and other points in which we have a vital joint interest.

Some of the people who seek to embroil the United States in war in Europe have sought to represent that such an alliance would put us in the war. It would not. The United States and Canada have a common interest, which is the defense of North America. That the treaty would provide for. Each nation, likewise, has interests which the other does not share and those would be outside the purview of the defensive alliance.

Canada, in accordance with her duty as a member of the British commonwealth of nations, is making most valuable contributions in men and munitions to the defense of Great Britain. While Americans south of the border applaud her effort and loyalty, they are at the same time resolved that their ships and men shall not fight in a European war.

If that war comes to Canada the treaty, it is true, would oblige us to join in the defense of Canada. We should be equally obliged to join that defense if there were no treaty. Our own safety would demand it. The treaty would merely assure that our effort would be coördinated with that of the Canadians to accomplish our joint task more efficiently.

Bermuda is held directly under the British crown. It is a dagger pointed at the United States, offering bomber bases within easy range of New York and other Atlantic ports. The fact that Great Britain will never drive the dagger home is irrelevant. What is important is that the loss of the island would be no great military loss to Great Britain, altho it would be disastrous to the United States, and the British have taken insufficient measures to defend it. They have more vital interests to guard.

The defense of Bermuda must be in the hands of the nation to which it is of vital interest. Our only recourse is to seek an outright transfer.

In the Caribbean are other European possessions—British, French, and Dutch—that we must defend to defend ourselves. Only a few months ago President Roosevelt characterized demands that we acquire them as silly. His proposals to defend the western hemisphere are far sillier so long as he fails to get the island bases that alone can make that defense feasible.

A few months ago the President might have dealt with the French government for its islands on the basis of the aid that the French were seeking and getting from American industry. Today that government has been replaced by one that is a tool of Hitler. By his paltering the President has lost our opportunity to negotiate. It is unlikely that we can now get title to the French islands except by force.

The President's acts are so at variance with his words that little credence can be attached to the words. He talks, it is true, of defending the western hemisphere—North and South America—and pledges himself against sending American forces to Europe. But when he refuses to seek the bases without which our attempts to prevent invasion of South America would be fruitless the logical conclusion is that his idea of hemisphere defense starts at the English channel.

FOR CLEAN ELECTIONS.

County Judge Jarecki's proposed amendments of the election laws to make suppression of vote frauds more effective have won the indorsement of the state organization of election commissioners.

Judge Jarecki would use numbered ballots to prevent chain voting. The number would be removed from the ballot before it is cast, which would make the ballot impossible of identification thereafter. Numbering would serve to insure that the voter cast the same ballot furnished him when he entered the polling place, and not one furnished him before he entered under the chain voting system.

In ordinary times this would be a good provision. It was suggested a few years ago and dropped at the protest of the Republican party, leaders of which felt that it would be used to convince relievers that the numbers would make it possible to learn how they had voted. Actually, this would not be possible, but ignorant voters might have been convinced that it was. So long as relief and WPA remain a political racket, this objection to an otherwise excellent suggestion remains valid.

Judge Jarecki also suggests that voters requiring assistance in marking their ballots, because of physical disability or illiteracy, be required to state their disability when registering. In the corrupt wards of Chicago thousands of voters are required to ask for assistance which they do not need, as a means of allowing machine representatives to mark their ballots for them. The suggestion is a good one and should be enacted into law.

A third suggestion is that election boards be authorized to appoint as polls officials persons living outside the precincts in which they serve. In the rotten boroughs of Chicago this should prevent fraud. There are not many precincts in Chicago in which the county judge and his election commissioners cannot find five capable and honest persons to man a polling place if they will look for them. But if the polls officials live in a gangster neighborhood they may be forced to corrupt acts by fear of gangster retaliation. Officials from another neighborhood, given proper police protection while on duty, would not be subject to such intimidation.

While this amendment to the election laws would be valuable, it should not be overlooked that Judge Jarecki already has powers to enforce clean elections which he has failed, thus far, to use. The recommendation of polls officials by ward committeeman is extra-legal and the result is frequently illegal.

After sending a score or more of Jake Arvey's partisans to jail for election frauds after nearly every election, it might occur to Judge Jarecki in time that the polls officials whom Ald. Arvey's organization recommends may not be recommended for the purpose of assuring an honest election but because of their capacity to steal votes for the candidates the Arvey machine backs. The same conclusion could be drawn as to a number of other ward organizations, both Democratic and Republican.

It is all very well to talk of improving the election laws. They can be improved. But the greatest improvement that can be made in the conduct of elections in Chicago is to divorce them completely from any control or recommendations by ward committeemen of either party. That Judge Jarecki and his election commission can do without any change in existing laws. Until they do that the judge should not feel hurt if his proposal of amendments, which cannot be made law before the November election, is regarded somewhat in the light of a smoke screen.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S PLEA FOR WAR.

The Democrats at Chicago tried to outdo the Republicans at Philadelphia in denouncing intervention in the European war. Then Mr. Roosevelt delivered his acceptance speech. In it he put the country on notice that the foreign policy outlined in the platform is not his and will not be followed by him if he is elected.

No other meaning can be found in the words he used. He had been speaking of the military preparations recently undertaken, preparations which in many respects go far beyond the necessities of defense of our shores, and he then employed these words:

"We face one of the great choices of history."

As Mr. Arthur Sears Henning pointed out in his radio address of Sunday evening, Mr. Roosevelt cannot have been thinking of the policy to be pursued if we are attacked or if this hemisphere is attacked. Every one, with the fewest exceptions, is agreed that in those circumstances we fight. No question of "choice" is therefore presented. On the other hand, there is a choice as to the war in Europe, and Mr. Roosevelt went on to make clear that his choice was not for peace, but for war.

Everything we value, he said, is now at stake. We must choose between "the continuance of civilization as we know it versus the ultimate destruction of everything we have held dear." People who talk that way cannot expect to avoid war; on the contrary, they look forward to war eagerly and joyfully as the only means of escaping the "ultimate destruction of everything we hold dear." Mr. Roosevelt's words can have had no other meaning. He believes that if Britain cannot annihilate Hitler's Germany we must join in the effort.

To make his intentions still more plain, Mr. Roosevelt continued by saying:

"A selfish and greedy people cannot be free."

That is to say, the American people must give no thought to the probable cost of the war in lives and money, in personal and economic disorganization. Mr. Roosevelt was never a man to take account of costs and he never was less concerned with them than in this question of participation in the European war. He will spend blood as he has spent money in these last seven years, with no thought of the sacrifices he is imposing and no regard for consequences.

Finally, to remove the last doubt regarding his determination to enter the conflict, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The American people must decide whether these things are worth making sacrifices of money, of energy, of self. They will not decide by listening to mere words or by reading mere pledges, interpretations, and claims. They will decide on the record—the record as it has been made—the record of things as they are."

That is to say, the words of the Democratic platform do not bind Mr. Roosevelt to stay out of the war. The pledges made by his party are in his view scraps of paper. The speeches at the convention of Mr. Farley, Mr. Bankhead, and Mr. Barkley, all of whom favored peace, are "mere interpretations" to be disregarded. The significant thing, so he says, are his deeds and his intentions as revealed in those deeds. When he denounced the European victors he was not doing so idly. He was challenging them to the conflict he believes to be inevitable and desirable. When he sent the army's guns and the navy's planes to the war he was committing himself to the sending of an expeditionary force at an early date. That is the sacrifice of "self" about which Mr. Roosevelt was talking.

If Mr. Roosevelt is reëlected his efforts to drive this country into an avoidable war, a war about which he himself says we have a choice, will be redoubled. He heads the war party in the United States.

QUESTIONS ON A HOT NIGHT.

Please explain the saying, "Dead as a door-nail."

In the middle ages doors were studded with heavy, big-headed nails. After dwelling upon this fact let your imagination soar, for no completely logical explanation of the saying has ever been given. Perhaps these nails, sunk into thick oak, gave a dead sound when tapped by a hammer. Perhaps they were clinched on the inside and thus could be regarded as dead to future usefulness. The saying runs back in English literature as far as "The Vision of Piers Plowman," which antedates Chaucer. It can be found in Shakespeare ["Henry VI., Part II.], thus:

"Come thou and thy five men, and if I do not leave you all as dead as a door-nail I pray God I may never eat grass more."

How many increases in salary have been granted to the President of the United States?

Two. George Washington and 16 of his successors got along on $25,000 a year. Grant received a "raise" on the last day of his first term [March 3, 1873] to $50,000. On the last day of Theodore Roosevelt's administration the salary was increased, for the benefit of the incoming Taft, to $75,000.

What doctor invented a means of capital punishment by which he was afterward executed?

Please don't try to fool the Linemaster. You are thinking of Dr. Guillotin, but he didn't invent the guillotine and he lived to see the French revolution thrown into the ash can. Dr. Guillotin proposed decapitation by a machine to the revolutionary assembly of which he was a member. The machine adopted was several centuries old in principle. In Scotland it was called "the maiden."

Just an Old Cavalry Custom.

Horses are mounted from the near or left side [July 18] because:

1. In the olden days, when a horseman always was armed with dagger and/or sword, these instruments of carnage were worn on his left side, within easy reach of his right arm. With these accouterments it would have been a great hindrance to mount from the offside [right]. Only in recent years has the saber been strapped to the saddle, but styles in mounting have not changed.

2. Some horses are harder to mount than others, hence a good trick is to take the left rein very short, thus causing the horse to turn counterclockwise in a short circle until the rider is aboard. Did you ever watch a cowhand do this?

Another Version of "The Public Be Damned."

In a magazine article some years ago George Ade gave an account of the publication of the alleged "public be damned" statement attributed to William H. Vanderbilt [July 18].

The reporter turned in his story, and it contained no such statement. Later, said reporter, who had a reputation for being a big talker, was expanding on his interview with Mr. Vanderbilt. It was there that he pulled the "public be damned" talk. One of those present slipped out, brought in the editor, and asked him to repeat the statement, which he did. The editor, who happened to be more interested in sensation than veracity, thereupon ordered him to include it in his copy.

Mr. Ade claims that the facts were well known to all Chicago newspaper men at the time and intimates clearly that not even the editor believed Vanderbilt ever made the statement.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE HOME—FOR CRIME.

HOW much is crime the job of the physician? This question is asked frequently and—as a rule—the answer is unsatisfactory. These individuals have existed always. Regardless of punishment, the one who is criminally minded will persist in his antisocial conduct.

Some of the explanations offered by psychologists make out these offenders to be superior mentally. They aren't at all. They may have talents which, if used aright, would bring not only adequate financial but civic rewards. All too often, however, the desire for personal gratification dominates their willingness to work.

The outlaw attempts to live by his wits—deluding, deceiving, and trading upon the cupidity of those whom he considers less smart. What he wants he wants now. He cannot wait until his own industry brings him the fruits of his labor. He is obsessed with the profit motive and the more valuable the stake the greater the risk.

But this does not explain fully the behavior of one who kills because of passion or hate, or because some one stands in the way of advancement. Murder can scarcely be described as merely "an unsocial act." It personifies the cutthroat who regards human life as a mere pawn in the game. Perhaps there are some who are true psychopaths, but, if so, their number is relatively small. The principal weakness that mental defectives exhibit is that they are readily influenced. They are likely to become willing tools in the hands of a firm leader—regardless of how bootless the "job" under contemplation may be.

No, the roots of the wrongdoer—who takes the law into his own hands—must lie in inheritance and in upbringing. He can be classed neither as insane nor queer. He is warped in his attitude because that is the way he has been reared. After a time he may lose the necessary reasoning power to change his point of view.

Starvation will make of almost any one a Jean Valjean. None of us is in a position to say that he would die rather than steal a crust of bread. Comfortable and reasonably successful we may feel certain that no temptation would be sufficiently powerful—but we don't know. Hunger will transform university graduates into savages. But the gangster has no inhibitions. He lacks a standard of honesty that has failed to become a part of his makeup. He doesn't need the stimulus of an empty stomach. He creates his opportunities.

There is but one remedy that can be applied to the reduction of crime and that is improved training—moral, mental, and spiritual. The public schools—altho they have done much—have not assumed their full responsibility in this matter and some Sabbath schools have neglected this broad appeal. Lacking the home environment in which high ideals are stressed constantly, the difference between "mine" and "thine" becomes less and less important.

One trouble is that crime is so easy. For a while it may bring far greater returns than legitimate labor for the time expended. That the participant's life may be cut short is considered too lightly. He rarely thinks of this eventuality because he is so sure that he can win. Then, too—if caught—his sentence probably will be light. He will be sent to a model prison and soon perhaps a misguided parole board will set him at large to begin all over again with a new name, in a different location—well qualified to carry on his nefarious vocation.

No, we must look for relief to better home teaching and stronger heredity. The relation of the child to his parents must involve mutual responsibility and understanding, free from fear and conflicts.

PUFFINESS.

Mrs. R. N. writes: My hands, face and ankles swell up for no apparent reason. Our doctor says my heart, kidneys, etc., are perfectly all right. Could you suggest something, as this worries me.

REPLY.

Possibly too little thyroid secretion. A metabolic rate determination may indicate an insufficient output on the part of this gland. A common cause however, is some derangement of the kidneys. A careful check-up is advised.

SHAVING THE LEGS.

Miss J. J. writes: Is it harmful to shave the legs with a razor?

REPLY.

Not at all. The net result will be some dull razor blades and a temporary cosmetic effect. Once you begin the practice it must be continued. Chemical hair removers are preferred by some. On the whole, no more harmful than using a razor beneath the arms.

NAUSEA WHILE RIDING.

E. G. writes: I always get a stomach ache and feel like vomiting after a half hour of riding in an automobile. How can I overcome this?

REPLY.

You are a victim of what is known as car or motion sickness. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for leaflet on motion sickness.

WONDERING.

Chicago, July 20.—In the absolute quiet between retiring and falling asleep I went over what my President said over the radio to the convention and wonder why he has not explained his tardy action on preparedness when his confidential reports thru the state department years ago must have shown the extent of preparedness of some of the foreign nations. Should he be excused for his misjudgment of their possible use against us? Should he be excused for not having planned preparedness for the unemployed instead of planning the WPA dole? Wouldn't we at least have something tangible for the $45,000,000,000 debt? Was his censure of one Republican for failure to respond to his call justified, and am I wrong in my recollection that Mr. Roosevelt between his election and assuming office refused to heed the call of President Hoover in our other great emergency? Maybe he has a good explanation for all of this, but right now I find myself with mixed feelings between accepting my emotions when listening to him or my judgment when I don't hear his voice.

A. W. P.

IT'S A QUESTION OF KINDNESS.

Chicago, July 20.—The refugee children from Europe who seem to cause a lot of unsympathetic people to make remarks that would be left unsaid if they had a little kindness in their hearts, have no institution or shelter of any kind in Europe today. There is no room in our institutions, either; therefore, if some of our real American people can find a little space in their hearts and homes for them, I say more power to them, and may God bless them for being human.

MRS. J. KELLY.

RELIGIOUS INTOLERANCE.

Chicago, July 20.—How can we consistently expect God to bless America while manifesting the intolerance expressed by the "two anonymous communications objecting to Jim Farley because he is a Catholic"?

I think these two communications turned out to be a wonderful tribute to Catholicity. We have every reason to be proud of such an outstanding personality as James A. Farley, the Catholic.

ANNE M. KENNA.

"HUMANITY" HERE AT HOME.

Chicago, July 19.—I wonder if you could prevail upon our great humanitarian mayor to lay off his "Roosevelt-in-perpetuity" campaign long enough to look after conditions in his own city. Ask him, for instance, to take a walk under the railroad viaduct on 63d street near State and examine the dirt and filth accumulated there since last winter. Possibly he is too busy "keeping Chicago ahead" to bother with the condition of its streets.

A. P.

ADOPTED BY BOTH PARTIES.

Chicago, July 19.—I read in THE TRIBUNE that Irving Berlin had permitted the Republican party to adopt "God Bless America" as its theme song for the coming campaign.

Now, in listening over W-G-N to the antics of the Democratic party I heard repeated reference to the effect that this was also the theme song of the Jobholder Draftees and am somewhat concerned. Let us have a clear understanding in this matter.

A. J. C.

ON THE SOUTH SHORE LINE.

Barrington, Ill., July 19.—Today I took my first trip on the South Shore line. Upon entering the car I was impressed with the color scheme of the interior—warm gray walls, brown stain trim, and ivory roof. This was restful to the eye and a sharp contrast to the all brown on some roads. Some of the blank spaces were covered—not by advertisments but by large color pictures of scenes, or life, or work in the Indiana territory which the South Shore serves. The seats were very comfortable and of the latest type.

Why don't some of the other railroads adopt this way of modernizing equipment? The North Shore is also doing a fine job—but I might suggest pictures on the blank spaces.

A PASSENGER.

BRAZIL'S ARMY ANTI-NAZI.

La Crosse, Wis., July 19.—I have read that over half of the Brazilian army is pro-Nazi. This contradicts my observation after 20 years' residence in Brazil, terminated last June. I knew many army men and my best friend and roommate was an officer there. Nearly all of the armed forces are against German expansion in the western hemisphere. Brazilians, being patriotic, ardently desire to continue autonomous and free.

The government exercises a limited control and direction of radio transmission and cinema films. The United States should do likewise. A government directed campaign for Pan-Americanism and hemispherical defense would foster continental unity.

Brazil is for defensive measures, but does not wish to become involved in an aggressive war. The term pro-Nazi is obnoxious to them.

ALF SCHREINER.

NO LONGER A DEMOCRAT.

Forest Park, Ill., July 18.—Well, it has come to pass! President Roosevelt wanted and got the third term nomination. So I want to be one of the first citizens of this great country to tell what I will do. I will not vote the Democratic ticket as I used to do for over 30 years both in Chicago and in the suburbs. I shall devote a lot of time to help elect Willkie.

In addition, I shall work hard till election day to defeat the Democratic candidates on the state ticket to squelch the Kelly-Horner-Nudelman and Arvey machine. I call upon my fellow citizens to start now to work for the Republican party's candidates as a protest against the Democratic leadership.

W. F. T.

IT'S A WHITE HOUSE SECRET.

La Salle, Ill., July 18.—Referring to your editorial on the nonavailability of the letter from the king of the Belgians to President Roosevelt, can a member of congress get this? We are supposed to be a democracy and such information should be available to the people.

EDWARD H. CARUS.

FROM AN R. O. T. C. MEMBER.

Chicago, July 17.—In all this national defense talk I notice nothing about the Reserve Officers' Training corps, of which I am a member. Maybe congress does not realize it, but in the R. O. T. C. it has one of the best reserves in the world.

The senior divisions in the colleges are commissioned as second lieutenants in the officers' reserve upon graduation. The junior division [high school] receives no such award. After graduation, neither the cadet nor the government receives any immediate benefit from his training.

Now, if the officers of the junior R. O. T. C. were sent to a summer camp for outdoor training, they could return to school to pass their knowledge on to the other cadets, making a large, well trained reserve. Upon graduation the officers and outstanding cadets can be made non-commissioned officers in the enlisted reserve.

Upon stating the complaint to landlord—the wire was repaired—can the renter [or tenant] collect damages on this? The landlord refuses.

2. Can this be deducted from rent?

3. The downspout on building next door was removed last year. It was all rusted and practically fell off and has never been replaced. Every time it rains all the water floods the alley and it is impassable on foot. Is there any way the owners can be made to repair this?

E. C.

1. If the tenant rents the entire premises then presumably the landlord is not liable. If the tenant rents only an apartment, then the landlord would be liable if the facts are such that he is chargeable with notice of the dangerous condition, but it seems probable that the amount would not be large enough to make court proceedings worth while.

2. See 1.

3. We understand the board of health has acted effectively on such cases. We suggest you take the matter up with them.

TODAY IN HISTORY

July 23, 1800

The United States schooner Enterprise engaged and captured the French privateer Flambeau in one of the hardest fought battles of the naval war with France. The engagement took place off Dominica in the West Indies. The Enterprise was commanded by Lieut. John Shaw. She carried 12 guns and 83 men. The Flambeau also carried about the same number of guns and men, but was considered a much stronger vessel because of the superior quality of her equipment.

Eighth Floor, South, Wabash

A great mattress—a little price!

SIMMONS' 69TH ANNIVERSARY MATTRESS

Twin or full size $19.95

The unit contains 312 hinged-type coils . . . more than you'd usually find at this price. The soft, downy cotton upholstery is a live, resilient cushion that retains its comfort indefinitely. Other details of superiority include Simmons' exclusive patented, prebuilt border . . . inner roll edge . . . a beautiful and durable woven cotton ticking . . . in addition to the usual quotas of ventilators and handles. You cannot appreciate the splendid value of this mattress until you see it yourself!

HAND-TIED BOX SPRING TO MATCH

Full or twin $19.95

The springs are tied by hand and have a rattan edge, a much more expensive process than the ordinary metal unit. Cover matches mattress.

It has all the answers!

THE DEEPER BEAUTYREST

√ How much comfort for your money?

√ How long should a mattress last?

√ How much should you pay for a mattress?

MATCHING BEAUTYREST BOX SPRING $39.50

Comfort? In Beautyrest you get sheer unashamed luxury. Will it last long? Tests show that Beautyrest stands up three times longer than any of the 17 other mattresses tested. What about its price? A "bargain" mattress that cannot keep its comfort is no "bargain" at any price. Beautyrest at $39.50 is, we think, an outstanding economy in the long run.

COMMERCE BODY URGES SPEED ON TRANSIT DISPUTE

Backs City Proposals for Unified Ordinance.

The Chicago Association of Commerce yesterday pledged its support to the proposed unified traction ordinance, but urged both the city and the transit lines to settle the points still disputed with all possible speed.

The association's statement, addressed to Ald. James R. Quinn [50th], chairman of the city council local transportation committee, and Edward E. Brown, the Surface Lines' receiver, was presented by Attorney John D. Black at the committee's third public hearing on the ordinance. It was supported by Oscar G. Mayer, president of the association; Leverett S. Lyon, executive director, and Bertram J. Cahn, James Cox, Philip F. W. Peck, and Frank A. Hecht.

RFC Loan Still to Be Obtained.

Attorney Black said an important question yet to be settled is the obtaining by the unified company of a loan of $25,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation to finance transit improvements.

Robert Todd McKinlay, chairman of the local transportation committee of the City club, submitted at the hearing a 10 page analysis and criticism of the proposed ordinance.

This report urged elimination from the ordinance of a clause requiring the new company, to be formed by a merger of the surface and elevated lines, to purchase the Chicago Motor Coach company.

"No ceiling has been set in the ordinance as yet on a price to be paid for the bus company," McKinlay said. "Since the bus company is not in receivership and is reported to be earning 14 or 15 per cent on its investment and its franchises have some time to run, it is in a position to hold up the new transit company on the purchase price, if the company is compelled to purchase it.

Suggests New Bus Lines.

"We do not believe that the property of the motor coach company is indispensable to operation of the unified traction system. If the motor coach company demands an unconscionable price for its property, the transit company could set up its own bus lines and should be free to do so."

McKinlay also proposed that the unified company should have cash on hand, or definite commitments to obtain at least $45,000,000 for transit improvements, before the city should grant the unified franchise. He warned that actual compensation paid by the new company to the city for use of streets will be only 1 per cent of revenues, because an additional 2 per cent is contingent on earnings which, he said, probably will not materialize.

Carl Latham, member of a surface lines junior bondholders protective committee, charged that the ordinance made millions of dollars of junior securities worthless, by requiring the 3 per cent of revenues as city compensation before payment of a return to the junior holders.

472 JUDGMENTS! JUDGE BONELLI HAS A BUSY DAY

Municipal Judge Nuncio Bonelli, sitting in the Women's court, faced 296 defendants and passed judgment on 472 complaints yesterday—the heaviest Municipal court day since the World's Fair. He dismissed 171 men and women seized by police from Commissioner Allman's office in a raid on a tavern at 3325 Southport avenue early Sunday. Arthur Green, the proprietor, will face trial July 25 on charges of running a tavern and selling food and cigarets without a license, having slot machines, running a disorderly house, and contributing to the delinquency of minors. Two girls, 16 and 17 years old, were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Grabs Light Cord While Installing Pipes; Killed

John Fitzgerald, 20 years old, 6905 Emerald avenue, was electrocuted yesterday while installing water pipes in the basement of a store at 6835 South Halsted street. Lieut. Harold Downes, of fire department rescue squad number 5, said Fitzgerald grasped an extension cord while standing in a damp trench.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Bring 'Im Back Alive

SMITTY—WHO'S CRAZY?

TEST YOUR HORSE SENSE

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE.

Select the answer which you consider best. The last problem counts five points. Then look for the correct answers on page 24.

1. When you buff metal your action consists of Polishing Painting Oiling Electroplating.
2. Gasoline for airplane motors would most likely have an octane rating of 60 70 82 90.
3. Atmospheric pressure is measured by a Micrometer Comptometer Speedometer Barometer.
4. The flower that blooms all summer is the Lilac Petunia Tulip Violet.
5. The number of degrees in a right angle is 45 90 135 180.
6. An arctic explorer got lost from his companions and slid down into an icy fissure or crevasse in a glacier. He was stunned by the fall but not seriously injured. When he regained consciousness he saw that it was 300 feet to the top. With his knife he gouged out hand holds in the ice and managed to advance upward 30 feet each day. But numb with cold, he would always slip back 20 feet each night. He was without food, but had such a rugged constitution he could live for exactly four weeks before lapsing into unconsciousness and death. Did he get out of the crevasse alive? How many days would it have required for him to have reached the top?

Score yourself as follows: 0-2, poor; 3-6, average; 7-8, superior; 9-10, very superior. [Note—The last question counts five points.]

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Mary A. Cummings.

Mrs. Mary A. Cummings, a club leader in Hyde Park for many years, died yesterday in her old home at Clifton, in Iroquois county, where she had been living recently. Mrs. Cummings, who was 85 years old, was the widow of Robert Cummings. She was one year old when her parents moved from Connecticut with a group that formed what was known as the Connecticut Settlement, in Iroquois county. Mrs. Cummings and her husband moved to Hyde Park in 1898. She was at one time president general of the National Society of New England Women. Three daughters, Mrs. Lenore Jernberg, Mrs. Marion Stevens, and Mrs. Thomas J. Hair, and a son, Marston Cummings, survive. Services will be held at Clifton, at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Emil Earl Hohl.

Funeral services for Emil Earl Hohl, an examiner in the Chicago office of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 35 North LaGrange road, LaGrange, with burial in Forest Home cemetery. Mr. Hohl, for many years a public accountant, died Sunday in his home at 65 North Edgewood avenue, LaGrange. He was born 47 years ago in Zurich, Switzerland, and moved to LaGrange 16 years ago from Evanston. He was a former secretary and treasurer of the James O. Heyworth Construction company. He leaves his widow, Ethel, and three sons, Emil Jr., Harold J., and Robert W. Hohl.

Mrs. Christina Smith.

Funeral services for Mrs. Christina Smith will be held at 4 p. m. today in the chapel at 63d street and Harvard avenue. Mrs. Smith was the widow of William R. Smith, a livestock commission merchant. She died Sunday in her home at 7226 Yale avenue at the age of 88. Two daughters, Annie and Jane Smith, and a son, John Smith, survive.

George W. Guptail.

Funeral services for George W. Guptail, former mayor and village official of South Elgin, Kane county, will be held this afternoon in the chapel at 310 South State street, Elgin. Mr. Guptail died Sunday night at the age of 74. In recent years he had been employed by the Elgin Metal Casket company. Four daughters survive.

Adam Oldenburg.

Adam Oldenburg, 83 years old, a native Chicagoan, died yesterday in his home at 5476 Harper avenue. He was a former supervisor of the town of South Chicago and of the Chicago library board. Until his retirement he was for 42 years employed by the New York Life Insurance company. He was a member of the Medinah Temple and a former member of the Illinois, Midway, and Medinah Athletic clubs. He also was a director of the defunct Lincoln State bank. Mr. Oldenburg leaves his widow, Adaline; a daughter, Mrs. John L. Masse, and a son, Forrest A. Oldenburg. Services will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday in the chapel at 1820 Michigan avenue.

Thomas R. Preece.

Thomas R. Preece, who was first vice president of the Bricklayers', Masons', and Plasterers' international union for 24 years, died yesterday in his home at 331 North Taylor avenue, Oak Park. Mr. Preece, who was 81 years old, had been retired for 15 years. He was a friend of Samuel Gompers and served on President Coolidge's national board of jurisdictional awards in the labor field. Five daughters, Mrs. A. N. Kuhn, Mrs. Max Hoen, Mrs. H. V. Ibsen, Mrs. Clarence Rickey, and Mrs. George A. Bockman, and two sons, Thomas R. Jr. and Harry George Preece, survive. Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

DENIES CHARGES OF UNION BLAME IN PLANT CLOSING

Charges that the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, formerly a C. I. O. affiliate, was largely responsible for a decision to liquidate the Alpena Garment company and close four dress factories in northern Michigan were challenged last night by Morton Bialis of Chicago, vice president of the international. The four Michigan plants, located in Alpena, Cheboygan, Rogers City, and Onaway, employed 1,600 persons.

"Efforts by the firm to fasten the blame for liquidation on the union are false," said Bialis. "We did not place the company at any wage disadvantage. After the strike the union succeeded in establishing collective bargaining and the right to take up complaints for adjustment as prescribed by law. All other conditions, wage and hours, were based on the federal law."

Bialis also charged that the company had been guilty of evasion of the wage and hour law, which resulted in a voluntary strike, after which the plant was organized by the union. Bialis said the company's business losses came before the strike and not afterward, and he blamed the decline of the company's business on bad management.

The union official said he and other officers of the international, which has returned to the A. F. of L. fold, are trying to induce other manufacturers to enter the territory and employ the idle workers.

Storekeeper, 71, Jailed as Slugging Victim Dies

Robert Montgomery, 71 years old, was charged by the police with manslaughter yesterday as a result of the death of George Christenson, 61. Christenson owned a variety store at 2306 Cottage Grove avenue. Montgomery operated a second hand store at 2327 Cottage Grove avenue. Police said they were told that Montgomery struck Christenson with a milk bottle Saturday night in Christenson's store. Christenson died Sunday.

Lloyd N. Carter Dies in Train-Auto Crash

Lloyd N. Carter, 41 years old, a salesman for the United States Gypsum company, was killed late yesterday when his automobile was struck by a train of the Milwaukee road at the crossing in Wooddale, Du Page county, where he had gone on a business trip. He lived at 1430 Lake avenue, Wilmette. He is survived by his widow, Edna; two sons, Robert and Daniel, and a daughter, Margaret.

SCHMIDT DEATH LAID TO HEART DISEASE BY CORONER'S PHYSICIAN

Dr. Samuel Levinson, coroner's physician, reported yesterday that the death July 8 of Richard E. Schmidt Jr., 42 years old, son of the city building commissioner, was due to organic heart disease, complicated by the action of alcohol and paraldehyde, a medicine used to soothe violent alcoholic reactions.

Schmidt died suddenly in the apartment of Miss Mary Faulkner, a graduate nurse, at 1117 North Dearborn street. Coroner's investigators found that three ounces of paraldehyde had been prescribed shortly before his death by Dr. Gerald M. Greenspahn. A six ounce bottle of the medicine filled by a prescription druggist was half empty.

Dr. Levinson's findings will be submitted when a coroner's inquest is resumed July 25.

Mexico Calls to Chicagoans Yearning for Foreign Travel

BY JUDITH CASS.

WITH European travel eliminated for the time being, many Chicagoans are going to Mexico for their "foreign" atmosphere. Many young college folk who might have spent some months abroad in study have gone to the southwest.

The International Art school at San Miguel de Allende in Guanajuato was the destination of a number of summer students. Mrs. Louise Thorne Bovingdon and her subdeb daughter, Joya, left for San Miguel early this month. Mrs. Quincy Wright's daughter, Miss Rosalind Wright; John A. Holabird Jr., Miss Nancy Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Hopkins; Miss Natalie Richter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Richter; Miss Helen Hirsh, and Miss Irene Portis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Portis, are other students at the school.

Miss Wright is working in ceramics and sculpture, taking the latter course with Angelica Archipenko, wife of the well known sculptor, Alexander Archipenko. Miss Katherine Kuh is at the school for a third season as lecturer. She now owns an attractive small house in San Miguel.

Sterling Dickinson Is Associate Director.

Mr. Holabird, a sophomore at Harvard, is at the school for his third year. Sterling Dickinson, son of the Francis R. Dickinsons, is associate director of the school, and owns one of the most charming homes in the colony. Recently he had as guests Miss Martha Fitts and Miss Jessica Hambleton, who are spending two or three weeks in Mexico.

"Toto" McCormick, the Leander McCormick's son, and Fred Renshaw have gone to the Ancon ranch in Santa Fe, N. M., for a few weeks' holiday. Young Mr. Renshaw will join his parents, the William Wilson Renshaws, at their cottage in Harbor Point, Mich., for the late summer activities.

Mr. Dickinson's sisters, Mrs. Gilbert H. Robinson and Mrs. William A. Little, are in Charlevoix, Mich., with their parents. Their husbands go up for occasional week-ends. The Dickinsons have sold their Astor street home to the Walter Meads.

Charles C. Renshaws Move to Lake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Renshaw and their son, Charles Jr., have moved out to Lake Forest where they are occupying the David Dangler home on Mayflower road. They plan to spend the summer on the north shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prentice of Lake Forest and her son, Harry Wheeler, and his friend, Bill Spalding, son of the Vaughan Spaldings, are leaving in mid-August for a vacation at Jasper Park in Canada. Leslie, Mrs. Prentice's other son, is visiting on a ranch in Wyoming and will return home shortly after Labor day, about the same time that the rest of the family returns.

Mrs. Prentice reports that $1,200 was cleared for Grove House at a recent benefit given at Mrs. Prentice's house.

On her first trip east is Mary Winston Dowling, Mrs. Ralph T. Winston's niece, namesake and godchild, whose home is in San Francisco, Cal. Miss Dowling, who is just 17, will go east with the Winstons early in August on an educational and pleasure tour of New York, Philadelphia, and other historic cities and resorts. She is the daughter of John Dowling of San Francisco and will enter junior college in the west next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Noyes of Lake Forest have gone to Lake Placid, N. Y., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Delos W. Blodgett. Mrs. Blodgett is the former Carlisle Sullivan of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keith to Fish in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keith are leaving soon for a fishing trip in northern Minnesota. They will return about Aug. 12 and will move into an apartment at 180 East Delaware place.

Miss Alice Barler will be going east shortly to visit her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sewall of Bath, Me. Then she will go to Lakeville, Conn., to spend some time with Ernest Calkins, author of "Louder, Please," and Mrs. Calkins.

Mrs. Thomas E. Wilder and Miss Jane Kreuscher left last Thursday for California. Mrs. Wilder will visit her parents, the Lucius B. Mannings, in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Edwin P. Price Jr. and her little daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Price's parents, the J. Lawrence Onderdonks, in Winnetka, will return to their Pasadena, Cal., home on July 30. Going west in the same train will be Mrs. William G. Onderdonk, Mrs. Price's sister-in-law, who came east with Mrs. Price a few weeks ago. Mrs. Onderdonk has been in Detroit, Mich., with her parents. She and her husband also live in Pasadena.

Mrs. Broeksmit to Visit Daughter at Camp.

Mrs. John S. Broeksmit of Lake Forest is driving north to Washington Island, Wis., on Sunday for a visit with young "Frisky", who is spending the summer at the Mabel Katherine Pearse camp. Joan Hill, daughter of the Boyd Hills of Lake Forest, will accompany Mrs. Broeksmit to spend the remainder of the summer at the camp. Nancy Broeksmit is visiting at the Hermon Dunlap Smith's camp at Desbarats in Canada now, and when she returns her sister, Mary, will go north for a visit with the Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. George Malcolm and their son, Peter, of Palm Beach, Fla., are visiting friends in Lake Forest. They are now house guests of the Frederick G. Wackers, having spent several days with the Francis E. Manierres. On Friday the Malcolms will depart for the east.

Philip Emery Moore to Be Married Tomorrow.

Chicago friends of Philip Emery Moore will be interested to hear that he and Miss Martha Patricia Agnew are to be married tomorrow in Seat-

MISS FLORENCE JACQUELINE HERMES

Miss Florence Jacqueline Hermes' engagement to Georges Henri Dapples is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hermes. The wedding will take place in October after the Hermes family returns from Santa Fe, N. M., where they are spending the summer. Lovely titian haired Miss Hermes was educated at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, the Girls' Latin school, and Vassar college, where she carried the traditional daisy chain. She made her debut at a dinner-dance at the Blackstone on Christmas, 1935. Mr. Dapples, who e parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Charles Dapples of Chicago, had his early education in Switzerland and then attended the United States Naval academy at Annapolis and the Northwestern school of law.

Most meaningful mouthful of last week, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank's comment:

"The war will not be won on the playing fields of Eton, but it may be won in the industrial plants of the United States."

Minor War Note.

Jan Masaryk, son of the first president of Czecho-Slovakia, who has been visiting in Chicago, told of the fellow Czecho-Slovakian who left for the west the other day on his way back to his homeland via the Pacific ocean.

"I'm going the short way," he said cryptically when he was asked why he was taking such a long route to his homeland.

Query.

(In the morning mail.)

For the last few years I have been troubled by a horrible thought that men don't take vacations. Surely there is something wrong with the world if the hard-working man is deprived of the thrill of "two weeks with pay." Can it be that the men are content with an afternoon a week to play golf, or a week-end to fish or hunt? Something tells me this is not true. But where do the men go.

As one of the masses who enjoys her "two weeks with pay," and usually takes another two weeks without, I have been to many vacation spots. Mountains, ranches, lake resorts, Caribbean cruises. I have flown to California, visited Banff, sunned in Florida, rested at Cape Cod, motored to Texas and the southwest. And what do I see? Women everywhere, and occasionally a few—very few—men, usually old and retired business men or young students just out of college.

Where do men go? Do they have an Atlantis of their own? Do they seek the solitude of northern streams, where crickets and frogs give music at night and speckled trout lure them by day? Surely they go some place—but where?

—Colleen.

Cuff Notes.

The evening last week Count and Countess Cardelli entertained at dinner, with Conductor Artur Rodzinski and Violinist Albert Spalding and their wives among the guests, it was, it developed, the wedding anniversary of both the Rodzinskis and the Spaldings.

One of the problems to heirs to a Lake Forest estate are six large, handsome oleander trees that, nursed in the greenhouse winters, adorned a Lake Forest terrace summers. Estate heirs can't get any one to take the handsome trees off their hands because of the expense attendant upon their maintenance and handling. (It takes three men to move them.) Onwentsia club declined them. . . . The plant of the Bethlehem Steel company is being camouflaged so it cannot be seen from the air. . . . Several members of the faculty of Northwestern are vacationing at Cuernavaca, Mexico. Evelyn Pathman, whose brother is a research assistant at Northwestern, has been asked to bring a number of things with her when she joins the party. One of the items a professor asks for is all the back issues of THE TRIBUNE carrying Terry and the Pirates.

Good Morning!

Judging from the length of the women's dresses, this movie, featuring Sir Harry Lauder, was filmed quite some time ago. But, sakes—you don't mind that! You're just SO glad to see that little singin' Scotsman again! [At least you are if you belong to my generation.]

"Song of the Road," filmed in England and Scotland, is Sir Harry's return bow to public life after an absence of years. . . . It is as naïve a little production as ever ventured forth into a big, brash world, and as refreshing as a whiff of lavender.

Under direction guiltless of subtlety, the players perform a whole lot as our first screen stars did in the silent movies. They, including Sir Harry, are exceedingly earnest about both acting and delivery. You smile indulgently and love the lot of them—with the exception of THE VILLAIN—hiss-ss-ss! Bruce Seton, playing a booze loving tenor who breaks a fair one's heart. He dies in agony, the dastard, and you are pleased no end.

Mr. Lauder is generous with his songs and patter and, seems amazingly young when in character. His friendly geniality and twinkle are Harold Stokes-ish. It is only when he plays "straight" that you realize he's not the boy he used to be.

In the story he's John MacGregor, head of a group of touring minstrels—beloved thruout the Scottish countryside. His two daughters, plain, very—but such nice girls—play the piano and sing. . . . Sheila, the elder, you are to learn, has secretly married the aforementioned tenor, who merely designs to be one of them, the while he has his net out for a crooner-bandmaster job. This he lands eventually and takes his leave with his wife. . . . She is to die in childbirth—and the young doctor who attends her, well—remember I said that papa had TWO daughters?

The story unfolds quietly for the most part, but rings in some good old melodrama here and there.

In some of his musical selections Mr. Lauder is assisted by a fine men's chorus—the members garbed as cronies, bartenders, etc.

With the exception of young Mr. Seton—quite the modern in every way—the whole setup is deliciously old world. I don't imagine "Song of the Road" will have much pull for our kids, but those who loved Mr. Lauder will adore to watch him jogging and jigging again over familiar roads.

See you soon.

Chicago Opera Contestant Is Park Soloist

BY CECIL SMITH.

Ruth Slater, Chicago mezzo-soprano, who reached the finals in the recent public auditions of the Chicago Opera company, sang in Grant park last evening. Other assisting artists with Glenn Cliffe Bainum and his band were Jane Anderson, pianist, and Florence Lambert, harpist.

Miss Slater's voice is admirably smooth, and uniformly produced thruout a long range. It has enough edge to permit good rhythmic accent, and enough roundness to provide sensuous pleasure. In "O mio Fernando," from Donizetti's "La Favorita," she sang with complete poise and mechanical reliability. As yet she has not developed much operatic temperament, for it is too calm and lacks tension and excitement. Her grasp of the difficult Donizetti style was uneven, but she succeeded in rounding off the last cadence in the grand manner.

For purposes of record, it may be remarked that Mr. Bainum presented three novelties, none of them important: A scherzo for band by Jaromir Weinberger [first time anywhere]; Morton Gould's "American Caprice" [first time in Chicago], and David Bennett's "La Rougette," for harp and band [first time anywhere].

Looking at Hollywood
By John Chapman

Hollywood, July 22. — Monday: Househunting in the morning. By now I've seen so many that they're like the Japanese gardeners who go with them—they all look alike. Luncheon with Susanna Foster, a very young and promising singing starlet at RKO. Susanna nearly forgets to take out her celluloid front teeth before eating. Her regular front teeth have a cute little space between them. Max Gordon and Gene Markey are at a nearby table. I ask Max what he's doing and he says looking for a picture to produce. Miss Foster, who is still in high school, says she thinks Markey has the nicest face.

To Ciro's for the cocktail party Gene Towne and Graham Baker are giving for Elsie, the cow. Elsie has a silk-roped corral on the dance floor. In New York the night clubs use silken ropes to keep what they consider cattle out, not in. Elsie stands all the music and chatter of a cocktail party without once getting the jumps, and I wish I had her disposition.

Tuesday: To the Warner plant to watch them shoot a baby scene for "Four Mothers." I fancy that Claude Rains, all done up like an old guy, is beginning to burn after five takes, each of which has been spoiled by the infant crying as soon as it is thrust into his arms. In the evening it's a tossup whether to catch a preview of "Pride and Prejudice" or hear Oscar Levant play a couple of Gershwin pieces at the Hollywood bowl. So we choose the bowl, and a fine sight on a chilly night in which you can see your breath. The Los Angeles Philharmonic seems only fair, and Albert Coates a lackadaisical time-beater. But Levant is a crisp, clean workman and he lifts band and leader out of their tropic lethargy. As soon as any number ends at the bow, it's fun to turn around and watch most of 20,000 persons light cigarets at the same instant.

Wednesday: Luncheon at Lakeside with Richard Carroll, who has just finished a Boris Karloff script—something about an ape. In the evening to the preview of "The Sea Hawk"—it is, for a good long stretch, a rousing ocean melodrama, with battles and galley slaves and scuppers running blood. Then it goes off into the old sword-fight in the castle stuff, with Errol Flynn leaping about the staircases and balconies of the Château Warner, skewering practically everybody but Queen Elizabeth, whom he likes. I can't help thinking the Warners better watch Flynn on his visits to New York and steer him away from 42d street and 5th avenue, because if he ever saw those Public library steps he might whip out a rapier and start falling to among the book-loving citizens, from force of habit.

Thursday: To the Republic studio, to watch the shooting of a Roy Rogers western, and arrive just in the nick of time. The hero has been desperately wounded. However, they perform the life-saving operation in time for lunch and the makeup man takes Roy's wound off with some kind of cleaning fluid which makes our hero itch. We go for lunch at a restaurant just across the boulevard. In the old days a cowboy would ride his horse just across the street. Now we pile into a car to make the trip—because a pedestrian might not arrive on the other side alive. Outside the restaurant there's a big line and I wonder if the place is so full we'll have to wait. Oh, no. It's just a lineup of sightseers, who for a small fee will be permitted to walk thru and watch the movie actors eat.

Friday—To the 20th Century-Zanuck-Fox place to watch the filming of some bits of Jane Withers' "Youth Will Be Served," and to kibitz while our small daughter has lunch with Jane. Afterward I offer daughter a buck if she will write a piece about it. She writes: "I had lunch with Jane Withers. She is a very nice lady. We fond out that she has a soda fountain. Jane says that she makes her own sodas and all so has some of her own drinks."

Saturday—To see Sabu, the Elephant boy, and find out how he likes it here. He likes it fine, particularly the steaks and chicken, if you don't have to eat it with a fork. He is daffy about airplanes and automobiles. Got his driver's license recently and wants to be an air pilot. He thinks running elephants is small boy stuff!

Sunday—At the desk in the a. m., a slave to duty. In the p. m. and for quite a while thereafter at Gregory La Cava's Malibu Beach house to try to find out what a noted director does when he isn't directing. He does just what the rest of us do when we aren't doing what we ought to be doing. He sits around and eats a bit and maybe has a couple of drinks.

He sits around in bathing trunks and nothing else. People drop in or are already there. Relatives. Neighbor Richard Barthelmess, tobacco-brown and looking for a game of volley ball. What big eyes you have, granddaughter. W. C. Fields. "Sure I will make a political speech on the air," he tells somebody, "but there's got to be some comedy in it." Doris Nolan. She has had to spend most of the day making shipboard stills for "Moon over Burma." One of those high powered crap games starts, everybody playing ship, captain, and crew for 10 cents a throw, or a dollar in the pot.

Readers Swell Free Ice Fund for City's Poor

THE TRIBUNE readers who responded yesterday to an appeal made Saturday for the free ice fund of the United Charities may be assured their Good Samaritan act has reached with the sustaining effect of a friendly hand into scores of Chicago homes where poverty has brought illness and suffering.

The need for ice in these sweltering days is great. Even desperate need is registered in many of the hundreds of pleas reaching the United Charities' ten stations. The cases of the undernourished children, of the ill, and the aged are here brought forward again for the considerate attention of other readers who may wish to participate in the free ice charity.

Most gratefully, the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., acknowledges the donations made yesterday, which raised the ice fund total to $340.18. They are recorded herewith:

Wedding

Mrs. Merton Enos of Elsmere, N. Y., announces the marriage last Friday of her daughter, Miss Beverly Shepard, to George N. Harman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harman of Rutland, Vt. The bride was given in marriage by her father, C. Frederic Shepard of Chicago. The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Albany and was followed by a reception at the DeWitt Clinton hotel.

[Activities of the Sally Joy Brown department are sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.]

Judging from the letters which have been pouring upon my desk, our latest party announcement made a big hit with you boys and girls!

It seems that all the young baseball fans in the city want to come with me to see the White Sox play the Philadelphia Athletics on Aug. 1. Of course, I can't take all of you, but I do have room for fifty boys and fifty girls, and I want them to be children who'll find this party a real treat. If you think seeing this game would be the nicest thing that ever happened to you, let me hear from you.

There is still plenty of time to write and tell me what you think about this party, and maybe you'll be one of the happy hundred who'll receive invitations.

Your letter doesn't have to be just so, you know. It must just be sincere and every word of it written all by yourself. Letters from parents will not be accepted.

Be sure to tell me your full name and address and how old you are.

Thursday morning is the latest possible time at which your letter may reach me if it is to be included in the group from which I will make my selection. The names of the winners will be printed in next SUNDAY'S TRIBUNE. If you want to see your name listed with those who will be my guests at Comiskey park, don't delay, for the deadline isn't far off. The address is Sally Joy Brown, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago.

Murder Is Not Mute

SYNOPSIS.

Detective Patrick Doyle of New York is on his vacation in a small resort town. He goes walking in the woods of a large estate and stumbles upon a skeleton.

INSTALMENT II.

BAD PUBLICITY.

To his disgust, the storm broke uproariously, and almost immediately the slanting lines of rain changed to a barrage of hailstones. Doyle began to run, turning up his coat collar as the hailstones bounced merrily from the hard contours of his derby.

At last, to his gratification, he emerged from the woodland into open country. Surely now he'd see a house. His inquiring gaze swept the rolling terrain hopefully. Straight ahead rose a mound of earth, its artificially sloping sides covered with coarse grass, its crest leveled off with closely mown clover. Atop the mound and somewhat off center, a flag twisted dankly in the wind. On the flag was the number 13.

The blood of Doyle's superstitious forebears surged uneasily. "Sure, it's only the thirteenth green of a golf course," he reassured himself, and his discomfiture was further alleviated when he discovered, some hundred yards to his left where three fairways ran parallel, a small shed, erected to protect golfers from just such weather as this.

Doyle ran for it, holding his head down to protect his eyes from the stinging hail. And so it was that he entered the shed blindly and did not know until the moment of collision that it was already occupied.

Truman Briault lounged in the doorway of the shelter, respectfully watching the storm and waiting for the chauffeur to come to his rescue.

Suddenly the young man's handsome gray eyes widened in astonishment. A stranger was running toward him from the thirteenth green. The next moment the runner reached the shed and barged blindly into Briault, whose long, lean body recoiled distastefully.

"Where the hell did you come from?" he demanded irritably.

The man's face jerked up with a startled expression, and it took a second for him to get his breath, while Briault's arrogant stare made note of mud-spattered clothes and the unprepossessing gash over one eye.

The fellow took a long, sharp look before he made up his mind to answer.

"Keep your shirt on, Buddy. I walked here."

"Then walk yourself out of here," Briault ordered. "We turn tramps over to the police."

Doyle blinked. Then he spoke unctuously. "O. K. with me, Buddy. I'm looking for the police."

"I don't want any of your impudence," Briault said. "You're on private property and you have no business here. Now get out!"

Doyle's grin was imperturbable. "Maybe I'm not all that has no business here. Who owns this place anyway?"

Briault was staring at Doyle oddly. "That's none of your affair."

Doyle let it go at that. But then he wanted to know, "Anybody ever disappear around here?"

For a moment something like panic stared starkly from the young man's eyes, before he challenged scornfully, "Are you crazy?"

"It might be I have the D. T.'s," Doyle confessed genially. "A little while back I saw a snake. And right after that I saw a skeleton."

The young man laughed shortly. "A skeleton in our woods? Nonsense."

"I didn't say anything about your woods."

Disconcerted by this reminder, Briault busied himself with a cigaret. It was while his face was masked by his cupped hands that he inquired "What kind of a skeleton?"

Doyle waited deliberately until the white, long fingered hands came down. Then he looked at the young man squarely, "The kind you're thinking it is."

"A woman?"

The moment he'd said it, Briault's jaw clamped as if he would bite back the words.

"I guess you know more about it than I do," Doyle spoke softly.

Briault was drawing nervously on his cigaret. His forehead was deeply creased, as tho he pondered what to do. And then, thru the pelt of the rain came the sound of an automobile advancing somewhere behind the shed. Briault went into instant action. He motioned Doyle back into the shadows of the far corner and ordered tersely, "Keep your mouth shut." Then he posted himself in the entrance, blocking it.

The motor was purring now, throttled low, and a car door slammed. Then the uniformed chauffeur rounded the shed.

"Hello, Follins," Briault said, nervously.

The chauffeur was carrying a raincoat and rubbers. He had a big umbrella, such as doormen use, over his head.

Briault took the coat and overshoes.

"I'm not coming with you," he said.

The chauffeur gaped. "But your caddie said——"

"I've changed my mind," Briault interrupted irritably. "I want to finish my game." The chauffeur looked out at the storm involuntarily. "This is just a shower," Briault explained.

"Then do you want me to send your caddie back?" Follins queried blankly.

Briault shook his head quickly. "No, no. I'll finish the round alone."

It obviously didn't make sense to Follins. And just then the thing happened that Briault was trying to prevent. Follins' gaze slid past Briault and focused on Doyle, standing back in the corner. A startled, conjecturing look came into the chauffeur's eyes.

"You may go, Follins," Briault said crisply.

Briault put on the raincoat and rubbers.

"Come along," he said peremptorily. "Show me that skeleton."

"O. K.," Doyle said briskly. "Let's go."

They picked up the path and plunged into the woods, making their difficult way in silence. When they came to the boulder, Doyle led sharp right and thrust into the bushes.

"Here we are," he said unnecessarily.

Briault stared down at the skeleton and made no comment. His furtive sidelong glance showed he was aware that Doyle was watching him closely, and his face tightened in an effort to maintain inscrutability. He looked sick and defenseless.

"Who is it?" Doyle asked leadingly.

But the young man shook his head. "I haven't any idea."

"What do you think we ought to do about it?"

"What is there to do now?" Briault answered absently.

Doyle suggested dryly, "We could notify the police."

"Yes, of course." His tone was a sorry attempt at naturalness. And suddenly he cried, "For God's sake, let's get out of here!"

But once back on the path, he halted, mopped at his brow, seemed to come to swift decision.

He spoke abruptly. "Where are you bound for?"

Doyle told him laconically, "Beachville."

Briault said impatiently, "Why should you hang around Beachville?"

Doyle looked at him oddly, without response.

Briault continued more persuasively: "Get on out of town like a good fellow. We can't have a lot of ugly publicity about this thing. You can understand that, can't you?"

"Sure, I understand," Doyle said. "You want me to keep my mouth shut."

"That's it," Briault agreed. "We don't want reporters and photographers and God knows who else overrunning the place. It would spoil our summer."

"I guess that's so," Doyle eyed him shrewdly. "But the guy who lies in those bushes isn't having much of a summer."

The young man spoke hastily. "You're right. That will have to be investigated."

"By whom?"

"The police, of course."

"You mean you'll tell them?" The question was frankly skeptical.

"Certainly."

"Then what's the idea of wanting me to keep quiet?"

"Use your head," Briault retorted angrily. "If you'll keep your mouth shut, it's probable we can arrange with the local authorities to conduct the investigation secretly. What do you care how the matter is handled?"

Your Stars ★ Today ★

By WYNN

Tuesday, July 23.

Too emotional are today's vibrations for those who are careless with feelings, words or acts—don't allow yourself to be influenced by enthusiasms or pessimisms of others. Remain socially calm in evening; use the brain firmly if tempted.

Your Year Ahead.

Your year ahead, if this is your birthday, increases chances to succeed in ambitions, hopes, and desires—possibility of aid thru loved ones, social means, and hard work. Danger: Nov. 14-25; March 21-April 3, 1941.

Tomorrow.

A day of delicate choices; regard well the future of all moves.

Do you want an individual interpretation for your own personal date? Every important period is indicated for you, according to the laws of astrology. Send 10 cents to Wynn, Tribune Astrologer, 286 Fifth avenue, New York City. Write plainly your name, date of birth, and address.

Visitors from Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lester Marks and their two children of Honolulu are spending a few days at the Glen View club as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Dwight Stevens. Mr. Marks came to Chicago last week as a delegate to the Democratic convention. He and his family are touring the country by automobile.

Bid Children to Summer's Drama School

There need be no waste of the dancing, dramatics, or singing talent of young Chicago.

That is the stout-hearted claim of the Chicago Drama league, launched on its 24th summer season of juvenile instruction. Again the league invites boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 18 years to the Children's Civic theater, at the east end of Navy pier, where free classes are being conducted from 1 to 5 p. m. every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday by three expert teachers.

This season, Mrs. William E. Vogelback, league chairman directing the theater, has announced, the program of instruction is being evolved from American history.

The visitor dropping in on a class day during these early weeks will be drawn to the north end of the rehearsal gallery by the penetrating whisper of an Indian drum. Can it be that the authentic step patterns and gestures of that circle on the platform are being performed by children of the paleface? Miss Marie Veatch is the teacher who, with the wife of a tribesman of the Dakotas at her right hand, is shaping this record of the Indian's prayer dance.

At the far south end, clear young voices blended in meticulous harmony, are recalling the romance of the south in Stephen Foster's melodies. Leila Hanmer is leading the singers.

A third circle is all attention, listening to the story of Rip Van Winkle, who took an overlong nap in the Catskills. Catherine Geary is reading. This is the preliminary step toward dramatizing the "Sketch Book" tale.

Thus are the first ingredients being fashioned for a spectacular pageant which will be presented to the public one night toward the close of the season. Meantime, on the Monday nights and Wednesday afternoons of August, there will be a series of productions based on specific chapters in the American story.

★ THRU THE LOOKING GLASS ★

Don't you relish a good scrubbing these days? When you're hot and disheveled it renews your lease on life to scrub and rinse and simply wallow in cold water afterwards.

Your skin relishes the scrubbing, too. Perspiration, makeup and city dust don't make either a pretty or a healthy coating for that complexion of yours. You'll want to keep your face immaculate not only to guarantee looking better but to safeguard the texture and the clarity of your skin.

Another argument for scrubbing your face is that it's passive exercise for it. The skin needs the stimulation of friction and the muscles need the massage. We've always thought that there are very few skins that couldn't be conditioned to soap and water scrubbings and wouldn't be the better for them.

Not so long ago a lovely lilac face soap made its appearance. It's a member of an English family, very bland and refreshing. It makes a good rich lather and gets at all the grime and makeup that must be thoroly removed for the protection of skin clarity. The fragrance, of course, is an extra dividend—and a very nice one. Night and morning cleansings with this are a joy.

If you like the lilac fragrance—and you undoubtedly will—you'll also like the toilet water in the same scent. It's one of the loveliest you can find.

When you get right down to it, cleanliness is the big trick of looking fresh in wilting weather. If you're radiantly, sweetly clean you're bound to have that "band box" look that's so enviable. Scrubbings, lots of them, with a fragrant soap, are one of the best of all beauty secrets.

Chocolate cookies are as popular as chocolate cakes. In fact, anything edible which comes in chocolate flavor rates high among sweets and desserts. Drop chocolate cookies will be gobbled almost instantaneously, even without frosting, but with frosting, they vanish with ghostly swiftness.

Chocolate frosting is the usual topping for these drop cookies, but I'm going to follow that recipe with one for chocolate-orange frosting, in case you'd like to try that variation some time. It's good!

Frosted Chocolate Drop Cookies.
[3 dozen.]

1¼ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
3 squares unsweetened chocolate
¼ cup butter or other shortening
⅔ cup sugar
1 egg
⅔ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Pecans

Sift flour with baking powder and salt, several times. Melt chocolate and butter over hot water. Add sugar and mix well. Add egg and beat thoroly. Add flour alternately with milk, stirring only enough to blend. Add vanilla. Drop from a teaspoon onto an ungreased baking sheet, leaving space between cookies to allow for spreading. Bake at 375 degrees for about 7 minutes, or until done. Frost, and place half a pecan in the center of each cookie while the frosting is soft.

CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW FROSTING: Heat together, over low heat, 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, 2 tablespoons butter, ⅓ cup water, and 12 marshmallows, cut in pieces. Add a few grains of salt and stir constantly until mixture has melted and blended. Remove from heat and add gradually 2 cups of sifted confectioners' sugar. Flavor with 1 teaspoon vanilla and beat until the frosting reaches spreading consistency. This is a good frosting for a cake, too.

CHOCOLATE ORANGE FROSTING: Cream together 2 teaspoons grated orange rind and 4 tablespoons butter. Add 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar gradually, mixing well. Add 1½ squares chocolate, melted, and a sprinkling of salt. Then beat in alternately 3 tablespoons orange juice and another cup [making 2 in all] of sifted confectioners' sugar. Mix until of consistency to spread.

Chocolate chip cookies have been enjoying a wildfire popularity lately. This isn't the usual recipe, it's another variation.

Chocolate Chip Nut Squares.
[Twenty.]

6 ounces semisweet chocolate [¾ of ½ pound bar]
½ cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 teaspoon melted butter
2 teaspoons hot water
⅔ cup broken nut meats

Cut the chocolate into small pieces. Sift flour, measure, and add baking powder and salt. Resift. Add sugar gradually to egg, beating thoroly. Add butter and water, then nuts and chocolate, mixing thoroly. Add flour gradually, mixing well. Turn into greased, wax paper lined pan, 8 inches square [grease paper lining, too] and bake at 325 degrees, slow oven, for 25 to 30 minutes. Cool, remove from pan and cut in squares.

By Evelyn Holmes

July 23, 1940.

Universal Day—With all the activity in the air today, you can't just sit back and let the parade go by, but be sure you know where you are going.

Month Ahead—For those born on this day, and all those who are enjoying [or are you?] an 8-year this year, August is the breathing spell in this busy period. You should take a rest by the sea or in the mountains, getting away from the pressure of the big business of this year. In September you should be unusually active, so take advantage of the break now while you can. Don't follow the crowds, however, for this month calls for solitude.

Year Ahead—You should be enjoying a very profitable year, and if you are not, then there is something wrong with the way you have been working for the last eight years. You will get a chance to discard old methods next year and start again in 1942.

Would you like to know what kind of a year 1940 will be for you? Send for your personal yearly, monthly, and daily guide.

Slacks Suit and a Playsuit

WOMAN'S AND MISS' SPORTS TOGS.

Two patterns today, one for a slacks suit, the other for a play suit. Sketched at the left, the beautifully tailored slacks outfit, with traditional shirtwaist top that has the new long sleeves. Right, the play suit with its matching skirt. Striped fabrics are "knockout" for the play ensemble, whereas soft pastels are ideal for the slacks. The blouse and trousers might be of the same color, or contrast harmoniously.

Style No. 3291 is designed for sizes 12, 14 and 16, and 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measurements. Size 16 requires 2⅞ yards of 39 inch material for slacks, 2⅝ yards for long-sleeved blouse.

Style No. 2734 is designed for sizes 12, 14 and 16, and 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measurements. Size 16 requires 2½ yards of 39 inch material for play suit, 1⅞ yards for skirt.

Each pattern costs 10 cents.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central annex, NEW YORK CITY, including 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired, and write your name and address plainly.

For 15 cents buy the summer Chicago Tribune book of Clotilde Fashions, on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower; 10 cents if ordered with a pattern. Address mail orders to the New York address above.

An Alphabet and Motifs

BY NANCY CABOT.

Starting with the alphabet and ending with an embroidered flower basket, the needleworker has her choice of 10 interesting and easy-to-do motifs which may be used on any of a dozen items which will be used as gifts. Guest towels, luncheon cloths, pillow cases and tray cloths are only a few of the uses to which this alphabet and the motifs may be applied.

For the hot iron transfer of the alphabet and 10 motifs, No. X-628, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1940: By Ely Culbertson.]

The way some players conduct their defense reminds me of a none-too-bright pedestrian standing rooted while a ten ton truck bears down on him. To wit:

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 heart	Pass	1 spade	Pass
3 clubs	Pass	4 no trump	Pass
5 no trump	Pass	6 no trump	Pass
Pass	Pass

North thought longingly about a grand slam and finally passed to the six no trump only with the greatest of reluctance. As a matter of fact, the combined hands warranted a grand slam contract, since any break of hearts except J x x x or J x x x x in the East hand would have made that contract a laydown. But North could not be sure that South had three hearts, hence his pass was not unduly conservative. And, considering the actual break of hearts, it was just as well that North did use discretion, inasmuch as South had to use all his ingenuity [and get a little help from the enemy] to bring home even the small slam. Of course, six hearts would have been a cinch, but then we'd have no story.

West hit upon the one opening that could give his own team a chance, a diamond. On any other lead declarer would have had time to concede a heart trick and collect four hearts, three spades, four clubs, and one diamond, for his twelve tricks. But with the diamond ace knocked out immediately, declarer soon found himself in hot water. Two rounds of hearts let out the bad news. Declarer then tried to break the spade suit, cashing the king and the queen. No luck here, either. Well, there was one thing to be thankful for, the club suit didn't require a "break." Declarer dashed off all the clubs, thoughtfully discarding his heart ten. He then led dummy's remaining spade, and held his breath while East discarded! When said discard turned out to be the diamond ten, declarer was sure he was "home." West would not have led originally from a king, hence East must have started with both the king and queen of diamonds, and was now reduced to the higher honor. Declarer won the spade lead with the king and exited with a diamond. East was hit by the aforementioned ten ton truck. He had to win and return a heart from the J-8 up to dummy's Q-9 tenace.

Many throw-in plays are unavoidable and in these cases the defender is only to be pitied. But here was a situation which fairly yelled for East to protect himself, to get out of the way with that dangerous diamond king. When declarer discarded his last heart, the ten spot, on dummy's last club, then led the spade [obviously to the king] East needed only the dimmest eyesight to see what was threatening. No matter who had the diamond jack, East's king would be a liability. If West had it, East would not need the king, and holding it would only be blocking his partner; if declarer had the jack, East would merely court a certain throw-in play by holding the king. Perhaps all this makes it clear that I think East should have discarded the king, not the ten of diamonds.

Simple, Swank Dresses Boon to Vacationist

BY REA SEEGER.

Promoted under the intriguing title of vacation dresses is one of the smartest collections of simple streamlined summer dresses ever tagged with a surprisingly low price tag. Considerably under the $10 limit, these are the best buys for any clothes collector with or without a budget. They are gems of great value for the vacationist who must count pennies.

Most of them are of sharkskin in white and an assortment of flattering pastels. The skirts are short, simply cut, some gathered flatly in front, others with soft folds and some with circular cut flares.

Bodices are high of neckline, some with little boy turnover collars, some with a simple round neck and others with a shallow vee outline. Sleeves are brief, cool, and supercomfortable. Absence of trim to mar their swank simplicity makes them ideal foundation dresses for colored accessories. One model has chest pockets, three on each side, and, tho these are fake affairs, the dashing effect of tailored pockets is achieved.

Yellow, China blue, dove gray, and a pink offer enough color attractions to suit the most demanding shopper; the cool, snappy all whites are tremendously effective with tailored details and a slick swing to the skirts.

Wear the white models with polka dotted hats and bags, even slippers, or with stripes or dark dramatics of navy blue, brown, black, or green. The pastels go with white or darker contrasting colors. These dresses are sufficiently smart to be worn anywhere during a summer day at home or out on a vacation.

Never Remind Child of His Past Mistakes

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1940: News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

"Did you see that change the vegetable man left on the kitchen table, son. It was a quarter."

"No, mother, I didn't."

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, I'm sure. Why do you keep asking me, mother?"

"Well, I thought you might have taken it when you went down to the drug store with the boys to buy a soda."

"But I told you I didn't see it, mother."

"I know. But you know you told me a lie last week about your arithmetic examination. How do I know you're telling me the truth now?"

A silence fell.

"Mother," replied a rather desperate young voice, "aren't you ever going to forget that? It's the only time I ever lied to you. What's the good of my telling you the truth if you're never going to believe me again?"

It's right for us to want our children to be honest in word and deed, but if thru some chain of circumstances, or thru fear of our disappointment or anger, if thru our unwise management they have slipped up, we're not helping them by holding it against them. What we're doing by that approach has a tendency to push them down again. It's hanging a weight around their necks, the weight of their past mistakes.

Do you think you could rise above past faults or even grave wrongs you'd committed, if some one constantly reminded you of them?

Unwittingly many mothers and fathers not above it, do this very thing. Slight and quite natural mistakes, as well as serious ones, are held against children.

"No, you may not dry the dishes for mother. You break too many things.

"But mother, I only broke . . ."

"You broke one of the pink goblets on Sunday, and on Decoration day you cracked the blue tea cup. You're too careless. I'll dry the dishes myself."

Do you think your child is going to continue to want to help you and enjoy your companionship if you act like that? And wouldn't you hate to have all your breakages held against you?

In the train I heard a mother say: "This is the last time you go anywhere with me. All you do is whine and wiggle, just the way you did at grandma's last Sunday. And I was absolutely ashamed of you at Mrs. Graham's. I'm just discouraged about you."

How surprised that mother would have been if the woman sitting behind her had said: "When your little daughter does something sweet or thoughtful, do you remind her of other times when she's been thoughtful?"

Too many parents have a way of bringing up a child's past mistakes.

Forget past misdemeanors. But, above all, when morning comes, begin each day as if it were a fresh white page.

BRIDGES OUSTER DELAY STIRS UP SENATE DEBATE

Lack of Action Defended by New Dealers.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., July 22.—The delay in reporting out of committee the bill to deport Harry Bridges, west coast director of the C. I. O., came up for discussion today on the floor of the senate. Demands for action were made by Senators Henry F. Ashurst [D., Ariz.], chairman of the senate judiciary committee, and Robert R. Reynolds [D., N. C.].

Harry Bridges.

Their remarks provoked a tart reply from Richard B. Russell [D., Ga.], in whose committee on immigration the bill, already passed by the house, has been slumbering for several weeks. Asserting he was not apologizing for the delay, Senator Russell said the usual procedure was being followed in the Bridges matter and the bill would be handled in due course.

Responsible for Strikes.

An alien and reputed member of the communist party, Bridges' revolutionary tactics have attracted nation-wide attention.

The bill to deport him was introduced in the house by Representative Overton Brooks [D., La.] after a movement to have the alien labor czar deported by Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, the usual channel, failed. Secretary Perkins appointed as a special trial examiner James M. Landis, dean of the Harvard law school and former New Deal chairman of the Securities and Exchange commission, who ruled that there was no substantial evidence that Bridges is a communist or ever had been one.

The secretary thereupon quashed the deportation warrant.

Violates U. S. Hospitality.

Shortly after the senate had convened today Senator Ashurst announced from the floor that numerous protests on the delay in reporting the Bridges bill have been directed at his committee. He wanted to explain, he said, that the bill is before the committee on immigration and not the judiciary committee.

"Had the bill been referred to the committee on judiciary it would have been reported almost immediately—favorably," he concluded. "An enemy hammering on the gates from within may be equally if not more dangerous than an enemy hammering from without. Too long has the hospitality of the United States been violated by this man Bridges."

IOWA PILES UP ALL-STAR VOTE FOR IRON MEN

MUTUAL GETS EXCLUSIVE WORLD SERIES BROADCAST

LANDIS CLOSES $100,000 DEAL WITH NETWORK

W-G-N Again to Be Chicago Outlet.

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

For the second successive year, W-G-N and the Mutual Broadcasting system will broadcast the world series exclusively. This announcement was made yesterday by Commissioner K. M. Landis, who added that the exclusive broadcasting rights would contribute an additional $100,000 to post season receipts.

A contract for the exclusive broadcasting rights was signed here yesterday by Commissioner Landis; Fred Weber, general manager of the Mutual network, and J. P. Spang Jr. of Boston, president of the Gillette Safety Razor company, which will sponsor the series as it did last season. The Mutual network and the razor company, it was announced, also have taken an option on the 1941 world series broadcasting rights.

Harridge, Frick Speak.

A special broadcast announcing this exclusive broadcast of the series was made last evening over the Mutual network. William Harridge, president of the American league; Bob Elson, W-G-N-Mutual baseball broadcaster; Mr. Spang and Leslie M. O'Connor, secretary to Commissioner Landis, spoke from W-G-N studios. Ford Frick and Red Barber, WOR baseball broadcaster, spoke from WOR studios in New York.

Elson and Barber reported last year's world series for Mutual. Elson has broadcast eight world series. It was announced, however, that announcers for the 1940 series had not been selected.

More than 150 stations in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Hawaii will be linked to the Mutual system for the October classic, Mutual's management announced.

Short Waves to Be Used.

Short wave facilities also will be arranged so that listeners the world over may hear the reports of the games.

In 1938 the series was aired without sponsorship. Prior to that the Ford Motor company held exclusive rights for three years.

The $100,000 will be divided among players of the two pennant winning teams, the commissioner's office, the league and clubs in the same manner as are the gate receipts. Last year's broadcasting fee netted the members of the winning Yankees squad nearly $600 each.

Aron Winner Over Turiello in 10 Rounds

BY FRANK MASTRO.

Milt Aron, Chicago boxer, slammed out a 10 round victory over Saverio Turiello of Italy in Marigold outdoor arena last night to strengthen his position as foremost welterweight contender.

Turiello, stablemate of Champion Henry Armstrong, had won two previous decisions over Aron, but the stocky 27 year old fighter was not equal to the task in this third match.

Decision Unanimous.

Turiello dazzled spectators with his speed and intricate style in the early stages. However, he tired in the sixth round to allow Aron to take the lead, an edge the Chicagoan never relinquished. Aron was pressing at the finish.

The decision of Referee Davey Miller and Judges Ed Hintz and George Kenny was unanimous. By his revenge triumph Aron demonstrated he is at last ready for an Armstrong match.

Aron weighed 151 and Turiello 148.

Promoter Irving Schoenwald said the attendance was 5,360. Gross receipts were $11,513. The net was $9,594.

Turiello Starts Fast.

Turiello started strong, winning the first and third rounds with a body attack Aron appeared unable to solve. Aron came back with a body offensive of his own in the second and fourth to hold his stocky Italian foe on even terms.

Young Kid McCoy, Detroit junior welterweight, won the most important victory of his career when Billy Marquart of Winnipeg, Man., was refused permission to come out for the fourth round in a contest which followed the main event. Marquart received a cut on his left eye in the second round and a cut on his right eye in the third.

Fritzie Zivic, Pittsburgh welterweight, knocked out Leonard Bennett of Detroit in the fourth round of a secondary feature, set for 10 rounds. A left to the body ended the match in 2:28. The setback was Bennett's first in six appearances.

Vision of Childhood.

It's only a box of marbles
Of every size and hue,
But it fills my heart with longing
For the childhood days of you.

The hours that I cherish deeply
As only a mother can,

BONURA SIGNED BY CUBS; MAKES HIS DEBUT TODAY

Former Sox Star Obtained from Senators.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Boston, Mass., July 22.—Zeke Bonura, colorful first baseman whom the Cubs purchased today from the Washington Senators, will not have to fret about getting into action in a Chicago uniform. Manager Gabby Hartnett received a telegram advising him of Zeke's purchase when the Cubs' two car caravan was in Albany, N. Y., this noon and immediately announced Bonura would play against the Bees tomorrow, batting sixth.

Said Gabby: "I think that Zeke will help us a great deal offensively and I'm not going to start worrying about his defensive play so long as he hits the ball like he's always hit it.

"In this connection I am making no apologies for his defensive play. I never saw him lose any games afield while he was with the Giants and in several city series while he was with the Sox."

Chicago May Be Good to Zeke.

"I have long understood that Zeke looks upon Chicago as his favorite major league city, a place second only to New Orleans in the big fellow's affections. I hope and think this opportunity to return to Chicago will spur him to his most enthusiastic efforts. At any rate there will be no loss of time in giving him a chance to show his stuff. He will play tomorrow, batting after Hank Leiber, who will abandon his first baseman career and go to center field."

It was known the Cubs were after one of several first basemen but Manager Hartnett expected to make the announcement some time after his arrival in Boston. He was advised en route by Charles [Boots] Weber, Cubs' vice president, that the deal had been closed and announced. Hartnett said he had no idea how much cash had been involved, but, since the deal was handled thruout by the Cub bookkeeping department, it was assumed in other quarters that the price was something a little above the major league waiver price of $7,500. In Washington, Clark Griffith, owner of the Senators, said the purchase price was $10,000.

Gets Lessons from Terry.

While Bonura was with the New York Giants last year, Manager Bill Terry devoted considerable time to coaching Zeke in handling ground balls, this department of fielding having been his outstanding weakness.

In his one year as a National

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Not at all boastful, but nevertheless right proud about what they've done since last seen hereabouts, the White Sox will be back on their own Comiskey park grass this afternoon for what they hope may prove a pleasant stay.

The exact profit while on tour was two out of three in Boston, the same in New York, two losses in three games in Washington, and three successes in Philadelphia. Four of the victories occurred at the finish. Thus when they go to work today against Boston's Red Sox the Chicagoans will have that budding winning streak in mind. The Sox are home for 22 games, including four double headers, one with the Yankees Sunday. The Yanks open the series in a night game Friday.

James Dykes' battlers have been telling each other right along that eventually there'll come a winning streak that will convert them from second division members into associates of the haughty first division folks. Third place is only five games away.

Pitching Pleases Dykes.

Manager Dykes thought the pitching as a whole was pretty slick, the hitting excellent, and the eight out of 12 for the trip most satisfactory, but nevertheless found one cause for complaint while en route. In Washington, fresh from two straight over the Yankees, he cautioned his boys against an old weakness—letting down.

"Just because you've trimmed the

50,000 BALLOTS SET AS GOAL IN CEDAR RAPIDS

Nation-Wide Poll to End Tonight.

Only Hours Left!

THE nation-wide College All-Star football poll, in which fans annually select the starting eleven to meet the world professional champions, will close at midnight tonight. No votes reaching THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE after noon tomorrow will be counted. Final standings will be announced Thursday morning. The All-Stars will meet Green Bay Aug. 29 in Soldiers' field.

BY WILFRID SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cedar Rapids, Ia., July 22.—Cedar Rapids and adjacent territory will cast upwards of 50,000 votes to help place Iowa's iron men—Nile Kinnick, Erwin Prasse, Dick Evans and Buzz Dean—on the All-Star team which meets the Green Bay Packers, professional champions, in Soldiers' field, Aug. 29.

The Cedar Rapids Gazette, which is in charge of this community drive, has a circulation of 44,000, second largest in the state. The city's population is 62,000. Fifty thousand votes, even with proper credit to outside assistance, might seem a tremendous record. It is considered only passable here.

Start Drive for Anderson.

"The folks are supporting Iowa's players and with the help of all the state we are sure they'll gain places on the All-Star team," Tait Cummins, Gazette sports editor, said today. "But starting Wednesday morning, you'll see an expression of confidence that will be astounding. Already some of our ballots have come back with Dr. Eddie Anderson's name added to them. Cedar Rapits, and this goes for the state, too, is preparing to roll up a record vote for Iowa's football coach as head of the nation's All-Stars."

Cummins believes all four Iowa players will be named. His confidence stems from the size of the vote to date, knowledge that thousands of votes will be received in the final 24 hours, and that the All-Star squad probably will be as large as in 1939. This makes the task easier. Electing Anderson is a different problem.

Certain of 50,000 Votes.

"Our players' vote has been splendid. It also has served to give our solicitors experience," Cummins continued. "We're ready now to shoot for the bulls-eye. There can be only one head coach and he must be Anderson."

What Cummins told us of the Cedar Rapids campaign fits into the picture of the state's balloting as described yesterday. Cedar Rapids is certain to have 50,000 votes. There may be more because it's volunteer work and no one knows who may turn in how many votes by midnight tomorrow. In Cummins' mail today was an overstuffed envelope from Jim Herring, hotel manager at Belle Plaine, 30 miles away. He sent in more than 300 votes for the Iowa seniors. "Thought I'd better do my bit," Herring wrote in paraphrase of Iowa's state wide thought.

Here are some of the vote getting activities in Cedar Rapids:

Harry S. Johnson, president of the

Calm Slows Up Mackinac Race; Revenge in Lead

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Aboard the United States Coast Guard Cutter Escanaba off Fox Island, Mich., July 22 [By Radio].—The Revenge, 59 foot cutter owned by Blair Walliser and Kenneth Griffin, representing the Chicago Yacht club, led the fleet of 52 boats racing from Chicago to Mackinac Island at 9 p. m. [Chicago time] tonight. The leader as well as its rivals, however, was becalmed between North Manitou lighthouse and Beaver Island.

The Revenge was tacking at an average of three miles an hour from one zephyr to the next.

Lively Lady, the South Shore Milwaukee Yacht club sloop owned and sailed by Otto Dreher, was eight miles astern of the Revenge tonight, followed by Manitou less than a mile astern. The Manitou, a 62 foot yawl, is owned by James Rowland Lowe of the Chicago Yacht club.

Grouped a short distance back of the Manitou were the Warrior, Tahuna, Gloriant, Hope, Hostess, and Batavia, with the Hornet trailing this squadron. In another group 5 to 10 miles astern were the Bangalore, Belle Aurore, Nanland, Southern Cross, Tomahawk, Betty Bro, Tamaris, and Quest.

The lead held by Revenge was believed at this point not wide enough to save its handicap. Tahuna, Belle Aurore, and Bangalore were in the best handicap positions.

FIVE RACE TODAY AT ARLINGTON IN FUTURITY TUNEUP

Millsdale Stable Sends Kansas to Post.

BY HOWARD BARRY.

Five candidates for Saturday's Futurity will race today at Arlington Park in a final test of their fitness to go to the post in the $55,000 event, which will draw some of the fleetest juveniles of the east as well as the middle west. Kansas, Our Boots, Swain, Kansas City, and War Result are among seven 2 year olds entered in a five and a half furlong dash on this afternoon's program.

With the arrival of Mrs. E. Graham Lewis' Chicuelo from the east yesterday, the field of probable Futurity starters was completed. In addition to those above mentioned, Attention, Swing and Sway, Mettlesome, Whirlaway, Cuantos, Port Alibi, Valdina Groom and New Englander are pointing for the race with the likelihood that all but two or three will actually go to the post. All of these horses are now on the grounds.

Kansas Gets Second Test.

Today's race will go a long way toward showing whether Kansas, which is owned by the Millsdale stable, will live up to advance expectations. He was so highly regarded that he went to the post as the 2 to 1 favorite in the first start of his career a week ago Friday at Arlington Park. After racing rather greenly for the first quarter mile, he settled into excellent stride and came on in the stretch to beat a field of fairly good juveniles, some with considerable experience in actual competition. Kansas hasn't been to the post since that effort.

The Woolford Farm's good performer, Joe Schenck, won the Danville purse, a six furlong event which headed yesterday's program. Making his first start since running second to Advocator in the Stars and Stripes handicap, Joe Schenck was backed down to 4 to 5 odds in a field of six.

Joe Schenck Away Slowly.

He was forced to hustle after being caught flat footed at the start. Darby Dienst, a 13 to 1 shot, opened up a substantial lead with Silverette, Garrett Watts' 10 year old mare, in closest pursuit.

Joe Schenck improved his position gradually during the run down the back stretch and around the turn. When they straightened out for the dash to the wire, he was within easy reach of the pace setter. Darby Dienst gave way quickly, but Silverette hung on persistently. Joe Schenck was only a half length in the lead as Al Snider drove him across the finish line. Joseph E. Widener's Plowshare took third money. The winner returned $3.60, $2.60, and $2.20 for win, place, and show.

SUNNY MAC [W.Garner]	112	5	11	11	11	cut down			Mrs.J.Alex'der	265.30-1

Time, 1:28 4-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Yetive, $23.00 straight, $11.80 place, $6.80 show; Chance Queen, $22.80 place, $10.00 show; Yantis, $4.40 show. Winner trained by M. Preston. Went to post at 3:21. At post half minute. Start, good, for all but small Son, from gate. Won driving, place same.

YETIVE, hustled along from the start, forced POPS RIVAL wide approaching the stretch and finished under strong pressure. CHANCE QUEEN, factor from the start, was shuffled back nearing the stretch, came fast when sent to the inside and hung near the end. YANTIS, slow to begin and bothered slightly by SUNNY MAC, improved his position on the extreme outside and closed resolutely.

FOURTH RACE—Seven furlongs. Three year olds. Claiming. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, 1:24 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Woodvale Lass, $5.20 straight, $4.00 place, $3.00 show; Winkle, $5.00 place, $4.00 show; You Alone, $7.80 show. Winner trained by C. Porter. Went to post at 3:50½. Off at once. Start good, from gate. Won handily, place driving.

WOODVALE LASS, sent up gradually under light urging and on the inside the first five-eighths, closed well and won drawing out. WINKLE took command easily while racing wide, was under pressure after five-eighths and held on with determination. YOU ALONE, close to the pace from the start, in hand for five-eighths, responded only weakly when called upon and faltered in the last 70 yards.

FIFTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Two year olds. Claiming. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

JOCKS PRIDE, close to the pace from the start and kept under a steady hold, weakened slightly in the late stages yet stalled off TOWN MISS. Latter raced with good speed from the start, could not withstand the winner's challenge. JIM PAT forced to race wide thruout had speed but began to weaken after a half mile.

SIXTH RACE—Six furlongs. Three year olds and up. Allowances. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, 1:11 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Joe Schenck, $3.60 straight, $2.60 place, $2.20 show; Silverette, $4.40 place, $2.80 show; Plowshare, $2.60 show. Winner trained by R. O. Higdon. Went to post at 4:45½. Off at once. Start good, from gate. Won driving, place same.

JOE SCHENCK, reserved off the pace and forced to race wide the final half mile, responded willingly to stout pressure after a half mile and, shaking off SILVERETTE, was in front to clear at the end. Latter, taken in hand early and under stronger restraint on the turn where she was inclined to bear out, made a determined effort in the drive but could not hold the winner. PLOWSHARE dropped far out of contention when rushed on the inside early, came out in the stretch and while slow to respond, rallied with much energy in the last eighth.

SEVENTH RACE—Mile and an eighth. Three year olds and up. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, 1:53 4-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Molasses Bill, $17.80 straight, $8.40 place, $5.80 show; Adoress, $7.60 place, $6.00 show; Hurrigal, $12.00 show. Winner trained by E. Hamilton Jr. Went to post at 5:15. Off at once. Start good, from gate. Won easily, place driving.

MOLASSES BILL, outrun early, saved ground when improving his position, moved into command entering the stretch and steadily increasing his margin was easily. ADORESS moved forward on the inside, was taken to the outside at the far turn, lost ground entering the stretch and tired near the end. HURRIGAL improved her position next to rail and finished strongly.

CHEICK RAMA rushed into contention on the outside, took command when ready, responded well when challenged and in a long drive lasted to outfinish KANTAR BEAU. The latter, reserved early, was sent to the outside at the far turn, was put to strong urging when challenging the winner, and would have been up in another stride. OUT OF FIRE in close quarters on the far straightaway, came thru the field in the stretch and finished well.

ELLAMAE SCORNS EXEMPTION; WINS WOMEN'S MEDAL

Champ Cards 42-37-79 in Northmoor Play.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

Ellamae Williams of Medinah, the busy young daughter of Bryn Mawr's professional, Eddie Williams, who has been dominating Illinois girls' golf for the last two years, yesterday won the qualifying medal in the annual association tournament of the Chicago Women's District Golf association at the Northmoor Country club. Ellamae, as defending champion, was exempt from the medal play trial, but even with that excuse and in spite of the weather, she elected to go after the honor, winning it with a 42—37—79, four over par for Northmoor.

Only Player Under 80.

Miss Williams was the only one in the field of 175 starters to break 80. Following her was her pal, Eleanor Dudley of Ridge, whom Ellamae last month defeated for her second straight state championship. The husky Eleanor was even with Ellamae's 42 on the out nine, but took 40 coming home for an 82.

The 32 low scorers in yesterday's heat-ridden round qualified for the championship flight in match play, which opens this morning with 16 18-hole arguments.

Takes 11 on Eighth.

Most unusual happening of the qualifying round was the 11 taken by Virginia Ingram of Sunset Ridge, twice holder of the title, at the eighth, where she required nine shots to escape a batch of bunkers.

The cards for the Misses Williams and Dudley:

Par—Out	445	354	345—37
Par—In	445	444	535—38—75
Miss Williams—Out	555	454	374—42
Miss Williams—In	445	453	444—37—79
Miss Dudley—Out	565	366	434—42
Miss Dudley—In	545	444	545—40—82

Qualifying scores and pairings for the first round follow:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT.

Four Card 69s as Public Links Tourney Opens

Detroit, Mich., July 22 (AP).—America's pay-as-you-play golf headliners staged the greatest scoring exhibition in the 19 year history of the National Public links tournament today in the first round of the 36-hole qualifying test over the Rackham Municipal course.

Hot as the merciless sun were six golfers who carded two-under-par 69s to share the medal honors.

The pace setters, representing four different sections, were Charles Ferrera of San Francisco, 1931 and 1933 champion, who is a structural steel worker; Worth Stimits Jr. of Colorado Springs, Colo., a senior at Colorado college and Rocky mountain conference champion; Adrian French, 34-year-old unemployed draftsman of Huntington Park, Cal.; Fred H. Hill, 29-year-old Worcester, Mass., salesman; Luke Barnes, 20 year old graduate of Atlanta's Tech High and last year's medalist at Baltimore, and Charles E. Harter, 25 year old Indianapolis meat packer.

Fifty-seven of the 191 players who finished reported scores of 73 or under. If the same scoring pace continues tomorrow, then golfers with 148 totals will need to play off for places in the match play bracket of 64. The lowest score required in the past was 151 at Cleveland in 1938.

Pressing the leaders with 70s were three golfers—Edward J. Furgot, Utica, N. Y., metal polisher; Robert H. Price, 40-year-old Oklahoma City coffee shop owner, and Donald Smith of St. Joseph, Mo. Other scores:

leaguer. Zeke batted .321. He batted in 85 runs, the second time in eight years he had failed to bat in 100 runs or more. In his four years with the Sox, Zeke drove in 110 runs in 1934, 92 the following year, then 138 and 100. In his first hitch with the Senators, to whom he was traded on March 18, 1938, for Joe Kuhel, Bonura drove in 114 runs. Zeke's best batting averages in the majors were .330 and .345, with the White Sox in 1936 and 1937. The last semi-official American league averages show him with a 1940 mark of .281, with 46 runs batted in.

Galan Gets "Regular" Job.

The Cubs, who are exactly as close to third place as they are to fifth, and vice versa, arrived here in an expectant mood. Manager Hartnett's expectations were in an upward direction and with this thought in mind, announced a shuffled lineup, some of the changes not being based on current batting averages. Gabby said Augie Galan, currently a .200 hitter, would go back to left field and stay there until he starts hitting. Leiber will supplant Jim Gleeson in center field.

PETER MAHER, BARE KNUCKLE FIGHTER, DIES

Baltimore, Md., July 22 (AP).—Peter Maher, 71 years old, one of the last of the fighters in the old bare knuckle days more than 50 years ago, died here today. Maher was born at Galway, Ireland, in 1869 and began fighting when 13 years old. When still in his early teens he fought exhibitions with the famed John L. Sullivan and Peter Jackson, and it was at Sullivan's suggestion that Maher came to the United States.

BOSTON OPENS LONG HOME STAY FOR SOX TODAY

Red Sox and Yanks, don't start thinking you're so good that you don't have to take second division competition seriously. Remember you are in that division yourselves," said the manager.

The speech had no effect. The Sox lost the first two to the Senators. After the second loss Dykes decided on a little post-game oratory which was alive with pepper. It got results. The next day they whipped the Senators and followed with the three victories over the Athletics. In those four games the Chicagoans, in one way or another, scored 45 runs, which is a lot of scoring in any league.

Dykes to Start Lee.

For this afternoon's affair with the Red Sox who grew quite fat in sweeping their last series here, Dykes will take the blanket off Thornton [Lefty] Lee who has been resting since he started the four game streak with his five hitter in Dickman. Dykes originally planned Washington last Friday. Lee will face either Herbert Hash or Emerson on Bill Dietrich, Jack Knott and Pete Appleton against Boston, the idea being to get set for the Yanks over the week-end. After counting noses Dykes decided he could work Lee, Dietrich and Knott in the Boston series and be just as well fortified against the arrival of the champions. Eddie Smith will use his southpaw style against the title holders Friday night, John Rigney will serve to them Saturday afternoon and by Sunday Lee will have had enough rest to pair up with Ted Lyons in the double header.

The Sox manager hasn't given up the notion that he'll be in the first division eventually, but there are one or two hazards on the uphill road. He's somewhat shy on man power. His only spare fly chaser, Larry Rosenthal, has been incapacitated with a sore back. There are two extra infielders in Jack Hayes and Eric McNair, but the former's eye infection hasn't cleared up and McNair thus far in the race has been of no value. Thus if any outfielder or infielder should meet with a mishap it may defeat Dykes' optimism.

Cards, Steelers to Play in Pro League Opener

The Chicago Cardinals and the Pittsburgh Steelers are the teams afforded opportunity to score the first 1940 victory in the National Football league. This was assured last night with announcement of the schedule by Carl L. Storck of Dayton, O., president of the league.

The season's opener, two days earlier than in 1939, will be played in Pittsburgh on Sunday, Sept. 8. A week later six other members of the 10 club professional league will swing into action, with the Cardinals and Pittsburgh also performing in the four contests. The first card of five games, however, will not be offered until Oct. 13.

Last of the teams to begin championship combat will be the Cleveland Rams and the Chicago Bears. The Rams open against Philadelphia in a night game in Cleveland on Friday, Sept. 20, so that every other contender will have played at least once before the Bears open at Green Bay against the Packers on Sept. 22. The schedule:

Sept. 8—Chicago Cardinals at Pittsburgh.
Sept. 15—Philadelphia at Green Bay, New York at Pittsburgh, Detroit vs. Chicago Cardinals at Buffalo, N. Y.; Brooklyn at Washington.
Sept. 20—Philadelphia at Cleveland [night].
Sept. 22—Chicago Bears at Green Bay, Pittsburgh at Detroit, New York at Washington.
Sept. 25—Chicago Bears at Chicago Cardinals [night].
Sept. 28 — New York at Philadelphia [night].
Sept. 29—Brooklyn at Pittsburgh, Cleveland at Detroit, Chicago Cardinals vs. Green Bay, at Milwaukee.
Oct. 4—Philadelphia at Brooklyn [night].
Oct. 6—Washington at Pittsburgh, Chicago Bears at Cleveland, Chicago Cardinals at Detroit.
Oct. 13—Philadelphia at New York, Detroit at Chicago Bears, Pittsburgh at Brooklyn, Chicago Cardinals at Washington, Cleveland at Green Bay.
Oct. 20—Washington at Philadelphia, Pittsburgh at New York, Brooklyn at Chicago Bears, Detroit at Green Bay, Chicago Cardinals at Cleveland.
Oct. 26—Brooklyn at Philadelphia [night].
Oct. 27—Washington at Detroit, Chicago Bears at New York, Pittsburgh vs. Green Bay at Milwaukee, Cleveland at Chicago Cardinals.

It looks like a smear campaign, Alben Barkley said in the Democratic convention in his keynote speech that Willkie was leading the second charge of the Light Brigade. Please, Arch, will you remind one Mr. Roosevelt and his mouthpiece, Mr. Barkley, that the charge of the first Light Brigade was a glorious achievement, and that it is the judgment of many that the Light Brigade couldn't be licked in a second engagement.

You know, Arch, that in the charge of the Light Brigade it was "cannon to left of them, cannon to right of them." In the charge of the second brigade it would appear that it will be smear to right of them, maligning to left of them, but on they'll thunder.—L. R. B., Moline.

Clouds.

The clouds look dull and gray and bleak
From the vantage of the ground,
But high upon the skyward side
In beauty they abound.
The gray and white of every puff
Blends in a mystic form,
The sun rays pierce their porous sides
And make them red and warm.
Huge cataracts in heaven's stream
Drift slowly thru the air
And change the monumental forms;
Each one more bright, more fair.

Huge rolling plains of milky white
Stretch out the sky across
Like angels' hair strung round the earth
In golden strands of floss.
The puffs and billows pyramid
To form a mountain chain,
A fringe of wondrous beauty
Along the rolling plain,
Shades of gold and white and gray
Contrasting with the sky;
A bit of heaven that's reserved
For only those who fly.

Mr. Willkie is supposed to know all about utilities. After November do you suppose he will have acquired a lot of information about utilities? One never knows, does one, the hats being what they are this season.

Mayor Kelly mislaid his hat in the Pump room the other evening and five plainclothes men went scurrying around like mad trying to recover the missing chapeau. Well, you can't blame them for being so anxious. The mayor of a city as big as Chicago must have a lot of things he has to keep under his hat.

Hollywood is making quite a fuss over its newest sensation, an acting cow called Elsie. They paid tribute to her at a party in her honor the other evening. Well, anyhow, that was a change. They've paid homage to the bull for so long.

ALL-STAR COACH HAS AN IDEAL JOB, SAYS GUS DORAIS

[Charles E. (Gus) Dorais, former Notre Dame quarter back and now coach at the University of Detroit, was head coach of the All-Star squad in 1937 when the All-Americans defeated the Green Bay Packers, 6 to 0. Mr. Edgar is a Detroit newspaper man.]

BY W. W. EDGAR.

Detroit, Mich., July 22.—"I can think of no happier experience for any football coach than to be chosen to lead the College All-Stars in their annual battle with the champions of the National Football league."

Gus Dorais.

The speaker was Charles E. [Gus] Dorais, athletic director at the University of Detroit and the first coach ever to lead the collegians to victory in the annual game in Soldiers' field, Chicago.

"Yes, sir, that's an experience worth while," Gus went on as he thought of this year's game on Aug. 29 and at the same time allowed his memory to drift back to the night he sent a college team out to beat the powerful Green Bay Packers of 1937.

"Just imagine the environment a coach is thrown into when he's elected to the All-Star coaching staff. First of all, he's given a squad of stars from all sections of the country. That in itself should thrill any coach—to know that he has plenty of material and more than adequate replacements for any position. So few of us ever run into such a situation during our college coaching.

Meets Many Types.

"But there's more than that thrill to enjoy. The lucky coach comes into daily contact with players who have been coached under varied systems—the Notre Dame system, the Warner system, and others. He has a chance to learn first hand what other coaches have done under various circumstances and how they molded their offense and defense. That experience alone is invaluable to any coach."

Gus smiled as he recounted the days when he was tutoring the All-Stars, and commented:

"What coach wouldn't give a great deal to absorb so much technical knowledge of the game in a few weeks? It's a happy experience to be chosen on the All-Star coaching staff. Any coach who can't learn something in those few short weeks of training just can't be taught."

Those are the nice things about the job, Dorais confided. But he admitted there also are some trying moments.

Coach Has No Alibi.

"Coaching the All-Stars is a challenge," he pointed out, "and it robs a fellow of all chances to moan [as a lot of us do during the regular season] and eliminates alibis.

"In fact any coach of the All-Stars is on a spot—albeit a nice one. In the first place he can't cry about his lack of talent. It's plentiful. Secondly, he can't moan about lack of replacements. They also are plentiful. And lastly, the boys are all well coached before they reach Chicago. They're well grounded in all fundamentals and raring to go.

"That leaves it strictly up to the coach. His hardest job is to fit the material into a working unit in a short space of time allotted for training. But it's a pleasant task and sure tests the alertness of a coach."

"Yet, with it all," Dorias concluded, "it's a happy experience—one I know I shall never forget—to meet boys taught under various systems and learn from them how the game is played in all parts of the country.

"I have no idea which of the coaches will be honored by the fans in the nation-wide poll this year. But I'll be willing to wager that whoever it is, when the game is over he'll admit that he wouldn't part with his experience for anything. The night our college stars beat the Packers always will remain for me one of the greatest thrills of my career, either as a player or a coach."

Drive to Name Notre Dame Men to All-Stars Rolls to Climax

BY GEORGE STRICKLER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

South Bend, Ind., July 22.—The Notre Dame club of St. Joseph Valley entered the final 24 hours of its All-Star campaign today with every man assigned to a special detail in the last minute drive to elect a straight Fighting Irish ticket.

"We have organized for one big push," said Louis Bruggner, president of the club, "and with the outside support some of the dozen eligibles from Notre Dame are receiving, we should be able to place at least half of our ticket on the squad and perhaps two in the starting lineup against the Green Bay Packers in Chicago on Aug. 29. We are grateful to the Elkhart Truth for helping us get the recognition Notre Dame men deserve in any All-American undertaking."

Sheehan Joins Campaign.

Bruggner is directing the eleventh hour drive from his cigar store in downtown South Bend, while Carmi Belmont and Jerry Hoar, campaign chairmen, continue to operate from the campaign headquarters in the Max Adler clothing store.

William Sheehan, former Notre Dame baseball captain, whose business interests now include the campus candy store and South Bend's largest filling station, has come to the aid of the club with the organization which helped elect Elmer Layden head coach of the All-Stars last year.

Sheehan and Bruggner are counting heavily on returns from other polling places thruout the United States, as Notre Dame men begin to turn in the ballots distributed by James Armstrong, secretary of the national alumni association.

Heavy Support in Fort Wayne.

Great Notre Dame support has developed in Fort Wayne, Ind., home of Steve Sitko, Irish quarter back, where Gunnar Elliott, radio station proprietor and sporting goods retailer, has been campaigning for three home boys. With John Hackett of station WOWO, Elliott has organized a Fort Wayne boosters club for Don Liberrum, Jim Ellinwood, and Sitko. Liberrum is the 6 feet 1, 215 pound Manchester college half back who finished second among the nation's scorers last season and who was signed by the New York Giants professional eleven. Ellinwood is the Indiana end.

More unexpected aid was forthcoming when Neal Welch, editor of the South Bend Shopping News, launched an independent campaign for Jim Logan, the Indiana guard, and placed the name of ten Notre Dame men on the ticket.

Extra tabulators will have to be put on at the Elkhart Truth office, Belmont predicted today as he made arrangements for the collection of ballots from scores of polling places here and in Niles, Mich., tomorrow night. He expects to have a truckload of votes for the Truth driver, who makes daily calls at the Fighting Irish headquarters.

U. S. C. Lands 5 on Warren Brown's All-Star Eleven

Brown's quintet of Pacific Coast stars are Bill Fisk and Bob Winslow, ends; Harry Smith, guard; Grenny Lansdell, quarter back, and Bob Hoffman, half back. Brown's selections follow:

ENDS—Bill Fisk, Southern California, and Bob Winslow, Southern California.
TACKLES—Tad Harvey, Notre Dame, and Joe Boyd, Texas Aggies.
GUARDS—Harry Smith, Southern California, and Hal Method, Northwestern.
CENTER—Clyde Turner, Hardin-Simmons.
QUARTER BACK—Grenville Lansdell Southern California.
HALF BACKS—Nile Kinnick, Iowa, and Bob Hoffman, Southern California.
FULL BACK—Banks McFadden, Clemson.

IOWANS SWELL ALL-STAR VOTE FOR 4 IRON MEN

Cedar Rapids Sets Goal at 50,000 Ballots.

Three Eye league baseball club, set up ticket booths at the Three Eye All-Star game [Cedar Rapids was host]. Ballots were provided by the Gazette and more than 3,000 votes were secured.

Theaters Advertise Poll.

Ray Wernimont, manager of the State theater, and Hal Sheridan, manager of the Paramount, have used advertisments on the screen to advertise the poll. They printed their own ballots, used voting booths in their jobbies, and literally covered their theaters with signs. Twenty thousand have voted and yesterday's ballots have not been received.

By arrangement with the Boy Scouts' council in the city, scouts were on duty from 10 o'clock Saturday morning until 10 p. m. at the theaters directing the voters and assisting in taking the poll.

Homer Maxwell, manager of the Montrose hotel, using mimeographed ballots prepared by his own staff, brought in more than 5,000 votes for the four Iowa seniors. Incidentally, Maxwell also inserted Anderson's name on the ballots. His voters demanded it.

Nevin Nichols, recreation superintendent, distributed printed ballots thru his playground directors to 13 city playgrounds for one day of intensive voting. This "blitzvote" started today and, while Cummins has set 3,000 as a tentative result, it's impossible to guess accurately.

Tony Sacco Gets Support.

Barber shops, restaurants, and billiard parlors have been supplied with ballots. These are returned either thru the theaters or directly to the Gazette. Elkader, Chelsea, Tipton, and other towns have secured at least 2,500 votes. Emphasis has been placed on the Hawkeyes, but there also have been a number of unsolicited ballots for Notre Dame players and, in particular, for Tony Sacco of St. Ambrose, who is piling up a large vote in the Tri-Cities.

Iowa's attitude in this campaign has been that Iowa can do it alone. Proposals from other universities to include non-Iowa men on the ballots [each person may vote for 11 players] have been turned down.

Dick Feddersen and Ben Summerwill Jr. of Iowa City, who circulated petitions for the Iowa players at the R. O. T. C. camp at Fort Snelling, Minn., reported a complete registration of 1,800 in camp except those reserve officers living in Minnesota.

CONGRESS BEGINS STUDY OF EXCESS PROFITS TAX BILL

Doughton Would Confine Levy to Corporations.

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—Congressional and treasury tax experts today began a joint study of the possibilities of excess profits taxation to help raise revenue for national defense and prevent war millionaires.

Chairman Doughton.

Chairman Doughton [D., N. C.] of the house ways and means committee said the conferees "just sat down to talk things over" without discussing specifically how the bill would be drafted.

Would Limit Its Scope.

He said, however, that as far as he was concerned the excess levies would be applied only to corporation incomes and that individual incomes would not be touched. Within a week or 10 days "a good start" will have been made on drafting a bill, he said.

"We don't want to kill the bill by delay or ruin it by haste," he added.

In the conference were Chairman Harrison [D., Miss.] of the senate finance committee, Senators Byrd [D., Va.], Connally [D., Tex.], and George [D., Ga.]; Doughton, and Representatives Boehne [D., Ind.], McCormack [D., Mass.], Buck [D., Cal.], and Cooper [D., Tenn.]. Officials of the treasury department and the joint congressional committee on internal revenue taxation also attended.

President Asks Steep Tax.

In a message to congress on July 1, President Roosevelt recommended "a steeply graduated excess profits tax, to be applied to all individuals and all corporate organizations without discrimination."

Accordingly, the treasury worked out a tentative draft which would make the tax applicable to actual "surplus" profits or "reasonable return on capital investment," depending on the business of the taxpayer.

It was understood that this basic policy was presented to the conferees today, with the rates of such levies to be determined by the amount of funds congress finds it necessary to raise.

PREDICTS 50 PCT. UPTURN IN 1940 SOY BEAN OUTPUT

Urbana, Ill., July 22 [Special].—United States soy bean production may increase as much as 50 per cent this year if weather conditions remain favorable, Garret L. Jordan, associate professor of agricultural economics at the University of Illinois, predicted today.

The 1940 acreage of soy beans in the United States is about 14 per cent larger than in 1939, when 87.4 million bushels were produced. Production of soy beans for processing, however, is expected to increase by a much larger percentage, because about four fifths of the increase in acreage is in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Ohio, the principal high yielding commercial soy bean area.

STEEL MILL RATE IS HIGHEST SINCE LAST DECEMBER

Start Production at 88.2 Per Cent.

The nation's steel mills began ingot production this week at 88.2 per cent of theoretical capacity, the highest rate since last December, the American Iron and Steel Institute estimated yesterday.

Last week operations were scheduled at 86.8 per cent. A month ago the rate was 86.5 per cent and a year ago, 60.6 per cent. This is the third consecutive weekly rise since the July 4 holiday week slow down.

Backlogs Still Growing.

The following table shows the rate scheduled for the current week with the change in points and per cent from the preceding week and comparisons for corresponding weeks of recent years:

	Rate pct.	Change points.	Change pct.
1940	88.2	+1.4	+1.6
1939	60.6	+4.2	+7.4
1938	37	+ .6	+1.6
1937	82.5	— .2	— .24
1936	70.9	+1.9	+2.8
1935	42.2	+2.3	+5.8
1934	27.7	—1.1	—3.8

Orders for some types of steel products have slackened moderately but increased demand for other types has filled the gap, according to observers, and backlogs of many producers continued to pile up.

Railroad Buying Reported.

Heavy industry orders were reported by several companies. The Santa Fe railroad has ordered 10 heavy locomotives from the Baldwin Locomotive works, according to Railway Age. The American Refrigerator Transit ccmpany will build 100 refrigerator cars at its shops in St. Louis, Mo.

Edward W. Scheer, president of the Reading company, announced the company has placed orders for five Diesel-electric switching locomotives with the Baldwin Locomotive works, five more from the Electro-Motive corporation and three from the American Locomotive company. Total cost of the 13 switch engines is about $885,000.

FOOD CONCERNS NOW LEADERS IN AIR CONDITIONING

Food processing industries have displaced candy manufacturers in the number of air conditioning installations, the Edison Electric institute reported yesterday in its 1940 survey.

Reports from 183 utility companies serving 75 million people or more than half the country's total population, were used in compiling the survey. A total of 42,604 installations, which use 873,024 horse power, were made, according to the survey.

Candy manufacturers, which led in the number of installations in the 1939 report, dropped to second place this year, altho still leading in the amount of total horse power used. Printing and lithographing plants rank fourth in the number of installations and second in horse power, while fur storage establishments moved into third place in the number of installations.

One-fourth of the installations in 1940 are in office buildings and offices, the survey showed; one-fifth are in restaurants and retail stores, and one-fifth are in apartments. The balance were scattered among two dozen different commercial and industrial classifications.

Signs Bill Extending Time on Bridge at Chester, Ill.

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—President Roosevelt has signed a bill extending for one and three years, respectively, from July 18, 1940, the times for commencing and completing construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at Chester, Ill.

COTTON

Lacking incentive to take a decided stand on either side of the cotton market, speculators yesterday restricted operations and trading was slow. Closing sales were 02 cent lower to .01 cent higher on the active contracts. Houses with southern connections were fair sellers early. Closing trades were about the bottom.

Some improvement is reported in the more eastern part of the cotton belt as a result of dry and hot weather, altho weevil damage is expected to be serious in some sections owing to the excessive rains recently.

Brazilian cotton is underselling American by 2c a pound in Japan, it is reported, but there is less competition from Indian, as the price of the latter has advanced of late.

Spot cotton closed unchanged with New Orleans, 10.45 cents; New York, 10.54 cents; Galveston, 9.53 cents, and Houston, 9.50 cents a pound. Prices follow:

ARGENTINA SETS PACE FOR SOUTH AMERICA TRADE

Second in Size, It's First in Industry.

[This is the first of a series of articles on the trade and economic position of South and Central American countries. Ties between these countries and the United States are expected to become closer because of world developments.]

Argentina, second in area and population, leads other South American nations in commerce and industry. Its size is about one-third that of the United States. Its population is about 13,000,000, one-tenth that of the United States, largely of European extraction, with Italian and Spanish predominating.

Altho the 2,300 mile stretch of the Argentine from Bolivia to Cape Horn produces wide varieties of climate and production, the economic life of the nation is concentrated largely in the province of Buenos Aires. The city of Buenos Aires, with a population of 2,317,000, is not only the country's most important seaport and trade center, but is a modern metropolis widely known for its international, cosmopolitan character. Buenos Aires is the largest city of the southern hemisphere.

Nation Mainly Agricultural.

Argentina is primarily agricultural. Wheat, meat, corn, linseed, hides, and wool are its principal exports. Imports are mostly coal, oil, iron and steel, machinery, automobiles, textiles, and chemicals. Manufacturing is increasing in importance, altho expansion has been handicapped by lack of many raw materials.

The country's trade and industry, the government's sound financial policies and stability and a rise in trade in 1939 and 1940 despite depressed world commodity prices and the disturbed international situation has given it an economic independence greater than that of the other Latin American countries.

The war and price increases thus far have been favorable to Argentine trade, and the country appears to be in a position to gain economically from continued war in Europe. Maintenance of an export trade balance, however, might prove difficult because of a decrease in imports from Europe resulting from exchange difficulties.

Britain Its Best Customer.

Meat and cereals are needed in Europe and the need will grow as the war continues. Argentina can supply these vital foods in large quantities and has long since established European outlets. Its success in helping to supply European needs other than those of the United Kingdom hinges largely on the effectiveness of the British blockade.

The United Kingdom has been by far the republic's best customer, particularly in meat and cereals. Great Britain also has shipped more goods to Argentina than any other nation, including the United States.

The United States has a large trade with Argentina, but is overshadowed by Great Britain and countries in continental Europe. Of the country's total imports of $337,679,000 in 1939, 17 per cent came from the United States, virtually unchanged from 1938. Of the country's exports, amounting to $424,746,000, the United States received 12 per cent, compared with 8 per cent in 1938.

Great Britain took 32.9 per cent of Argentina's 1939 exports and supplied 19.9 per cent of the 1939 imports; Germany accounted for 5.7 per cent of exports and 9.2 per cent of imports and Italy for 2.1 per cent of exports and 2.7 per cent of imports.

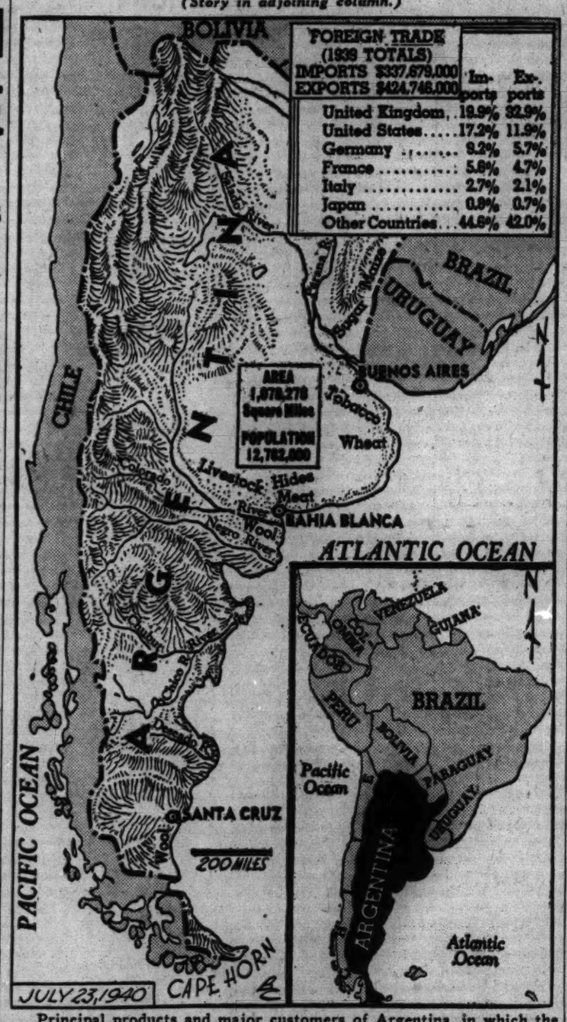
Wants No "Protection."

Argentina is the United States' biggest Latin American market, but that country buys relatively little from its northern neighbor. Exchange and various other import restrictions increase the difficulty of cultivating this market further. In addition, the decline of imports from Europe has stimulated domestic industry to efforts to produce formerly imported goods.

The commercial importance of Europe to Argentina explains the country's unmistakable attitude of not desiring the "protection" of the United States. Other countries to the south might join with the United States in an effort to oust Nazi-Fascist economic penetration, but Argentina has made it clear that it doesn't want the United States as a "big brother."

Argentina's Trade and Products

(Story in adjoining column.)



Principal products and major customers of Argentina, in which the United States holds an important interest, are shown in this map. Upper inset shows how Argentina's 1939 imports and exports were divided among various nations; lower inset locates the country in relation to rest of South America.

DOUGLAS PLANE PROFITS CLIMB ON WAR ORDERS

Exceed 1½ Millions for May Quarter.

Foreign sales comprised a large part of airplane deliveries by the Douglas Aircraft Co., Inc., in the quarter ended May 31, Donald W. Douglas, president, said yesterday, and earnings totaled $1,538,979, equal to $2.65 a common share. This compared with a net profit of $625,269 in the corresponding 1939 quarter, or $1.10 a share.

Donald W. Douglas.

Airplane deliveries for the three months totaled $12,367,621, Douglas said, and the backlog of unfilled orders on the company's books on May 31 was $140,708,287. Of this, $91,201,017 was for foreign military airplanes and $24,029,726 was for commercial models.

Six Months Sales Doubled

Net sales of $25,288,526 in the six months ended May 31 were more than double sales of $11,543,862 in the 1939 period and earnings showed a corresponding increase. Net income for the period was $3,388,857 or $5.65 a share, against $1,396,791, or $2.45 a share in the corresponding period a year earlier.

Federal income tax provisions made by the company for the six months increased more than the 2 to 1 ratio of earnings and sales. They were $810,118 for the 1940 period against $331,533 in the six months last year.

Give 18,000 Vacation

Douglas said the company gave special vacation checks totaling $450,000 to 18,000 employes who were given a four day holiday in July and were granted extra compensation in accordnce with length of service. Each quarter of the fiscal year will be charged with a proportionate share of the sum, the company said.

"Extraordinary expenses and efforts in connection with the national rearmament program," Douglas said in discussing future prospects of the company, "in which the company has been asked to play an important part, together with the inevitable increase in labor and production cost per unit inherent in rapid expansion and preparation for mass production will be important factors in net results from operations for the fiscal year."

Huge Defense Project Faces Union Quarrel

Louisville, Ky., July 22 (AP).—A squabble over control of construction labor on the $25,000,000 smokeless powder plant to be built near Charlestown, Ind., loomed today between American Federation of Labor orginizations in Indiana and the Kentucky federation.

For the announced purpose of "cooperating with the national defense program and to settle once and for all the matter of labor jurisdiction in southern Indiana," 275 representatives of Indiana unions met at Bedford yesterday and voted to seek a charter for a new organization to be known as the Southern Indiana Building Trades Council.

Tells Aim of Move.

Frank Volt, secretary of the central labor unions, New Albany, Ind., and Robert McBride, business agent for A. F. of L. labor locals in New Albany, said the move was made to keep the labor pool in its proper jurisdiction when work on the new plant starts.

Earlier Edward H. Weyler, secretary of the Kentucky Federation of Labor, said that Louisville's labor pool would be drawn on for the bulk of employment.

"Wants to Hog Work," Is Charge.

Weyler said today "this Indiana group wants to hog the work and disregard workers' interests. I don't believe the international unions will grant them a charter. Under present regulations jurisdiction of one A. F. of L. local extends half way to the next chartered local and ignores state lines. The Kentucky federation now takes in the Falls Cities."

GEN. ELECTRIC'S TURBINE SALES SET HIGH MARK

Sales of turbines—both marine propulsion and land generator sets—by General Electric company in the first six months of 1940 totaled more than 2,000,000 horse power, E. O. Shreve, vice president in charge of sales, reported yesterday.

"The half year volume of turbine business exceeds that of any comparable period in the company's history," Shreve said. Slightly more than half of the total was ordered by utilities and industrials, according to Shreve, while the remainder was marine equipments ordered to provide propulsion for 25 new navy and merchant vessels.

"The full resources of General Electric's engineering experience and manufacturing facilities have been enlisted, to assure that the orders will all be filled as speedily as possible," he said. "Normally, 12 to 18 months are required for building such large power-producing equipment."

CANADA TO BUILD 12 MUNITIONS PLANTS AT COST OF 19 MILLIONS

OTTAWA, July 22 (AP).—Munitions minister C. D. Howe announced tonight that construction of 12 more munition plants costing $19,000,000 will begin immediately.

Munition Minister C. D. Howe.

An $11,000,000 plant for manufacturing explosive chemicals was announced last week.

The largest plant will be located "somewhere in western Canada," where existing facilities are being extended to produce a large tonnage of ammonia and the ammonium nitrate.

IRISH MAINTAIN LINEN EXPORT TO UNITED STATES

Washington, D. C. July 22 [Special].—The linen industry in northern Ireland has been able to continue normal shipments to American markets this year, despite depleted flax supplies and government restrictions, the department of commerce announced today.

Figures from the American consul at Belfast place shipments of linen to this country for the 5 months ending May 31 at $4,022,770, a total, which approximates the corresponding 1939 figure.

PETAIN DECREES GRANT LOANS TO FRENCH INDUSTRY

VICHY, July 22 (AP).—Decrees granting loans to private industry and certain colonies and rectifying the exchange rate for the French and Belgian franc were enacted today by the Petain government as part of its reconstruction program.

Loans up to 200,000 francs may be made to enable industries to pay salaries and buy raw materials.

[The French franc is not now quoted. Earlier this year it ranged from a high of 2.26 cents on Jan. 29 to a low of 1.73 cents on May 10.]

Thru an arrangement with the Belgian government, 500 Belgian francs were made equal to 722 French francs.

[The Belgian franc, internal currency, is worth one-fifth of the belga, the international exchange unit which no longer is quoted but which has ranged in value from 17.10 to 16.52 cents this year.]

The finance ministry invited banks, exchange agencies and insurance companies to return to Paris as soon as possible, declaring that plans were being made to reopen the bourse.

MINIMUM PRICES ON COAL TO BE SET THIS MONTH

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—Minimum sale prices for 12,000 bituminous coal producers who provide 90 to 95 per cent of the nation's commercial coal, will be announced this month, the department of the interior said today.

A date for the prices to become effective is to be set in an accompanying order.

Altho participation in the price arrangement is optional under the coal act, operators who remain outside and sell their coal at any price they choose are subject to a 19½ per cent tax.

EARNINGS SOAR FOR 2 LEADING OIL PRODUCERS

Texas, Shell Show Gains Over 1939.

Two of the largest oil producing and refining companies in the world yesterday reported multiple increases in earnings.

Texas Corporation had net income of slightly more than $26,000,000, or about $2.40 a share, in the six months ended June 30, Torkild Rieber, chairman, announced. The company does not issue interim statements, but earnings during the first half of 1939 were placed at the equivalent of 64 cents a share.

These estimates do not include Texas' equity in the earnings of the Bahrein Petroleum company, California Arabian Standard Oil company, or Colombian Petroleum company, jointly owned by Texas and other companies.

Shell's Earnings Tripled.

R. G. A. Van Der Woude, president of the Shell Union Oil corporation, issued a report to stockholders showing earnings for the June quarter were almost triple those of last year.

Net income for the period was $4,135,788. After providing for dividends on the preferred stock this was equal to 28 cents a common share. In the 1939 quarter, net income was $1,684,156, or 9 cents a common share.

EXCHANGE HELPS SELL BIG BLOCK OF COPPER STOCK

New York, July 22 (AP).—The New York Stock exchange today scored a point in its campaign to prevent a seepage of securities business into "private" channels and away from the exchange floor.

Acting for a securities company, an exchange member marketed on the floor today 23,000 shares of Kennecott Copper at prices ranging from $24.62 a share for one block of 20,900 shares to $25 for the remainder.

The securities company previously sought to gain permission from the exchange to market the stock by private negotiation. Exchange officials canvassed the Kennecott market and helped the seller get a price they said was substantially better than ordinarily would be obtained in a private transaction. They estimated that an outside sale would have netted the seller around $23 a share.

NORTH WESTERN PUSHES ITS FIGHT AGAINST ICC PLAN

Further evidence in support of the Chicago and North Western railway's contention that its outlook for improved earnings in the future warrants the inclusion of its stockholders in the reorganized property was submitted yesterday before Federal Judge John P. Barnes.

The railroad and stockholders are opposing the Interstate Commerce commission's plan for reorganization under the bankruptcy law. The plan eliminates the stockohlders.

Luther Walter, counsel for the railroad, placed six witnesses, qualified as railroad traffic and agricultural experts, on the stand. They asserted that the ICC's estimate of future earnings was too low.

Navy Orders Teak Wood from New York Concern

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—The navy awarded a $165,766 contract for rough sawn teak wood today to the J. H. Monteath company of New York.

INCOME TAXPAYER'S LOT EASED; NO MORE DUPLICATES TO FILE

Washington, D. C., July 22 [Special].—Federal income tax payers and those who file returns but pay no taxes will no longer have to file the duplicate "green copies" which have been required since 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau announced today.

The new regulation eliminating the copies was made effective Dec. 31, 1939, so that when federal income tax returns are filed for the current calendar year there will be one less detail to contend with.

The original purpose of the copies was to permit local authorities to scrutinize federal returns, but since, persons having tangible or other taxable property are known by now to the local taxing authorities the copies were regarded as no longer essential. Authorized authorities may still inspect and photostat federal income tax returns. Primarily, the secretary said, the elimination of copies will expedite administration of the tax laws.

New Ship to Shore Radio Installed at Port Arthur

OTTAWA, Ont., July 22 [Special].—Announcement of the installation of a ship-to-shore duplex radio telephone service at the newly erected Port Arthur radio marine station was made today by the minister of munitions and supply. Under the system direct two-way conversations may be conducted from ships in Lake Superior with the offices of their owners by means of land and radio telephones linked together on the switchboard at Port Arthur.

It's a Date, but Business Men Won't Enjoy It Much

Only one date is listed in the August tax calendar, the Chicago Association of Commerce announced yesterday. The Illinois retailers' occupation sales tax return and payment for July are due Aug. 15.

FARMERS' RATES OF CONSERVATION PAYMENTS CUT

Washington, D. C., July 22 (AP).—The farm administration announced today that rates of payment and deductions under the agricultural conservation, range conservation, and naval stores programs would be 10 per cent less for 1940 than the tentative rates indicated last November.

The announcement said the reduction was necessary so that payments would not exceed available funds. Payments usually total about a half billion dollars.

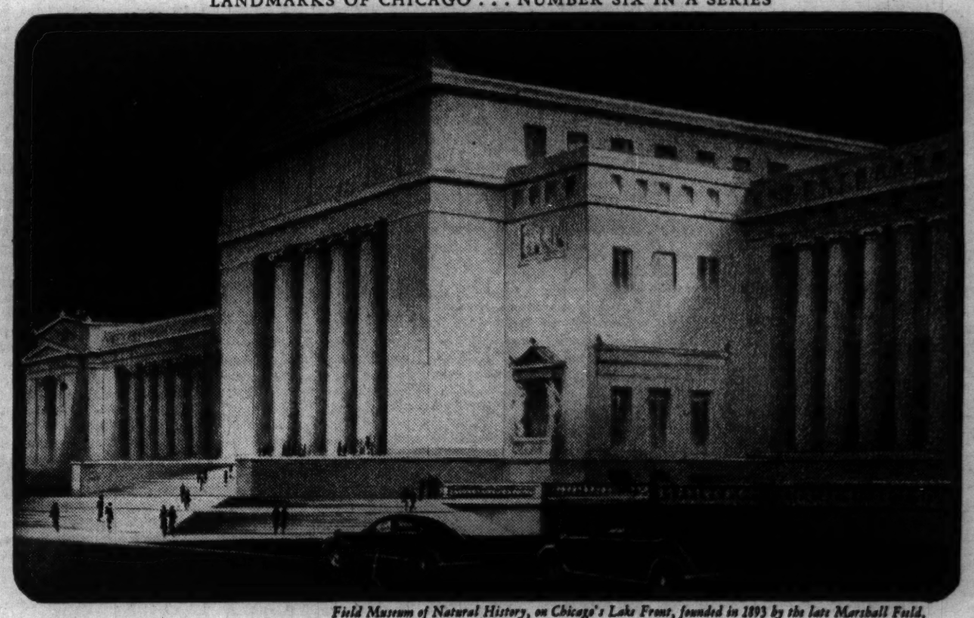
Congress authorized the use of a part of the appropriation made for the 1940 program for completion of payments under the 1939 program. The result was to cut the amount available for 1940 program payments.

Parity payments are made under a separate appropriation and are not affected by this reduction.

Heat Influences Upturn in Chicago Butter Prices

Butter for immediate and future delivery brought higher prices on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday. Hot weather reduced receipts and traders looked for larger diversion of milk to ice cream and other products. Chicago wholesale butter prices advanced ¼ to ½ cent a pound with 92 score, one of the top grades, quoted at 26½ cents. Futures rose 0.30 cent a pound with butter for delivery in November quoted at 27.45 cents. Egg futures declined 0.05 to 0.15 cent a dozen, Octobers closing at 18.70 cents.

LANDMARKS OF CHICAGO . . . NUMBER SIX IN A SERIES



Field Museum of Natural History, on Chicago's Lake Front, founded in 1893 by the late Marshall Field.

FAMILY ALBUM

for Man and his World of Wonders

DINOSAURS and Inca treasures. Alabaster from the ancient city of Kish. Meteorites—and ceremonial masks from Melanesia. The "Sun God" opal which for three centuries graced a Persian temple. A council house of the vanishing Maori.

You see these—and thousands more—when you step inside Field Museum of Natural History. For the family album of all the world lies open before you.

Nature in her countless manifestations is recorded, from prehistoric times to the present. Man and his civilizations. The amazing, change-filled life of the animal, mineral and vegetable kingdoms.

Today Field Museum is recognized as one of the five great scientific museums of the world. Its valuable exhibits cover more than 12 acres of space. More than a million visitors each year pass through its doors . . . making it truly a "people's university" and a brilliant Chicago landmark.

As in the cultural field, so, too, in the field of finance Chicago has her landmarks. One of the best-known is The Northern Trust Company. Since 1889, four years before the founding of Field Museum, it has rendered complete trust and banking services to individuals and concerns. You are invited to visit this institution, housed in its own building devoted exclusively to its own customers.

New York Stocks.

New York, July 22 (AP).— A few industrials, led by steels, managed to finish higher in another sluggish stock market session today, but the majority of issues lagged.

Dealings again were among the smallest in 22 years, with transfers of 227,120 shares compared with 255,520 last Friday. The Associated Press average of 60 issues was up .1 of a point at 41.4.

Steels were aided by a more than expected increase in this week's estimated mill operations. For the third consecutive week production advanced to a new peak since last December, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Republic and Youngstown retained gains ranging for ¼ to ⅝ of a point.

Much interest was shown in the sale of one block of 20,900 shares of Kennecott at a decline of only ⅛ of a point from a previous transaction. The stock closed unchanged at 25¼.

Ex-Cell-O corporation ran up 1⅞ at 32 on a big second quarter earnings jump. Ahead moderately were Celanese, Johns-Manville, Eastman Kodak, Westinghouse, United Aircraft, Glenn Martin, Great Northern, Chrysler, Anaconda and Standard Oil of New Jersey.

Unchanged to lower were General Motors, United States Rubber, du Pont, Loft, Dow Chemical, Santa Fe, New York Central and American Telephone.

New York Bonds.

New York, July 22 (AP).—Some rail bonds and a few utilities and industrials sold lower today, with transactions aggregating only $3,007,000, face value, against last Friday's $4,563,000.

Selected rails showed improvement, including Boston and Maine 5s of '67, up 2; Oregon Short line 5s of '46, up 1¼; Atlantic Coast line first 4s of '52, up 1, and New York and Erie first 4s of 47, up 3. However, Nickel Plate 5½s, Frisco 4½s of '78, and Southern Pacific 4½s of '68 were each nearly a point lower.

Alleghany corporation issues turned upward as an order was signed in federal court enabling the company to use more than $1,144,000 in idle cash to acquire outstanding 5s of '44, thereby reducing interest outlay. The 5s of '50, stamped, advanced 1¾.

United States governments, sparsely traded, were 7/32 of a point lower to 1/16 higher.

Chicago Stocks.

Price movements were mixed yesterday on the Chicago Stock exchange in turnover of 11,000 shares. Of the 70 active issues, 21 advanced, 31 declined, and 18 were unchanged. Sundstrand Machine Tool, which closed up 1½ to 27½, and Schwitzer-Cummins, which finished up 1 at 8½, recorded the largest gains among the volume leaders.

Bank Stocks.

First National and Harris Trust shares dipped 2 points each yesterday in Chicago bank stock trading. Continental Illinois eased half a point. Other leading issues were unchanged.

NAME CHICAGO GROUP TO SEEK STOCK LISTINGS

Map Other Plans to Meet New York's Ban.

The Chicago Stock exchange has appointed a committee of nine to consider stimulation of new listing applications and study trading hours, commission rates, and membership eligibility, Arthur M. Betts, chairman of the board of governors, announced yesterday.

Thaddeus R. Benson, named to new committee of nine.

In formulating practical plans to increase the volume of business done on the exchange the committee will not be limited in the scope of its study, however, Betts added.

The appointment was interpreted as a further widening of the breach between the New York and Chicago stock exchanges.

Announce Membership.

Members of the committee include Thaddeus R. Benson, John J. Bryant Jr., Michael J. O'Brien, R. Arthur Wood, and Paul B. Skinner, all members of the board of the exchange. The other four, all advisers of the exchange, are Sewell L. Avery, chairman and president of Montgomery Ward & Co.; Sheldon Clark, vice president of Consolidated Oil corporation; Charles Y. Freeman, chairman of Commonwealth Edison company, and Herman Waldeck, president of the Chicago Clearing House association.

"Aid is urgently needed to restore the normal, useful functioning of exchange markets, especially for the stocks of smaller companies not sufficiently well known to command spontaneous and continuous public interest," Betts said.

Ban Effective Sept. 1.

Effective Sept. 1, the New York exchange has forbidden its members from acting in any other exchange as specialists or odd lot dealers in any securities also listed in New York. This rule affects a number of brokers who are members both of the New York and Chicago exchanges. Last Wednesday, Betts revealed that action would be taken to conform with the ban of the "Big Board," but added that "progressive developments" would be forthcoming and that there would be no interruption in service, either in round or odd lots of stock. [A round lot is 100 shares in New York, 50 in Chicago.]

Week's Business Failures 288, Peak for Last Month

New York, July 22 (AP).—Business failures during the week ended July 18 reached the highest total in about a month Dun & Bradstreet reported today. The latest total was 288, compared with 261 in the previous week and 251 a year ago.

CIGARET MACHINES.

Is American Machine & Foundry an important factor in the tobacco industry? Is it owned by any cigaret manufacturer? What has been the earnings record of the company in the last four or five years?—E. K.

Answer: The American Tobacco company owned the capital stock of the American Machine & Foundry company from the time the latter was formed in 1900 until 1912, when the parent company distributed the stock among its stockholders.

About 95 per cent of all cigarets and virtually all machine-made cigars are produced in this country by machinery manufactured by American Machine & Foundry at its plant in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The company makes patented machinery for the manufacture and packaging of cigars and cigarets, and also paper, printing, lithographing, baking and other types of automatic machinery. The cigar-making machinery is leased to tobacco manufacturers thru a subsidiary, International Cigar Machinery company.

Common stock of 1,000,000 shares of no par value constitutes the entire capitalization of the company. The stock is listed on the New York Stock exchange. Dividends on the stock have been paid without interruption since 1926.

Earnings of the company have been fairly stable. Net income, earnings per share and dividends per share compared as follows in recent years:

	Net income.	Earned per share.	Dividends per share.
1935	$1,120,982	$1.12	$1.00
1936	1,210,440	1.21	1.10
1937	916,723	0.92	1.00
1938	855,532	0.86	0.80
1939	953,448	0.95	0.80

Two quarterly dividends of 20 cents each were paid this year and a third will be paid Aug. 1 on shares of record July 15.

INSURANCE AND WAR.

Altho I realize that my life insurance policy cannot be affected by any war clause the company may adopt, I have been told that if I am disabled or killed while in military service that I will not receive the full benefit of my insurance. Is this true?—C. N.

Answer: Life insurance policies of many companies contain special clauses which are canceled automatically if the holders are disabled or die in military service. Among the clauses which would be abrogated are those which provide double indemnity for accidental death and which exempt the policy holder from paying premiums if he is disabled. Automatic suspension of these clauses does not, however, exempt the companies from paying the ordinary benefits guaranteed in the policies.

HELP WANTED—MEN.

Salesmen.

MEN LIVING IN Aurora, Elgin, and Vicinity.
READ THIS AD CAREFULLY.

E. S., living in Elgin, formerly employed in a local Elgin factory, joined our company Oct. 1, 1938. His earnings since starting have been $245 per bonus commissions and bonus.

P. B., living in Aurora was formerly a R. R. accountant, has up until July 1 of this year earned $1,500.

T. P., former furrier, joined our company Feb. 1, 1939, has thus far this year earned $2,000.

R. C., former laundry salesman, joined our company Sept. 1, 1939, has earned $244.60 per month this year.

The above mentioned men and several others qualified for our business by being willing workers and above all conscientious, honest and sincere. We ask no deposit or investment of any kind. We are not interested in the so-called "clever artist" or glib talker. The men selected will be trained at our expense at our nearest factory branch. Our electrical units have practically an unlimited sales field [domestic, commercial and industrial.]

We can start 5 ambitious men immediately. If you can furnish references as to your character and honesty and can work 8 hours a day on your own. Apply in person Tuesday, July 23, between 10:30 and 11 a. m. at the BAKER HOTEL, ST. CHARLES, ILL.
Ask at desk for Mr. Smith.

Y-O-U-R O-W-N
B-U-S-I-N-E-S-S

Would you be interested in starting a business for yourself without 1 cent of investment on your part?

Well, that is exactly what we have done for many men in this territory.

These men are previous storekeepers, doctors, lawyers, shopworkers, mechanics, etc., and are now earning and receiving in percentage as much as $50 in a single day.

We are an old line, nationally known manufacturer of electrical units that defy competition and for which there is a constantly increasing demand.

Now, here are the arrangements: You must be between 24 and 54, preferably married, honest, reliable, possess a neat appearance, and possess at least a grammar school education.

At this time we will only interview men living on the South Side and southern Cook county.

Every man answering this advertisement will be given a confidential interview and if selected will be trained at our expense in our methods, which are successful.

There are no strings attached to the offer, as we even can pay rent, light, heat, telephone, girl hire, consign your merchandise, and finance your account.

Apply Tuesday at 11 a. m. sharp. Ask for Mr. Eckman, 2d floor, Standard National Bank Building, 7919 S. Ashland-av.

MEN 25 TO 50 YRS. OF AGE.

Official of eastern manufacturer will interview men for national organization; new patented electric unit; no competition.

We have several openings in Chicago territory for men who are looking for permanent work. Men selected will receive excellent return for their effort immediately and chance of advancement. If you qualify you will be put in business for yourself without any investment on your part. $50 a week from the start.
Ask at the desk for Mr. Reid, La Salle Hotel, TUESDAY, 1 P. M. ONLY.
